WHERE IS MY CHURCH?

Where is My Church? Where are My people called to stand for truth and righteousness in this the end of My Second Day? Saith the Redeemer; the Anointed Son, even Jesus, unto the children of promise. Where is the truth of My Coming? To whom shall I bestow My greater Truths? Who will do My greater works, that Creation might be redeemed unto their Creator?

Ye who profess to be called, even chosen in My Name, cannot even receive My lesser Light and walk in it's principles. For ye ever dispute the meaning of My words and have taken My Rod, even the Word of God, using it only to divide and cut asunder My Body, leaving all under the shadow of a spiritual death. Your leaders are blinded by their own ambition and evil is regarded to be good and taught unto the children of men to be My way. Ye know not My way, nor do you seek it that it might be found in thee or in thy congregations. Thy safety is deemed to be in thy numbers and not in truth or righteousness. Thy iniquity binds thee to the uncertainty of blindness and there is none to guide thee. For ye have refused My Guide, even My Holy Spirit, that ye might have been led by, to My healing streams and have thy vision returned unto thee. Ye cleave unto each other and not unto Me. For this reason I must deal with individuals, that I might raise up sons and daughters unto levels of maturity worthy to enter into the day of My Greater Light.

Who art thou, O land of Bountiful, O blessed promise land; that thou hast turned thy back upon the promise I delivered unto thee through thy fathers? Where might My true Philadelphia be found among you? Thou hast been slothful in thy stewardship of all things and hast sought unto another's house, leaving thy own gift of Light unguarded; and thy enemy seeks that thy candle be blown out. Repent ye and return unto thy True Shepherd, and He shall restore thy house. Refuse and He shall lay thy mountain of flesh below the valley floor. For He tires of thy deception and thy claims of holiness and of thy "chosen seat".

Those who will be My True Church are those who come unto My Presence in humility, seeking forgiveness. I and they are grieved by thy independence. For ye have made it unto thee a god and have forsaken He who gave it unto thee that He might hold you up by His own strength, and might bring you forth unto the greater reward of thy promised inheritance. Ye have relaxed thy grip upon the righteous rod that was unto thee deliverance, and have made thy own rod by which ye measure with the truth of compromise. The mists of darkness hath overtaken thee and ye are captive in thy wanderings and cannot find thy way back to thy Creator.

Ye have gone the way of the harlot and travel the crooked path of the serpent, whose wisdom will lead thee unto destruction. Thy house is unto thee desolate, for thy leaders have squandered thy good inheritance and there are none to speak unto thy condition and none to hear or regard reproof within thy hallowed halls.

I shall raise up the house of Joseph. Yea, even those of a seeking heart; that the scepter of the Lord might not fall. By them shall I restore vision unto all who will be healed and I shall overturn iniquity among those who will seek Me, that the light of My former Kingdom might not cease. Righteousness shall be established without and thy congregations shall be ashamed.

Thy Creator is not mocked nor is He amused by thy folly. Thy world shall be overturned and the earth shall again move, for the day doth declare it. They who find righteousness will be restored. They who mock and cleave unto their own understanding shall be lost when the earth spins like a top. The Ancient of Days is alive and will be so evermore.

If your god cannot restore your vision; cannot make your crooked path straight; cannot bring light unto thy darkness; cannot lead you into truth or answer your cry, seek ye the One who can. The “I AM” of old stands ready to deliver a remnant unto Himself and to begin anew. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of such a Living God as He. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom and the end of all knowledge that is not issued forth from His Throne. He tires of thy indecision, of thy petty disputes and of thy corrupted kingdoms, O World; and He shall cleanse His Creation of all that offends Him and stands against His Truth.

The Third Day cometh and the Second Day is done. Only His purity shall stand in this New Day. For Purity alone can behold the greater Light that is and shall be manifested.

ANOINTING OF THE MOST HIGH

Behold, the anointing of the Most High resteth upon them who are offering up their all unto Me and unto My Holy Purposes. And none who are not actively engaged in the offering up of all will receive of this anointing. And there are them among you who are jealous of the anointing that they see upon some, but have not upon themselves. I say, if thou doest well will ye not also be accepted? For behold, I make no difference but give unto all according to their own diligence in fairness. So wherein ye see fundamental lack in yourself, know the cause be within your own diligence; not with others. For remember, within My group there is to be no competition. And if there be competing, all who are engaged therein are defiled by adverse desires, wherefore writing ceases to come forth by them.

Know of a surety that I do not play favorites, but I choose and pour through them who will do My work diligently, having forsaken their own will and way for Mine. So let not jealousy or competition cloud your sight and defile your understanding of My pure movings amongst you. And know that ultimately I am in charge of all your meetings and decide who's right it is to stand in My Holy Presence. For the “unwilling to conform unto My way” crowd will not be allowed to stand before Me in their pride and arrogance.

So know, My humble servants, that I shall do and say as I will, according to My knowledge of the hearts of all. And ye can say or do nothing to change My decision about My choosing. Selah and Amen.

RECEIVE YE MY GREATER LIGHT

Awaken, My Children, and enter ye into My Presence; hold not back anything, that ye might behold more fully the dawning of My greater Light unto thee. Be ye immersed in the warmth of My Love, that the hardness of doubt might melt away, and that ye might be brought forth. Let not the lesser light of the shadows of compromise leave you unfulfilled in the hour of My visitation. Release all and be ye lifted in complete forgiveness, that ye might ascend to the joy of thy deliverance. Forgive all as I have forgiven thee, that My mercy might be magnified and freedom extended unto all, that their and your captivity might be finally ended. Shackle not thyself unto the past but come ye forth in victory.

The hours are numbered and rapidly expiring until the dawning of the Daystar within thee. The veil of darkness has had it's season and the night of thy discontent is completed. Those who are to be chosen will be those who will come forth into the greater Light. Be not deceived or delayed in thy coming forth if ye are to lay hold of the fullness of My promise.

In this new day of My extended forgiveness, those who deny forgiveness unto others, deny it unto themselves and prevent My righteousness from being fully established. By their deprivation do they cleave unto the darkness of their shadows and prevent the dawning of My greater Light from manifesting all unto truth. By their delay do they prevent the fullness of their purification unto all. As I told you before, I shall not always labor at My furnace of purification, but must go forth to do other works unto greater glories and only those who allow Me to ready them now will be able to bear up unto the day of that greater Light. I shall give unto all, their heart's desire, and shall not overstep thy will, whether it be for Me or that ye will cleave unto thine own reasoning's thinking, so that I shall ever be waiting on thy return. Those who will not enter in at the call of the invitation shall for a surety be left out of the Kingdom and shall not behold the blessings of that new day, nor of My greater Light.

Those who will not seek the bestowing of desire to be raised up now will find themselves cast down as their candle is removed, leaving them in eternal darkness. For My Light is a gift unto all who will receive it with gladness and humility. It is not your right but a privilege to be in My Presence, and to behold the filling of My Holy Oil to keep the spark of hope kindled within thy soul. Those who will not come unto Me in the attitude of seeking in a pure heart will never be perfected and will see the flickering flame grow dimmer until it is extinguished. For they were not diligent, and like the foolish virgins, their light didn't endure until the Morning Star's rising. They shall find the storehouse closed unto them as their darkness more deeply causes them to lose hope.

I would that none should come to that point, but I can only give unto them who will receive according to the measure they desire it be given unto them. It is always darkest before the dawn and only those who endure unto the end with oil in their lamps shall be saved to behold the greater Light of the new day. Selah!

THE GREATER LIGHT NOW DAWNING

There are those of My Children that turn unto Me with all their hearts and attune their ears unto My Voice of Instruction always, that they may hear My words of Love and correction unto them. Then there are those who turn away from My Voice and receive not of My correction, neither receive they My Love that they may be changed thereby. There be those who read and/or hear My words, yet desire to retain their independence and their own attitude, despite what I said. And who of these do ye suppose will prosper in Me and in their regeneration, coming into My Kingdom of Peace?

Behold, your works shall determine your fruitfulness or lack thereof, in your diligence or lack thereof, and the outcome will one day be evident to all. For many for years have sat in church hearing sermons that told them they must change, yet no change came in them. Ye can hear My words, yet unless ye seek to take them into your being and seek to walk in them, ye cannot be changed by them even though they be life to thee.

Many clap for speakers, knowing they spoke the truth, yet remain indifferent to their own change of attitude. Thus know ye that to be a “hearer only” is not good enough to make thee a “son” or “daughter” of Mine. I seek to have “doers” of My words come forth in Me unto purity of their inner being. And of a surety if ye take My words of life into your mind and heart and consider them carefully in your walk, ye will come to live by them. But if ye don’t, they will be as words spoken into the air in vain, as far as your change is concerned.

Behold, Beloveds, My words are given unto all the same. And all have the same opportunity to grasp hold of My words of life to their own regeneration. Thus know the deadliness of slothfulness and of compromise where these My words are concerned. For they will be life to all who incorporate them. Yet as My knowledge fills your world, know also greater responsibility comes upon you because of them. For, for them who never heard My words of direction, they are judged of Me to be in ignorant blindness without the opportunity of My Light reaching them, hence not responsible for them. But unto them that My Light of Truth hath reached, responsibility for how they regarded the Light that was given them also comes forth. Therefore consider ye, all My Children, how diligent ye need to be in respecting the words and direction of thy Creator. For the Light of My Truth reaches unto you, and it is now your decision as to whether ye receive of that Light to the correcting of your walk and thinking, or the rejecting of that greater Light dawning unto thy entering into a greater darkness than you have ever known. For to those who reject My Light, greater darkness comes within them. And if the Light that be in you goes dark, then all the Life you had in Me goes away unto thy total degradation.

It is such a day and a time for you now, as ye have never known. For a good many are rejecting My Light of Truth that they may continue in their old ways of blindness. And unto them My destruction cometh. But to them who are receiving of My Light of Truth, greater Light still will be given as I dawn it unto them for their diligence in receiving and incorporating what I have already given. Matthew 13:12

If ye hear My Voice today, turn not away Him that speaketh unto you from Heaven; so shall My Voice not be taken from thee entirely to leave you to your own way. Hebrews 3:7-9, Hebrews 12:25-29 For know in My earth days, great Light shown unto all, yet a good many received it not and they went into greater darkness than they were in before. But them who embraced the Light they were given, greater Light was given unto them. So what shall ye have? Greater Light bestowed, because ye used well what ye were given? Or greater darkness because that ye rejected that which was offered to you?

The time will tell unto all the story and there is no way you can hide it in the day just ahead of you that shall declare the position of all. Yea, My day of complete separating of the “sheep” who heard and received Me, and the “goats” who did not. Think on these things carefully, for ye are from henceforth responsible for them. Even so, Amen, saith Jehovah God. 1 Corinthians 3:13 11-1-96 CW

TAKE HEED “HOW” YOU HEAR

The Grace of your Lord Jesus Christ is poured out upon the penitent, and they shall be given more of My Light. But upon them who close up and back away from My Light of Truth dawning upon your nation, no good thing can be given them. Take heed how you hear My words, My Children, for I speak not in vain to you, nor to please the ears of them who enjoy sermons, but I speak to transform thee and to reconcile thee to thy Creator evermore.

And to them who desire to become obedient unto My way I shall withhold no good thing from them. Thus say I again unto thee, take heed how you hear these present-day words – sayings – commands, for they will be life to them that treasure and respect them, but death to those who disrespect My Voice that speaks and set at nought all My Counsel.

For so it was with the Children of Israel, that after I had delivered them out of Egyptian captivity, I gave them My words – sayings – commands to see who of them would heed them and who would trample them under their feet. So know that I do likewise with thee. So know also, that “Dathans” and “Korahs” abound in your midst, counseling you to return to Egypt, or in other words, the bondage that you were used to and had grown to love. And see that if ye heed them over all My Counsel that destruction awaiteth thee as it did and came forth upon all who follow Dathan and Korah, even if in heart only. For behold, I will have none but sincere truth-seekers in My Kingdom. And nothing impure will enter therein. So decide ye between your own way and Mine, and for forever make your decision. For I play not as so many surmise, but send forth My Counsel unto them who are willing to follow it, to be transformed by it; yea, to be redeemed by it. And for such as they who be sincere about following Me, I speak, to show unto them My way unto the overcoming of all their flesh.

Hence know ye My way and repent. For if ye do, My promise extendeth unto you. But if not, My curse be extended unto you instead. Hence decide ye forever if ye will be “sheep” or “goats” and Mine eye shall know whence ye are and where ye belong. My warning unto all shall be heeded or discarded by you, and to all thy decision will become evident in the day that shall declare thy works pure or impure. Know this day be upon you, even MY THIRD MILLENNIAL DAY, when I raise My Great Tabernacle of Wisdom among you. And if ye would be a part of that I do, cleanse your hands, ye sinners. And cleanse ye your hearts, ye double-minded, that I may guide you as a Shepherd and cause you to see and know My Way of Truth. Even so, Amen, saith thy Redeemer. 1 Corinthians 3:13

11-1-96 CW

HEED THE VOICE OF CONSCIENCE

To the toppling of the king called “Self” in you I speak, and bring unto thee My way of deliverance. Ignore Me not when I speak through the Voice of your conscience, for blessed are they who hear and obey My Voice and leading. Saith the Most High. And I bring My deliverance only to the diligent in heart; not unto them who save all their flesh to the toppling of My Spirit’s ruling in them.

To man I have given the Voice of conscience so that I may guide them unto Me, yet many are shutting out the cry of their spirits for Me in this hour. I say to ignore Me when I speak is death to thy spirit man that desires My way to come forth. Thus hear Me, all ye sons of men, and walk My way as I am revealing it unto thee in stages and levels of growth. Wherein ye stop in your obedience, and say you can't do that, there doth your growth cease to come forth. So throw up none of your own bars and gates in disobedience to the killing of My Spirit instruction in you, but rather put thy unwilling flesh to death; so shall ye come forward in Me and in the way of Spirit unto spirit walking, to the ceasing of condemnation within you from Me.

The greater Light; the greater freedom comes of thy obedience to My will and way. Forget it not, all ye My Children, that I have come to redeem you from sin and from self. And nothing less shall cleanse thee of thy old way. Thus fight Me not else ye shall not grow up in Me but shall remain as babies, angry belligerent children, having not My Light of Truth, but dwelling in the darkness of thine own desire and will. Thus no good can come forth from Me unto you, but only My judgement, wrath and fury upon thy disobedient attitude. Thus hear Me well, all ye sons of men, and come to My Light of Deliverance rising upon your nation. Even so Amen, saith the Holy One, yea, even the Son of Righteousness. Selah!

THE HOUR OF THE PLOW AND SIFTER

Behold the beauty of the silence within thy soul. Behold the freedom of the stillness within thy heart, and the peace that passeth all understanding shall fill thy mind with joy unspeakable, and ye shall begin to behold the greater Light of My Love as deliverance is given unto thy spirit. In the death of thy flesh shall silence sing her song of thanksgiving in pure praise. In the death of thy will ye will enter into the stillness where ye will cease to view in part the wisdom of the truth of My word. In the death of thy knowledge will My Spirit lead you along avenues of a completed vision of the Eternal, and ye shall be freed to behold the fullness of that greater Light unto complete redemption and understanding of all promises.

Harden not your hearts by the indifference of iniquity; be ye freed of vain captivity unto things that ye know not by those who seek to bind thee with the burdens they, themselves will not bear. For vanity will fill thy good ground with the thorns of condemnation and it will rend thee and all of My Children in the end. There can be no deliverance of My good fruit in the rocky fields of the world and it's pleasures; and it will yield no nourishment to sustain thee in the hour of thy hunger. For hunger shall come upon thee and will cause many to perish in their hour of complacency.

I call all who will hear to answer My cry and to come forth from the shadows of deception cast upon thee by compromise. Repent ye and do the first works, that I might heal thee and those that have been wounded by the insensitivity of thy flesh. Come unto My Holy Spirit that ye might be brought forth into My Promised Land; that your harvest might be bountiful.

Thy thorny acreage must be plowed, for none of the fruit of iniquity, nor the labors of condemnation shall avail anything unto the advancement of the eternal purpose, nor shall it enter into the Kingdom that is coming forth unto those who seek righteousness. This is the hour of the plow; the day of the sifter is upon thee and only those who will submit in fullness all their acreage will be prepared and found worthy to enter into the greater Light and to see truth come alive at the hour of My Visitation. For the day shall declare all things, and all people shall be tried, so that only purity shall stand in the New Day that dawneth.

The thorny shall be as fuel in My furnace of refining those rocks, melting away the impurity of deception. The good metal shall be those who's souls have been tried in My Furnace of affliction. They shall suffer the loss of all that is impure but shall find salvation in the deliverance of those flames.

For the bands of thy captivity do I offer unto thee the beauty of the silence as your soul is restored. As I open your prison doors the captives will find freedom as My Love reigns within your heart and the confusion is overcome; and peace will fill your mind as you come to behold thy Creator and to walk in the newness of His vision.

THE POWER OF MY GREATER LIGHT

The power and prestige of the clergy shall be abolished by the coming of My Greater Light; yea, the dawning of My New Day. For upon all the clergy shall My judgement come, so that they shall rather seek to hide themselves in obscurity than to broadcast their pre-eminence as they do at this day. The kingdom of the church men have built up shall crumble and fade by the bringing forth of My Greater Light, My Greater Truth, yea, My True Tabernacle of Wisdom.

The New Jerusalem Church shall not be ruled by men in the wisdom and power of men in their blindness, but shall be ruled by the power of My Spirit through the "Living Stones" I, Myself am raising up and ordaining for the work.

My Millennial Kingdom shall be free of the spots and blemishes of iniquity and impurity, and it's light of illumination most powerful. The greater works, signs and miracles will be evident among these My Holy workers. Yet all will seek to give the glory for all unto Me, and to seek no following for or unto themselves. Unto them shall flow the righteous of all Christendom, and their allegiance shall be unto ME ALONE, and no man. And they shall flow unto the Lord's House established, and will seek to hear and to obey only His words being spoken unto them in that hour.

So howl, all ye of Christendom's army, for ye shall be overcome and overthrown by My Greater Light. And truth shall overflow all your hiding places. And ye who have hid yourselves under falsehoods shall be swept away with My floods of Truth. Thus seek ye to hide yourselves, all ye present-day Pharisees. For thy time of judgement and that upon thy houses of iniquity hath come! Saith the Most High, even the Chairman over all the boards in the earth! Selah!

SUBMIT UNTO MY HOLY SPIRIT

All ye who truly seek to be chosen, Come unto Me, Jesus, in humility and let thy contrition shake thee to the foundations of thy faith that ye might be fully established in Me. For the hour is now for you to be cleansed of all untruth and for My oil to be given unto thee so that thy light might not go out. Enter ye into My Furnace of affliction now and submit unto the hand of My Holy Spirit if ye will be saved. He alone can bring you forth and fit you with My Robes of Righteousness. All who will not seek Him shall not find Him in the hour of thy need that is to come upon all men.

Seek ye the eternal Light or abide ye eternally in your darkness, for the hour of shadows is done. All will either warm by the fires of truth or they will freeze in their indecision. By your own desire shall ye be separated at this last hour. For I will have unto Me a people who want only Me and seek only unto Me as their God. The fences are falling and all that straddle them shall be sent into outer darkness along with the unrighteous. For the day is now to begin anew with only those who are sincere in their repentance. Words mean nothing, for I shall read the hearts of all. No pastor or doctrine or congregation shall stand in thy behalf. For I judge thee alone and will not honor several gathered around one lamp. Ye must get your own oil and ye must be filled with the flame of My Holy Spirit's instruction or your lamp shall not remain lit at My coming to bestow rewards and punishments.

Those who seek Me will find Mercy; those who don't will only see Justice, for the day doth declare it. This is the day of purity of mind, heart and soul before thy Creator; and those that are divided shall never be one in spirit or with My Spirit. The Lamb of God and the Lion of the Tribe of Judah will lie as one in peace within all who will be spared in the hour of separation. None but he who hath ascended shall be bestowed with honor. None shall be bestowed with His Greater Light unless He gives it unto thee, for it is His gift unto righteousness and His witness of His authority within thee. For He alone shall sit as King over all the New Kingdom, for only He is worthy.

I, Jesus, say unto thee that if I wash you not ye have no part with Me. If you follow not My Holy Spirit's leading then you will not hear nor regard My Voice and I cannot be thy Shepherd. For ye cannot be of My flock but will be ever drawn to the voice of other shepherds. Those who are My True Sheep are those that My Father hath given unto Me, and they will follow only My Voice. They are the ones I shall lead unto pleasant pastures and they shall be full and nourished by My Love. They shall not murmur but shall be satisfied in all things; for My provision is sufficient unto them. In Me shall they dwell safely and shall not be afraid, for danger shall not come near them. In peace do we abide and all are as one, we move as one, and none are lost or prone to wander.

By your fruits shall ye be known of all men. I am the Good Tree with twelve kinds of fruit and Mine are likened unto Me. They always have nourishment and share their abundance and none that encounter them either hunger or thirst. To us does My Father bestow blessing and to Him alone do we give honor.

I AM THAT I AM

Thus saith the Lord: the Heaven is My Throne and the earth is My footstool; where is the house that ye build unto Me? And where is the place of My rest? Isaiah 66:1

I AM that I AM and I am everywhere, saith thy Creator. For all things and all people were created for My pleasure that I might be glorified in them, and in the earth and in the heavens. My sanctuary is all of creation and I tabernacle with men in their hearts that I may always be with you. Those who will acknowledge Me shall see Me and those who will commune with Me in the sanctuary I have ordained and established shall hear Me, and like Abraham shall they become friends with their God.

Men have abandoned My ways and have built chapels of their own choosing, and put at naught all that I had offered. They choose to receive each other and to expound and to exhort all to do the greater iniquity. If they would come unto Me I would in no wise cast them out. But creature chooses to acknowledge creature to the exclusion of He who created all. For My wisdom they substitute their knowledge and make it to seem that I have nothing of value to offer. They teach that I am finished, when in fact I have only just begun My labor of creation.

There can be no peace, no source of rest in the reasonings of men. For all are driven by the spirit of anti-christ when they stand in the holy places, and by their declarations speak as though they were god. They must ever be expounding something new, something different, to maintain a constant following of those who subscribe to their teachings. If it were not so, all pastors would be the same and it would not matter which one ye heard that day. They declare their particular “holy day”, either Saturday or Sunday, to be My day of Sabbath rest. I declare unto thee that every day is My day of rest and I regard not one day above another, nor do I honor thy gatherings. For if ye were to worship Me in spirit and in truth, there in thy inner temple, ye would find My rest and ye would be filled with peace and joy unspeakable unto the deliverance of thy souls. Then would ye truly glorify Me and witness of Me in the earth.

To those who will, I say come forth. Let us; I, thy Creator and you, be united in purpose. Let us become one within thy heart. Allow Me to reveal unto you all that I AM, and I shall be thy friend, and ye shall be Mine. This way of inner worship is that ye might know Me and I know you. Those who have taught you know Me not, nor do I know them, for they are not recorded in My Book of Life. Their words bring forth only death and deny Me My rightful place. They cannot deliver anyone, for they speak above the audience that they might appear wise unto the unlearned. They teach by their witness that all should gather around one lamp, one source of oil burning, and offer only shadows for light.

I can and will be where ye reside and shall not speak above you but rather I shall speak directly to your condition that ye might understand clearly My words and be delivered of thy iniquity. My words are the oil and My Holy Spirit the flame that thy own lamp should be lit by and ye would have no need to huddle at men’s theological soup kitchens, but would dine sumptuously at My banquet I have prepared for all who will accept Mine invitation, that I might sup with them. My ways would become evident and ye would cast aside all that fills thee not. By thy own candle could ye see clearly the way as I guide you along thy return unto Me.

I have much to offer that men know not, except those who have traveled with Me in the way I prescribe. To all who will allow Me I would reveal unto thee the value of thy testimony and would give unto thee a new heart, one that is perfect before Me always.

The heaven is My Throne and the earth is My footstool. In My anger man tempts Me to stomp My feet to the crushing of that footstool. Except for those I have reserved and for their sake is that judgement delayed upon the unholy sanctuaries of unrighteous men. Justice is delayed that mercy might gather all who seek Me in humility and fear Me enough to acknowledge Me, and to be obedient unto that which I command of them; then shall Justice be loosed upon all iniquity and unrighteousness. Then I shall begin anew and create a new earth and a new heaven for that remnant who seeks Me purely. I shall not abandon them, for like Abraham they are My friends, those who come to My banquet from the streets at My last call. Selah!

LET'S EXAMINE YOUR HEART-ROOMS

Let peace be established among you. Let praise unto thy Creator come forth from within. Let nothing from without trouble nor worry thee, but let thine hearts be fully offered up, as also all thy cares, worries and fears. For behold, the clean, clear, light heart shall receive of Me while the burdened heart that will not release all cannot be filled with My Glory. The extent of thy heart-rooms cleansed, purged and filled by Me shall be the telling measure of your joy. Extreme soundness within and joy flowing forth shall show you that ye have done well in releasing these rooms to My cleansing and habitation. But those rooms unsubmitted to Me will keep Me from filling you with Myself, which means with Life, strength, joy and divine purpose.

See that My Light goeth not out in you from My good seeds being thoroughly choked by the thorns growing up in your heart and thought gardens, due to thy delving in and being troubled by the cares of this life. Behold, if the Light that I am in you goes dark, see then that thou canst not be of Me nor can I be a part of thee. For I dwell in thee in measure according to thy willingness to let Me reside. But know also that in this house, which is the temple of thy person, or thy body, are many rooms. Storage rooms for memories, loves and hurts. For Me to dwell here I must go and do a thorough cleaning of all these places, that I might from thence make of thee a cleansed house in which I can live large and comfortably in. And all of self being swept out of these rooms, there shall be no chained up monsters or oozing putrid sores smelling up the place. For consider the "monsters" of your past imaginations and where they came to reside in you in rooms of fear and torment. But locked away in you, ye ceased to be afraid, except once in awhile...

And consider the torture chambers of guilt where ye beat yourself mercilessly when you let yourself down, failing in your goal of perfection; and wherein ye were mocked and scorned and made a laughing stock by "self", who ruled over you in tyranny. And think of the rooms within of condemnation hurled upon you by others in their insensitivity, and the echo was taken up within thee, which constantly bore witness against thee, no matter the good that ye did. And consider how that echo began to come forth from thine own mouth upon others, as thou, now desensitized by the pain in thy own soul, did begin to condemn others to justify thine own bad works.

Behold, ye cannot know the extent of evil that exists in these rooms within you. But only know that what psychologists have tried but failed to do was to reach within these rooms with love and forgiveness, pouring forth light to dispel the darkness of thought, and mercy and grace issuing forth to heal that which was broken and made lame; restoring spiritual sight to the blind; the captive and bound spirit released to fly again in freedom with Me as it should. For remember childhood, when ye were not so burdened and troubled by many things that wisdom and reason has taught you, how you were carefree and playful and there was nowhere you could not explore and find enjoyment in. But then all the pain began and the hard lessons of experience, wherefore all these clean little rooms began to be occupied by all your fears and torments, and things began to be stored and locked away; your emotions frozen in time because you couldn't deal with those things.

Behold, Children, now each of you behold how that within each of you grew your own private hell, and ye knew not why you were loathe to go there to play anymore, but continually shut out that and those places unto your consciousness of them, hoping to forget and losing carefree spirit flight and growing cold and numb inside.

Now behold, keeping in mind all I have said, see now how you were bound and gagged with your mouth taped shut and stuffed in one of these little rooms while the tyrant "Self-will" took over, claiming he now ruled all. And the fun little child you were, ceased to show and ye took on a different attitude. But I came forth to bring the Light and deliverance to you, My Captives, and to set you free from these chains that bound you, and to encourage you how to throw off all the weights and chains that continually try to rebind and gag you; you again getting swallowed up in pain and inward voices of condemnation.

Behold, I tell you a riddle. The strong man armed will not suffer that his house shall be broken up, but sets up, watching. Yet I come forth in love, and My weapons of war and of strength dissolve thy defensiveness so that ye view Me not as an enemy but rather as a Friend. So I am allowed entry into the fortress run by and protected and guarded by the strong man. Yet it is only over a process of time that I actually am able to free you from his domination. For ye have grown to both love and fear and respect "Self's" wisdom, so that ye are loathe to let that domination be broken off from you, and his words to make you fear his loss of protection are constantly confronting you. Many thus fear and lock up again, but behold, My Holy Spirit oil of gladness and soothing balm helps to reopen you when you, as the clam, slam shut in fear.

Now behold, Children, how I need to be admitted entrance into all these rooms that I may clear the dust and cobwebs away, and get rid of the torture chamber equipment that you exercised yourself upon, and scatter away the indignation of "Self's" reasoning so that you again can be established in your own will to decide clear-headedly if ye really want to be Mine. The fight can be long or short, depending on your willingness to yield yourself unto My ministration of love and grace and Light. Know that My possession of your house will be in peace and will forever remain so. And that with thy willing cooperation, "Self's" dominion over you will be crushed.

Behold, Children, as thy Loving Father-Creator-God, I have only good in mind for thee; thus open ye to receive Me as much as you can always and pray for greater ability to open so that I can indeed come in and become King of kings and Lord of lords in thee, destroying the hell that did occupy your being unto it's destruction, and making you anew with My New Jerusalem City of Peace inside you, world without end. Amen.

I AM THE AUTHOR OF LIFE

The heaven is My Throne and the earth but a footstool; what house can ye build unto Me, O ye sons of men? The heaven of heavens cannot contain Me, much less the little houses ye build. So why, seeing I am everywhere and in all places, do ye seek to say one place contains Me more than other places? For behold, I am everywhere man is; and so ye who have built up churches, employing My Name to bring followers unto yourselves to get gain and power, behold I say unto you that your silly temples shall not, are not inhabited, not by Me and that one could better find Me hidden in a cornfield, where there was less distraction than in any of your fine palaces dedicated unto My name that ye run unto your own glory and fame. And know that ye cannot confine truth in a tiny book, for I AM TRUTH PERSONIFIED, AND THE WORD MADE MANIFEST IN FLESH, and were I to cease speaking and cease directing My Creatures that I have made then would I cease to be God, and as ye have taught that I left men unto themselves after giving good words and signs and miracles to one group, that I deemed that to be good enough. Behold, in that, to thee I have ceased to be God and thou hast sought to make another after thine own thoughts and desires. And Him ye preach and teach and worship; yea your own imagination's god that ye have formed in your minds and do fall down thereunto to worship.

Behold, in this Christendom hath fallen into iniquity and gone forth into idolatry, and sets forth now men she hath taught to take My rightful place among you. So now can ye see this "son of perdition" after an outward sense, standing in your temples or "houses of god" showing himself off as if he were a god; claiming to have the wisdom and power of god, yet teaching you only his lies that ye may think you worship Me when you but serve yourselves and him. Behold, again, can ye not see that the "abomination of desolation" or the "love of honors" has been set up in all these churches and ministries across your nation; yea, thy teachers have it set up in them, then into the pulpits of your "holy places" they go to defile themselves and your holy places?

Behold, I lie not. And My Truth is about to flood your lands as water fills the sea. And all that man has set up and all that he deems holy and reveres as sacred will come crumbling down. For I, the Lord thy God, will build unto Me a holy nation from the remnant I have redeemed. And nothing man can do will stop or swerve Me from My purpose. And all that defiles will be eliminated and all remaining shall know there is but ONE God, and that I, Jehovah of Hosts, am He. And all will worship only Me. And man will not set up man as a god anymore, to make men subservient under them, nor shall they make any more weapons for war; for behold, peace shall reign in all; and wherein it is not allowed to reign, they will be eliminated from existing there in My Kingdom.

Simply put, dear Children: men and women of My Kingdom; lies have been told you in My Name. And you have embraced them as truth to your own hurt and powerlessness. But behold, I offer to thee the only solution. Get your own understanding for yourself from Me, and become My Friend. Thus I share My wisdom with you which is truth ever unfolding. I shall guide you through all the snares and traps and baits laid for the feet of the righteous now, in this end of days; and ye will have no need to fear of the subtlety of the spirit of anti-christ that is now at work in your churches, through men deceived and being further deceived by false spirits that are religious.

Behold, Satan himself can be transformed into an angel of light. So also can his servants be transformed into ministers of churches. Be not deceived. For ye live in an evil time. And if ye want Me truly then come after Me yourself and lay hold on My holy garments, swearing that ye will not let go till I bless thee. For behold, in Me is life and peace and truth. And in no other place will you find Me. So though ye seek here and there for Me, and though many compass sea and lands to hear speakers, hoping to hear words of truth, know that ye will be dry and barren, who know not Me by a tight relationship with Me, and ye will remain dry and barren, hungry and thirsty spiritually, so long as ye seek to busted cisterns and dry fruitless trees for your sustenance.

Behold, I am the Tree of Life, and on Me are all good things for thy nourishment. I am the Vine of Life also, through which life and sustenance flows to all My branches. But if ye become disconnected from Me, by seeking your own way, or trusting in others to bring forth My Life to you, ye will wither as a dying branch and be cut off and cast into the fire to be burned. For in no other one or place shall ye have life. Thus am I the Author of Life and thy Guide to true peace, and except ye partake regularly of Me ye have no life in you. What ye deem to be life hath been “spiritual death” as ye lived all your days in dissatisfaction. But behold, all that will change if ye reach into My vaults of wisdom and truth and treat thyself to understanding, all found only in Me.

And when thou hast begun to do all these things, I ask you then, have ye done all? I say Nay. For except ye take My Life and truth within yourself to walk and talk and live thereby, ye fool yourself. For many rejoice in My words of truth, yet they have no depth of earth within themselves to sustain the plantings of these My good seeds, so when the sun of tribulation and/or temptation beats upon them they quickly wither. So you must receive Me within to the total change of your attitude, and manner of life. Would ye only take a little of My Life and plaster it over the garbage of self-life, that ye may appear to be something ye are not? Or would you apply yourself IN VERY TRUTH unto the incorporation of My precepts, that ye may be faithful to them and walk in them to thy own complete overcoming?

Stall all ye want, for indeed thy will is sovereign; but simply understand that all unwilling flesh must be purged away if ye will be a part of My Kingdom or that I do. And know that I no longer shall wink at and forgive indifference to studying that which ye need to study and avoiding all your quiet time with Me. You shall either come to be Mine obedient student, doing your homework well like the rest of My students or ye will find the door to Mine advanced class closed unto you.

Behold and beware the time in which ye are living and know the many teachers and prophets of past generations who have desired to see into these days. Many of you through slothfulness on your own part don't understand My plain direction, thus ye discontinue studying. But was that the way ye learned to do in school? Did you not have to stay after school or class to privately counsel with the teacher about that which ye did not understand? Behold, otherwise the others went on learning while ye failed to understand even more things, thus disregarding your homework, you failed all the tests that were given. Will ye avail yourself of My, thy Teacher's, help? Or will you continue to lag behind and drag all My class down by your lack of comprehension? Behold, there is a way to remedy it, so you cannot use “not understanding” as a crutch or an excuse. Behold, testing time is coming upon you; yea, on some it has already begun. Behold I, your Teacher, grade all in fairness and play no favorites; having no “teacher's pet” which is inequity and unrighteous. But I will have them remain in My class who do not fail My lessons and tests, and the slothful and the spiritually retarded must be dealt with in another way on a different day and schedule. And so, behold and know, all ye My students that some of you have taken My Name upon you for vain purposes; good show before others; but if ye have not My Spirit ye are none of Mine regardless of what ye call yourself. So come and be obedient unto Me and covet to hear My words of Life for and unto yourself, for they that hear My Voice and follow only Me are My Sheep and shall endure My separating process coming, which will be swift and severe, and many feelings will be hurt. But it is nevertheless something I must do, that My good fruit not be overtaken by the evil fruit in My vineyard. Some of you have grown good and sweet fruit. Some have grown bitter fruit. Some fruit is neither sweet nor bitter, yet is "bad". Thus know that there is a pruning coming. All are glad to bear fruit, but only good fruit shall be taken unto Me for to store. All bad fruit must be taken away and burned. So what manner of persons ought ye to be in this, the beginning of My Third Millennial Day? I say again; My Spirit shall not always strive with thy will to fight Me and retain your independence. But I will cease to trouble you, leaving you to indifference and thy last state shall be worse than the first, to thine own condemnation. But I play not. I shall give you your heart's desire, whatever it be, in righteousness. Selah, saith the Holy One.

COME AND LABOR IN MY HARVEST

The words of God and the ways of God are strange and peculiar. They cannot be understood by the fleshly reasonings of a selfish imagination; one who will not submit unto a higher power that He might lend His interpretation, that ye might behold truth wisely. For only as the Holy Spirit gives witness can we enter into His presence and be given understanding of all that we should come to know so that we might grow unto maturity.

If we were to know all things and behold all truth clearly, it would avail us nothing unless we learn to apply those truths within ourselves and to walk in that light of that understanding. For as we come to walk in truth is that learning quickened within our understanding, and our testimony of our witness is purified of all iniquity and unrighteousness before our Creator. With the gift of knowledge comes the responsibility for what we did with the gift that was given, and all shall be accountable for their stewardship before He who gave it.

To those who say, "I will not let the Holy Spirit show unto Me anything that I might not be held accountable", I, Thy Creator, say that your knowledge of it's availability is unto you responsibility to hold you accountable of thy willful ignorance. For to you was given eyes to see but you would not see and would not be healed of thy blindness. For to you was given ears to hear what the Holy Spirit says to you, but you say, "I will not hear or come to a mature understanding." Hearing and vision are given unto the children of God that they might edify and be edified into the Body of Christ. So ye deny not only yourself of thy blessing but also all of that Body that I am, saith Jesus.

To those who think that they have, but will not use it wisely, I say it shall be taken from you and given unto another, that My work might go forth in willingness and submission unto Me, unto My Body, and unto My Father's purpose. As My Holy Spirit reveals unto thee, if thou art at fault, REPENT and do the first works, that I might bring growth unto thy walk and that My fruit might show forth unto the nourishment of many. Allow Me to help you overcome, and then by thy overcoming allow Me to use you that others might also overcome; and together we become as one in the work and in the victory.

Allow Me to lead thee and you follow; bow not up in anger at My leading or I shall be forced to chastise thee. Remember, those I love I chastise, else ye are bastards and have no part of Me. Let not thy feelings or thy pride cause you to be drawn away from My Light lest the darkness overtake thee and thy candle should go out.

Now is the time of the ripening of maturity unto the glory of the harvest. The gathering of all that hath been planted unto the storehouse of God that the hungry might be fed, and ye, My Children, are the laborers in that harvest, and the servers of My Bread unto the hungry. Come and labor selflessly that ye might receive My greater blessing; bring forth the bread of thy harvest, that others might see My workings within you this growing season. For in the winter no planting and no harvest is done, but all must rely upon what God hath given in this harvest to sustain them until the springing forth of new life is manifested. Selah!

YE ARE CALLED TO AN HOLY CALLING

My words are like a fire to try the minds and hearts of all, that all which be not of Me, all that is not planted by Me, might be burned away, and only purity might stand as ye are delivered from the flames in righteousness. Then can My rag of redemption wipe away the residue of impurity and My Holy Spirit polish thy tried metal. Did not the “1619 prophecy” say that it would be so intense that only a very few would bear up in it? Cry not for the loss, but cry tears of joy in that there are some who would submit themselves to it’s completion, and come to rely more fully upon Me in faith with hope that ye might also be recorded in those so numbered.

Thy God is a consuming fire to the destruction of all thy flesh that thy spirit might be set free of all bondages, all opinions, all works that were not ordained by Him or His words. Ye have been called that ye might be tried, that ye might be chosen to become those “sons and daughters” through whom I shall do My greater works. It is a blessing and an honor and not a curse to be in the first-fruits group and to become so purified unto illumination and to be bestowed with the gifts of My New Pentecost. Through you shall others come to see the light of truth and pass through those same fires to receive their eternal reward.

All heaven cheers thy progress and prays encouragement be given when you fall behind. For without you, neither they or creation can be completed unto the fullness of their promise unto redemption. Work as unto them and see not just thyself as ye labor in Me and with My Holy Spirit, and all shall become easier to endure. Ye are recorded in My plan and are the instruments of My purpose, that the truth of My glory shall be established in the earth. Selah!

DISRESPECT NOT MY TREASURES

Look not upon the vessels I use to bring forth My Truth to become fascinated with them. But I say seek unto Me purely for the words of My Truth that are coming forth. For we are not out to honor any man or group of persons here, but to the saving of all of you equally who will hear and learn and understand.

For that which is holy and pure is being given unto thee like it hath never flowed before. And ye treat it like ye think it is good, but could for yourself take it then leave it behind, forgetting what manner of man or woman I showed you ye were. It is even all the same as “in one ear and out the other.” And behold, this is not good fruitfulness but the works of flesh will still continue to be exercised and come forth to be seen in them who are so careless and disrespectful of the treasures I am handing you. Be careful, therefore how ye regard and use these “talents” I am handing you, and think not that I will let any slide by who do not pass My acid tests. For behold, back into My Fires ye go if ye fail My test, that more impurity, making you weak, might be removed. But this is between Me and each of thee individually.

Yet understand while many look for My outward returning and plan and teach about that, I am catching up unto Myself Sons and Daughters and Bride saints who have cleansed their garments in Me and await their being sent forth. Thus the coming many await is that which they will be totally unprepared for; for My Coming which they seek is to receive a Kingdom I have built through My Sons and Daughters and that coming shall be with vengeance, not airplane tickets to Paradise.

Heed Me when I speak; there is but ONE God, and all ye are brethren. Wherefore, worship not one another, nor elevate one another, but be equal in your thinking, thus escape the trap of the spirit of competitiveness. Selah, saith Jesus.

SEEK MY GREATER LIGHT OF UNDERSTANDING

The just shall live by every word that cometh forth from the mouth of God, and they shall be justified by their faith in His proclamations unto the deliverance of their souls. The righteous are they who seek to obtain His pure understanding of all truth; both of scripture and prophecy, that they might be delivered from their darkness. By obedience to those truths are they drawn unto the Light of His witness to behold their Redeemer, the Holy One, even Jesus Christ, and to overcome even as He overcame.

They who are truly obedient are those who will not be bounded by a book. For a book cannot translate a believer into the fullness that Christ is, nor can it deliver him unto righteousness. The truly obedient are those who will receive Christ and His Holy Spirit by whatever person or book brings forth a pure witness of the testimony of Christ. To them, they will not be bounded by a Bible, for they know that Christ has witnessed the deliverance of many through several accounts and by Holy Spirit inspired prophecy throughout the millenniums, and all of them together witness that God Is. Together they are the source of true Light and the avenue of illumination of all covenants and promises. By faith do the obedient listen and by faith do the obedient hear and bear witness to the fresh and current words of God. For God has spoken and does continue to speak and to offer His direction by His Holy Spirit unto those who are the Children of God. They who listen shall hear, and they who hear and obey are the Children of God. Their faith is in the unseen “I AM” and their hope is in and by His son Jesus Christ, and His light is given unto them by the Holy Spirit that they might be delivered from eternal damnation.

The blind are bounded by a volume and to them the baptism of the Holy Spirit is nonsense, for they deny God the power of that manifestation within them or their house. If thy brother, by Holy Spirit inspiration, had written the words of his father and of his family’s deliverance by the power of Christ, many would not receive it. But if two books testify in unison and are in agreement that God is, and that Jesus is their salvation, the testimony is strengthened unto the power of their witness of God's eternal truth. If both testimonies give glory unto thy Creator, who are we to judge one to be false? For to judge one to be wrong is to deny the words of the other, and to deny the power of the Holy Spirit by which they both were written.

Now can you see the dilemma of unrighteous condemnation and how many have been deprived of the witness of truth because they have closed their minds and sealed their hearts against what the Holy Spirit could and does continue to witness unto them and to their generation? For they who will not receive light have placed themselves in the darkness of their own condemnation and deprive themselves of the life that that light promises to bring forth. Those who reside in darkness shall surely perish, but those who bend towards the light find life and find it more abundantly within themselves and share it more abundantly with others.

The fruits of darkness are prejudice, bigotry and condemnation; and none are edifying to behold. They are found in those who have hardened their hearts to love, and have closed their minds to truth. Their attitudes are rigid and unbending, unable to adapt to reach unto the places where their brothers and sisters are in need of their help. Whether it be Martin Luther or Martin Luther King, some cannot receive their message because of their nationality or race. But I testify that both were instruments of God to the deliverance of many from ignorance, that a greater light might be lit in the hearts of mankind.

Those who will be manifested to do My greater works will be those who allow My Holy Spirit to witness My greater Light through whatever willing vessel has submitted their heart and mind to receive it from Me. Saith thy Redeemer. For I am opening My truth unto many, from many diverse persuasions, that My glory might be full and deliverance should be complete. I cannot use the traditional congregations for they have hardened their hearts, closed their minds and deny My Holy Spirit entrance, that they might be given their sight to behold My greater Light. I have some in all congregations who will come unto manifesting, but the corporate congregations shall not come to behold Me.

Come unto Me, ye of the great congregations; enter into your prayer closets and yield unto My Holy Spirit that He might show unto you My truth; that He might thaw thy frozen heart; that He might shine My light into the darkness of thy mind and give unto thee life, that ye might grow in maturity and seek after purity that can only be found in Me. Come unto Me; enter into My rest and I shall give thee peace; and ye shall come to see My light shining within you where before darkness clouded thy sight and understanding. Stay with My Holy Spirit and humbly submit to seeking a greater understanding and ye, too, shall behold My greater Light being raised in you.

MY WORDS, MY TRUTH AND MY LIGHT

The rejecting of My words, My truth and My light shining forth upon you shall lead you unto a state of darkness hitherto unknown by you. A state of grievous darkness wherein is weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth in anger. Because all the light of hope in you will go out at thy rejection of the Son of Righteousness and His holy words, light and truth. To deny Him is to deny the life that bought you salvation, and to deny truth is to deny that He is God and thy Messiah.

So tell Me, ye religious wise ones, that ye do not believe that I would speak in this time to reveal Myself and My way in this end of days, that I might save them that cry out unto Me for truth, who have lived all their lives in thy dark theology. And tell Me that I have no right to raise up unto Me them I have called forth who appreciate My words, My light and My truth; and do not wish to trample upon both it and Me as ye religious ones have done. And tell Me that I have no right to burst in upon your cozy world and unseat ye unfaithful shepherds who have not sought unto My light, My words or My truth for understanding, neither committed thyself unto Me for thy learning; neither have ye sought to bind up that which was broken, or to comfort the down-trodden. Ye have found yourselves powerless to give sight to the blind, neither cared ye to release the captives, nor could ye see that ye were also in the same condition, and knew and cared no different.

Tell Me that I have no right to expose you as the frauds ye are, and as wicked and unfaithful stewards even of My old words, which ye teach unrighteously and without My wisdom to guide you unto true understanding. Behold I have this right, and you have no right to protest what I do. Thus prepare ye for My righteous judgement upon all your “holy houses” first. For unto you were committed Mine holy oracles and what did ye do with them but sell thy interpretation of them for money and cancel all My Holy Spirit’s work among those congregated around you!

O filthy harlot children, ye give monies to the rich and forsake My poor and needy! Neither have ye sought to care for the widows and orphans, but have garnished the temples of these robbers; yea, the tombs of the dead, spiritually so. My light dawning will be so bright so as to blind ye who are so used to darkness. But know that upon you it comes, that all might be seen and made manifest in the light of truth; both that which is true and righteous and good, and that which be evil and false and darkness.

Therefore, let the separating begin with the sheep and the goats in the kingdom of Christianity, yea, upon them who call themselves “holy” and deem themselves both “wise” and “pure”, and we shall see how you fare. But put not thine hand upon Mine anointed, nor gnash with thy teeth upon them. Beware, lest in My anger and fury against you that a devouring fire break out that none of you can extinguish that will burn all who offend Me, saith the Holy One. I will have Me a pure remnant, and from them an holy nation and a Kingdom of purity, and thus I work in the kingdoms of men despite thy opposition, even as I will. And ye can do nothing about it! Selah and Amen.

I AM THY GOD

“I AM” says, I am your God. There is no other God before Me. The worlds were created before any knowledge of Me was known, therefore praise Me and give thanksgiving for the life that I have given you. Your direction is the plan I have for you. Don’t allow the things of the world to interfere with the plans I have for you. Look upward at the events that occur, for they shall take many by surprise. Let no worry interfere with the sweet peace and hope I extend unto you. You are My child, so rejoice in the fact that I control all things. Let no occurrences upset you nor obstruct the events of My life within you. My Spirit will direct your path. There is no cause for alarm at any occurrence, whether positive or negative. It is all a part of My plan. Pray that your friends and family will see My life and light. Prepare, for the time is short when all will see My face in the affairs of this world. Pray without ceasing as that insures My presence abides with you. I will create in you a clean spirit that will be acceptable to Me.

EMBRACE NEW COVENANT LIVING

You are waiting to be called by My Son. Wait patiently and earnestly, for that day is soon approaching. Let nothing impede that power of My Spirit that will illuminate your life beyond your expectations.

The time is short for this to happen and all will be surprised as to My plan. Only My sons and daughters will be the beginning of this plan that will affect the entire world. Your faith is made strong by depending on My power of Spirit. Anyone that calleth upon My Name shall be saved. That is My eternal purpose. You have been led to Me, however the religious community has said there is another way to follow Me. That is the darkness that overcomes the saints who have opened their hearts to Me. Turn your back upon the religious community as they are leading many astray.

Every soul that seeks Me and Me alone shall find happiness and peace. "I AM" will protect those that choose the straight and narrow way. Purify your hearts before Me by shaking off the desires of the world. That means the recognition and honor that comes from men. Be humble and obedient before Me. When you falter or slip, My hand will be there to pick you up. Be constant in prayer before Me. My Spirit will always dwell with you when the roadblocks are removed. Look unto Me for your strength. It is My pure Love for you that will never fail.

You have the limits of human life. "I AM" has no limits and can assail beyond all physical limits. Your praise before Me will be the opening of gates that allow My Spirit to enter all of your efforts. Remember to give thanks, for that is the extent of returning to Me that I expect, to allow My Love to enter all ye do.

Your family is protected by My hand. Let them know of your love and concern. It will be the breakthrough for them to understand My New Covenant.

Your rightful love for My New Covenant living is what I wish for all. Religion has stopped the flow of My power through New Covenant living. Look now to My Love for you. Regard yourself as nothing except for the Spirit that indwells your life. Deliver all your earthly holdings to Me and I can then allow the Spirit to utilize their substance. Light is upon you and darkness is departing. It is a process of time that will eventually remove all the leaven from men. Thank Me now and forever hold your peace before men. Amen.

MY TIME IS SHORT

I AM the Holy One; no one is greater than I, says the Almighty One. Go to those that serve human food and you may be filled, but come to the Holy One that gives life and I will grant a fullness that no man can give. You have been led by the wisdom of man and have left outside My wisdom. Why do you seek in places that man has built a life that will fail? My heart is ready to give all that you need. Simply call on Me and I will grant My best to you according to your needs.

Be silent and humble before Me. There is none greater than I AM. My Spirit talks to you, and if you will put to the side all the distractions that come before you, I will talk to your heart. My request unto you is to listen to My Voice that speaks to your heart. That way you will know Me, for “My Sheep hear My Voice!”

You have troubles and tribulations; however, these are necessary to place your heart and spirit in the right place. The time is short when ALL will fall before Me. Therefore, be on the alert, for your enemy, the devil, goeth around seeking whom he can devour. I have words for you If only you will listen for My Voice. It takes a quietness and responsiveness to My words in order to obtain the truth that I would have you know.

Look around and see the inattention that others have for My Voice. This age is nearly completed by the fulfilling of My word. When time in this era is over, no further entry is permitted. As I shut the door of the Ark, so also will I close the door of this age. The time for that closure is soon; then if those that are ready will continue in My will, ALL will be protected. Remember My words that will keep you from the evil one. Revelation and insight will come later. It is the purity of My Bride that I complete now and forever.

MY SANCTUARY IS IN THE HEARTS OF MEN

God, Himself, came down among the children of men and has redeemed His people; by the atonement of His Son He has made the perfect sacrifice so that the Law of Moses is completed unto them. Because the Son dwelleth in the flesh, He was called the Son of Man, and by His subjection of His flesh to the will of the Father even unto death, He is the Messiah or Son of God, recorded as being the Father and the Son. The “Father” because He was conceived by the power of God and not man. And the “Son” because He dwelt in the fleshly temple like unto man, with all the desires and drives that cause men to despair and to fall under the lusts of sin. Yet the Son, by the power of the Father, succumbed not unto the lesser manifestation, but by the Spirit of God within Him overcame to be sacrificed as the atonement for sin before the Father, that all might be delivered from the judgement of the law unto the righteousness of God evermore.

In death He destroyed him who had the power of death and by His resurrection was His Spirit freed to inhabit the hearts of men, so that their minds might be purified even as His was, of iniquity and all unrighteousness. His resurrection opened the door unto mercy, as by grace, justice was delayed until as many as would believe the words of God and seek unto the Son so that they might behold the truth of “I AM” purely, might come to know that by the Son were all promises fulfilled unto the chosen.

He ascended unto the Throne of God unto glory. Then condescended at Pentecost in the form of the Holy Ghost to the confounding of all who had wished Him dead, yet was He alive and will be evermore. Blessed are they who come to intimately regard the truth of the Trinity of our ascended Lord and to lay hold of Him in His fullness. Unto them is His Spirit manifested, unto them is His light given; that they, like Him, might enter into the maturity of the Spirit within them, for they shall come to the fullness of the stature of The Christ, the Messiah, before God.

He who was dead, risen, and is alive evermore; that is the eternal truth of our Redeemer. For He is resurrected DAILY; in the hearts is He heard by those in whom the Spirit speaks; in their minds do they come to see Him as they come to the acknowledgment of who He is. Those who are drawn in their pursuit of truth come to know Him intimately. Unto them He is their Friend, their strength and their direction. He is their source of all understanding and unto them does He give His greater Light of manifesting, and they who turn not away shall become as He is; Yea, even “Sons” and “Daughters” of the Living God.

Those who will not sincerely seek Him shall not regard His truth or His guidance. They are lost in doubt and unbelief and cleave unto the iniquity of men’s teachings. For man teaches not a “Living Christ”, nor that he can or should indwell within the sons of men, or that He would desire to be completed in fullness within those who profess to be called by His Name. They discount the workings of the “Living Christ” and deny the Holy Spirit, though they profess the doctrine of the Trinity within their congregation.

I, thy Redeemer, declare unto thee that as these words speak, so am I evermore. Yea, and I am resurrecting and raising up those after Mine own heart. I have Mine who have not bowed before the teachings of men or have refused Me full entrance within them. They shall be brought forth in My power, against which the chapels and governments of men will fall upon their faces in terror; for they shall manifest My greater works. At the hour of their ordination shall all become manifest, for the day doth declare it, and all shall behold Me in that hour. The “Living Christ” is alive in many that I have hidden, and I in them shall come to the fullness of the stature of “I AM”.

Again shall I, through them, dwell among men to the consternation of the unrighteous deceivers and non-believers, those who have discounted My words and seek unto their own iniquitous doctrines of unfulfillment.

Behold I come, and I shall reward all according to their works. Enter ye into Me or ye shall be found standing against Me in the hour of My coming, and shall not be received into My New Day; yea, the day of My greater light. The day of the Covenant unto the Gentiles is being fulfilled and must have an end that the new day of promise might come forth unto the sons of men.

SEEK TO PRESENT YOURSELF USEFUL

The importance of hearing My words for and unto yourself is unknown and unconsidered by many. I ask you; how else shall ye be able to be led by Me if ye know not how to hear Me clearly? I say unto you that there is a great need for those who would come to hear Me clearly and write My words purely for the sake of others who hear not. Some of you hear Me only for yourselves and for your own needs, but never write them down for Me that I might perhaps use them to help more than just you yourself. Can ye not see that this is yet a degree of selfish-ness? For them that seek to be useful to Me in the recording of My words I can and would use in the helping of your brother man as well as yourself. Do you expect always to just keep My talents buried in the ground, never giving forth the Light and Testimony that they are unto others for their benefit? Behold, so few laborers have I that are selfless enough to become useful unto the redemption of others in their own circle of influence by becoming fluent in both hearing and writing My words that I give thee.

Behold, have I not said that My Truth would fill the earth as water fills the sea? How do ye suppose this should come to pass if I get no compliance from them who hear My Voice? Have I not said that in the last days I would pour out of My Spirit upon all flesh, and that thy sons and daughters would prophesy, and even upon My servants and handmaidens I would also pour out of My Spirit of Prophecy, testifying of My Presence among the sons of men, offering all the opportunity to hear and know Me and find their way through the mists of darkness unto My feet?

Behold, who is the man or woman willing to cast their all upon Me and to approach unto My Holy Presence, not just for their own benefit, but to become useful writing instruments unto Me? Many of you are afraid of this because you have too many distractions yet about and in you, being impure, thus ye are afraid you shall not write purely My words. There is a truth, that many of you cannot at this time write purely because ye yet hold to many things, and especially to your beloved religious tradition. Behold, lay ALL upon Mine Altar, and let Me know of your desire to be useful servants unto Me in the serving freely of thy fellow man, then dialogue with Me, in writing both thy words to Me and My answers to you. Thus ye shall come to hear Me and to write purely My words. It is necessary for you to study both your prayer before Me and Mine answer to you, thus you may need to use separate colors to write them at first. Behold, then you are receiving your own study materials and I can speak directly to thy own condition, revealing, exposing and correcting thee as I will, to thy growth unto maturity.

Behold, ye that seek Me know that this proficiency must one day come forth in you if you plan to be of use to Me. So why not start today to hear and speak to Me, thus we can become one as Friends, and ye shall no longer stand afar off gawking at My words through others?

My Little Ones, hide not My Light of Truth under a bushel basket, but let it shine forth, both in you and through your testimony to others; thus shall ye become My City set on a hill, who's light cannot be hid. To deny My words by hiding them up in the earth of thy heart is to deny Me the right to work through you to the salvation of many.

Behold, Christendom hath doled out unto you a fish once or twice weekly. But they never taught you how to fish for yourself or for your family's needs. Thus they have kept you subservient under their cruel domination, and have kept you in darkness at great cost to you, both monetarily and spiritually. When your soul cried out in hunger and thirst, they told you, you didn't do well enough and sold you more of their tapes and books. But I say unto ye hungry ones, they have but sold you the crumbs from their own table and ground you under their feet. But I offer freely My Love and Light and Testimony unto all who will sincerely ask, seek and knock, and My wisdom shall be revealed, not for thy money, but for thy time and attention to Me. Give not My praise, glory and honor to another. For only I, Jehovah of Hosts, am worthy of it. And behold, I am Jesus, the Spirit of prophecy that would come upon you were you to turn your back upon the robbers and thieves that you have grown to love and depend on for your spiritual needs.

Christendom is the "City of Destruction and Desolation"; a barren wilderness where no life is; barren fruitless trees, which, though prominent and greatly revered, cannot deliver not one of you, nor even themselves. Yet I AM the "Bread of Life" sent from heaven to redeem you from the traitors of men. I AM the “Living Water” that not only was to quench thy thirst, but was to be IN THEE a fountain of life springing up unto all who would drink thereof. But there has been a short-circuiting by your love of the traditions ye all have known.

I give unto thee a story to ponder. When I came forth among you, the Pharisees had everyone honoring them and their teachings. They sat in Moses’ seat and in great prominence before all the Children of Israel. Yet the people were under their captivity and tithed faithfully so that they might be blessed, yet remained in spiritual darkness and blindness, relying on men to mediate between them and their God.

I greatly offended these Pharisee leaders when I openly disregarded their traditions and supposedly “committed sacrilege” against their Sabbaths and holy rites. Yet I was ever guided by My Father in all that I did and confronted these religious leaders, calling them “hypocrites, snakes and vipers”, and Mine indictments against them are listed in Matthew 23. Read them for yourself and then compare them to your present day Pharisee leaders, who make you pay them for all they do for you, and give you but the crumbs from their table. Then witness how I came and overturned the tables of the money-changers and with the scourge of cords (whip) drove the robbers out, telling them that the temple was to be an “House of Prayer”, yet they had turned it into a “den of thieves”. John 2:15-16, Matthew 21:12 Behold, Christendom hath done the same things today. And you have grown comfortable under their domination, and are loathe to give up the ceremony and pomp you have grown to love and respect. But so long as ye continue to frequent their tables which are unclean, I will stand afar off from you. And know that again I shall come forth with My scourge of cords upon Christendom’s synagogues and drive out the money changers and them that sell Mine holy words and My Holy Spirit Dove. And behold I will again testify and prophesy against them and call them hypocrites, snakes and vipers. And what will ye do, ye who love ceremony and pomp, when I drive them out?

I say that first I must use My scourge of cords within thy heart, driving out thy love of these money changers from thee, for they are within you, as other gods before Me, who am the True God. And thy worship ye give unto men and systems and ye say, “Who is like unto Christendom’s greatness, power and strength? And who can come against her and her protection under the auspices of the Beast?”

Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and a strong One, who as a destroying flame and a mighty tempest overflowing, shall cast down all your fine institutions that men have set up; and as the chaff in late summer He will blow them all away. Will ye be swept away with her? Or will you submit yourself to Me now, that ye be not devastated with her? Receive not of her plagues for I will render unto her double the insensitivity she has rendered you. And the witch shall be forever put down, saith the Lord of Hosts.

Will ye be a casualty of her devastation, holding onto your allegiance to her leaky lifeboats, or will ye survive victorious in Me, a conqueror to deliver the others who shall be devastated and scattered by My judgements on the “Mighty Babylon”. The decision rests with you, for I am ever ready to help you overcome, but ye must do it MY way. Come to Me, all ye who labor for nothing, and who pay all for nothing. I will give you of My Bread and Water freely if ye will seek it at My feet.

But pay heed to double-mindedness, for them who are looking at many sources will find themselves confused and unstable as water, and receiving no good thing from Me. So come! All ye hungry and thirsty children, unto your True Shepherd; for no other Voice will avail you of salvation in this My New Day! Selah and Amen, saith the Mighty One, who alone can rescue thee in this late hour.

Consider that these leaders of Christendom are the “clouds without rain”, “wells without water”, “wandering stars unto whom the blackness of darkness is reserved forever”, and in taking monies for the selling of My holy words and Holy Spirit Dove, they are in the gall of bitterness and the bonds of iniquity. And unless ye desire to continue being raised in the same, come unto Me, saith the Most High, and become readied by Me, to the deliverance of all. For they that love wisdom come unto Me. But them who collect knowledge feed themselves what their reason tells them is good and able to make them wise. Behold, as Eve, the serpent hath beguiled thee into partaking of the Tree of Knowledge rather than of My Tree of Life fruits. Thus are ye cast out of My Presence and cursed until ye learn that the Tree of knowledge only shall bring spiritual death unto thee.

RESPECT MY VOICE AND WORDS

Chosen among Mine elect are them that saw worth in Me and in My Voice ABOVE all the teachings of the well-favored Harlot and her daughters. For behold, all the knowledge under heaven cannot deliver thee from thine own self. Saith the Holy One. Nor could it have delivered Me. Make no mistake. I hold great value in the words preserved in your Bible. Great teaching cometh therefrom to all who study them. But canst thou not also see the benefit of My present day sayings in the instructing of you today on how to locate Me in order to worship Me? Behold, I have not ceased to speak to them willing to hear Me and to be led of Me. But My Voice is closed to them who would sell My words for profit or to lord over others with them. But to them who have no private goals or ambitions of their own My words shall pour forth freely. Now them who receive graciously and with respect My words shall know of a surety My words when I speak. And if they walk in them faithfully more will be given them. But if My words are disregarded and set at nought by you, they will come forth no more unto thee. There is great selfishness and competing among the teachers of Christendom, all of them wanting to claim the highest seat, thus I cannot use any of them. Thus be wise and come unto Me humbly and receive of My words and also respect them enough to comply with them. For to as many as receive Me and My words, to them more shall be given, and they shall have an abundance to share with others. But unto them who respect Me not nor adhere to My loving words and corrections shall not receive of Me, and even that they thought they had of Me shall be taken away and given to them who covet more of Me, and they shall use it carefully to My glory. Selah. Take heed HOW ye hear Me, for My words come not unto thee in vain, but for My all-wise purpose; in bringing forth My Light of Truth to enlighten the darkness of thy world and thy soul. Even so, heed Me, says thy Redeemer.

THE DAY OF MY NEW KINGDOM'S LIGHT

Behold and tremble before God, for the Lord redeemeth none that rebel against Him. Rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft. Those who will not hear His words will not receive His prophecies given through the prophets, and will not give themselves over to the Holy Spirit, and so deprive themselves of the fullness of Christ, refuse His inspiration unto complete deliverance so that they might behold their salvation, and are bound unto darkness.

For those who behold only in part can never see the truth of My greater Light and will never behold Me or My Leading clearly. I AM THAT I AM, AND I SHALL EVERMORE BE. When the old earth and the old heavens have passed away My Light shall continue to shine forth in truth and righteousness unto those blessed to behold Me in that day. For the old shall surely pass away and all they that held to that vision must perish with it in the hour that Justice lays his claim upon all unrighteousness so that purity might come forth.

I will have unto Me a people and they shall be brought forth into that new Kingdom. From among them shall I set up kings of righteousness like unto David of Israel or Benjamin and Mosiah, and they shall deal righteously with My people, that My Father might be glorified in the New Day that He hath given unto those redeemed of the earth. My prophets shall teach in truth and all shall learn from the servants of the Lord My everlasting truth, and peace shall rule in My new Kingdom. For as Melchizedek was, shall I raise up leaders unto Mine own who behold Me purely and bow unto their Creator evermore. The hand of the Lord will bless them for they shall bless the Lord in all they do, and all things hidden shall be revealed and none shall want among them.

The fruits of My deliverance shall rejoice in My greater Light and no darkness shall be found among the inhabitants of My New Kingdom. The greater principles of My workings, both the former and latter, shall begin to unfold, and depth shall be recorded unto all revelation. For in the Light shall all come to see clearly and to hear plainly all that was denied unto them in the old kingdoms of men. For their God shall dwell among them in wisdom and love being manifested unto them in that day.

For among My people shall husbands love their wives and wives their husbands that were given unto them, and parents shall learn from their children truth, and joy shall fill the hearts of all those whom Mercy hath delivered unto My New Kingdom. For I, Jesus, am both Mercy and Justice. In Me shall each be given their dominion over the sons of men; according to their works shall they be separated unto Me according to My Father's will. To each shall be recorded the fruits of their labor during the hour of their probation. For in My Father's House are many mansions that have been prepared for the new day that cometh.

Those of the flesh will not behold spirit, those of spirit will not be bound by flesh or it's ambassadors. The Spirit shall endure, but the flesh must pass away, that corruption might be overthrown and the incorruption of purity might be delivered from it's death and regenerated unto life everlasting, that the promises of God might be fulfilled in equity. Those who are wise will understand while those that are ignorant will not understand. Yea, for the day shall declare it, that all should become evident unto those who seek to see. Yea, and it shall be so evermore.

The righteousness that men regard after the outward manner shall not enter into My New Kingdom. For all are as filthy rags, leaving all to appear naked before thy Creator. Nay, only the inward righteousness of a pure heart shall ever behold God, and unto them alone it is recorded that they should become the sons and daughters of God. Not by their worthiness, but by humility and submission and obedience to My Holy Spirit are they lifted from the darkness unto the Light of My Presence and given robes worthy of that manifesting, even unto My greater light. For they seek not that they might be regarded as somewhat, nor do they seek advantage over another. They strive to share that light selflessly so that others might see plainly and acknowledge their Creator, that He, alone, might be glorified by their words and their works. So must all be who desire to escape the wrath of Justice and to enter into My New Kingdom.

BLESSING OR CURSING AWAITS YOU

Blessed is the believer in Me who cares not what anyone else has to say about him. Blessed are they who endure the scorn of all to remain humble and submitted unto My Voice and way. Blessed are they who regard Me and Mine Holy Spirit over all the teachers of Christendom, and that separate themselves unto My way of truth and light. Blessed are they who have regard unto My present-day words as much as My words spoken in the past and do them. My Covenant will be revealed unto you unto the receiving of My promises.

But cursed is man that trusteth in man and maketh the way, strength and power of flesh his god. For he shall be as a fruitless and dry tree in a barren wilderness, consumed by spiritual drought and famine for the words of God, and shall receive no good from Me but only My Cursing, wrath, fury and indignation. For behold, none of you are smarter than Me, saith the Christ.

But them who avail themselves of Me and My words, they shall arise with the power of My strength and shall drink from My Living streams and shall eat of My manna, eternally provided them. They shall be fruitful trees, embedded in Me, and profuse in My Life, giving of themselves food for all, and in their branches all shall delight. And ever receiving more of My goodness and light.

Behold, blessed or cursed shall each of you be in the day of My separating of the sheep and goats among you. I stand, awaiting your decision, which I will not determine by your words unto Me but by thy actions and heart intent. Selah and Amen. Saith the King.

MY FIRE OF SEPARATION

Blessed be the Lord Jesus Christ, and blessed be His Name. And upon His Name comes the authority and power of the Most High, the Father-Creator-God. Take not His Name upon you in vain, for behold there is responsibility in it, O ye sons of men. For judgement begins upon all them who call themselves His, and they will be judged by His holy righteousness. And that which be chaff in thee shall be burned away to thy dismay.

And if ye have not of His Life within, ye shall be burned to cinders, to your shame and disgrace.

Heed the fire that is burning, unto the consuming of all flesh; for that flame shall either purge out of you all of the old leaven of iniquity or it will burn you even completely, unto the lowest hell. Thus take heed, all ye followers of men, that ye say not that ye are Christ's if ye follow not Him only. For upon you cometh the fire that shall consume all that He is not in thee. And ye shall know, if ye endure the consuming Fire that He is upon you, whether He shall deem you worthy of any reward or inheritance in His Holy Kingdom. For all mouths shall be shut by the fire of His separating, and many great forests shall be consumed to ashes with no trees left standing. Beware of thine association with the idolatries of men. For to be a silent spectator therein is collusion with the enemies of Christ in the eyes of the Most High.

Beware ye unrighteous, and fear Him who made the heavens and the seas and the dry lands; and know that thy days of probation are nigh to be ended. Shall ye endure unto the receiving of a crown or shall ye be as thorns cut up and burned in His Furnace of Cleansing? Behold, change your ways now, lest ye be consumed along with your favorite speakers and religious ways taught you, for the end of all things is upon you! Saith the Most High!

ALL THAT WAS HIDDEN SHALL BE KNOWN

In My new age shall all that was opened be sealed. And that which was sealed shall be opened by the declaration of God so that thy Redeemer's latter day principles can be brought forth unto the redeemed. In that hour shall all truth be revealed by His Living Testimony being given unto the sons and daughters counted among the membership of My New Jerusalem Church that is being raised by My Holy Spirit. For from the Ark of My Testimony doth My Spirit reveal the unknown, the plain precious truths of My workings that man hath sought to hide in their hallowed vaults and thus deprived those of a seeking heart of the fullness of My manifestation for millenniums.

Now shall all that was hidden be known, and all that was thought to be known be hidden, that iniquity might be purged and compromise revealed unto the completion of all truth. By My hand, saith Jesus, shall this be accomplished so that purity might have it's season to come forth unto that final harvest before thy Creator.

He is a righteous King and a Faithful Judge of all things and of all peoples that He hath created. The revelation of all that was sealed shall leave all to see the error of what had been known and for them be drawn in pure contrition into the acceptable remnant before He who knows all; and they shall truly learn to be thankful before His Throne evermore. By this shall He be established within the hearts of all, that they might be worthy of even greater gifts. They shall come to understand His Eternal Day that shall come forth from the Kingdom of My Greater Light. Much have I to say unto you, My Children, but you cannot receive it as of yet. Seek Me and ye shall. Selah.

THE TRUTH SHALL PROVE YOU

Behold the greatness of the King of the Most High upon the Throne of His majesty, and how the worlds are counted as nothing, and as a drop in a bucket before Him. Then picture, if ye might, His creatures, who shake their fist at Him in their anger towards the Light of His glory coming forth. And who shall fight against His exposure of their darkness and win?

Behold, ye sons of men: ye are as the grass, and as the flower of grass all thy works and greatness are quickly fading away in the glory and heat of His rising. Behold, the natural dew shall not sustain thee, nor dispel the heat and light of His Coming. Thus shall ye wither and fade who are not sustained in Him by His Living Water.

Behold, the day cometh. It is upon you already, where the truth shall be evident all over your world. And the Truth shall prove you to be either His or your own, to your shame and disgrace. For the fire of His holiness shall alight upon all to their lighting unto holiness or unto their burning away.

Behold, upon all flesh shall He come. And tongues of fire shall appear upon the holy, to their speaking the great mysteries of God in all languages. Yet upon the chaff the fire will also alight to their destruction.

See the time and be wise. Seek the Son of Righteousness while He yet smiles upon you in mercy, for His Justice soon arises to consume all His enemies and to purge all the earth of iniquity and unrighteousness forevermore. Amen.

And there shall not be left unto thee, sons of men who glorify Christendom, neither root nor branch nor seed forever more; neither shall thy way be remembered forever more. For thy worm shall not die nor the fire on thee be quenched, and thou shalt be an abomination and an abhorrence to all flesh evermore.

11-4-96 CW

BEHOLD JUSTICE COMETH

Seek ye, all ye lands, unto Jesus, thy Messiah, this day while He extends mercy unto all who will come. Repent ye of your deeds and your iniquities and be ye cleansed by baptism of His Holy Spirit. Receive ye Him that ye might hear truth and that ye might see it manifested among thee and in thy communities. Those who will not ask and receive mercy will find themselves left unto the hand of Justice. All who will not repent, all who cleave unto iniquity and all who will not hear and obey the commandments of thy Creator will perish when Justice lays His claim upon them.

Mercy opens wide that all might be delivered, but her season giveth way unto the day of separation. For all who mock God will come to see the error of their folly at that hour. They shall behold the vengeance of Justice and will be tormented in His damnation of them evermore. Think not that thy Creator delayeth much longer; for thou, all ye lands, have sinned and do sin worse against thy God daily, and He shall reward you with the fruits of thy labors. It shall be as an eternal Sodom and Gomorrah unto thee, for His word declares it to be so. In one hour shall His judgement come upon thee when ye least expect it.

Woe unto those who are at ease in Zion! Woe unto the congregations of Bethel! Woe unto those who travel in Egypt (the world)! Woe unto those who pray to the statues and bow before living idols of men in Babylon! Ye shall be cast as untimely figs from the presence of thy Creator when He shakes the earth and the heavens. The earth shall tremble for thee, for she knows the wrath of thy God; and the heavens shall be rolled as a scroll at His coming, and ye shall be smitten.

Ye stiff-necked who will not bow before Him shall be broken and ground to powder, blown away by the wind of His Holy Spirit unto the ends of the earth. All that will not acknowledge His authority and His ownership of all that is shall be destroyed in that hour.

For unto you was Mercy thy defender, yet ye paid no heed unto Her cry to come out of thy unrighteousness, and not to tempt thy Creator any longer. By your choice, by thy indecision, will destruction come quickly, and ye shall be remembered no more among men, nor will your abominations ascend unto the nostrils of thy Creator. For Justice will be complete and none shall escape His grasp.

Again I say REPENT and fall upon thy face before thy Creator that ye might be spared. For BEHOLD JUSTICE COMETH with thunder and lightning and with fire to purge the land of all iniquity that the reign of purity might come forth. For the day doth declare it to be so.

MY FIRE OF HOLINESS IS TO TRY YOU

To all My lambs under My own dominions I say unto thee, be at peace, yet understand the time in which ye live. With Me as your only Shepherd, ye shall find safety and security in Me as My Fire of Holiness comes forth upon all. Yet upon all flesh it will burn and consume all of your works that came not from My leadings.

Behold, all ye who labor in Christendom's service or any other religion, know that your works are led by men and guided and governed by men, and they shall be burned and thou shalt suffer loss because of them. Thus seek Me purely and sincerely to be pruned and cleansed now, while there be time to do this. And be prepared as vessels unto Me if ye desire My sealing and Name upon you. And seek no more to Christendom's filthy pig troughs to be defiled with the "swine" of your nation. And ye who love the pig sties men have set up will suffer the greatest loss of all. So you who desire truth and light, separate yourselves unto Me alone, and care not because of the consternation that will come from friends or family, for except ye come to hate and to forsake all, even homes, family, friends, lands, and fellowships of men, ye cannot be My disciple. Thus lose thy worldly life and aspirations to become My servant only, and obedient unto My words spoken in these days, else I shall not find you worthy of reward or inheritance in the day of My recompensing of all according to their works.

These should be days of serious repenting and soul-searching among all of you. And slothfulness and complacency completely cleansed from thy breast in the fear of thy Lord. For My wisdom cannot and will not be given to the worldly citizens of Christendom. Therefore arise from your stupor and claim thy allegiance to Me or suffer the judgements of the well-favored Harlot and her children. Selah and Amen.

I REQUIRE YOUR ALLEGIANCE

Hear ye, all the earth, the words of thy Creator. And disdain not the words of My mouth to thine own destruction. Ye have feared the weapons ye have made for to defend yourselves with, yet ye know not My mighty power nor the arsenal at My disposal. And that which ye have created is subject unto My power to further bury you in the earth. There is no power ye can imagine or bring forth to equal what I can and will bring forth from nature's own fury upon you. Rain and cold and wind and fire are at My disposal, as well as earthquake and great hail. Lava flows and mud flows ye cannot resist. For behold, the mountains shall melt at My mighty presence, and the earth can and will be consumed.

Behold, My beloved Children, I require your allegiance to Me alone. There shall not be these other gods before Me. Nor shall ye assemble your forces against Me to scare Me. For I will cause trembling and fear to seize upon them and every man will run from thee to his own place in fear of My mightiness. Thus trust ye not in your mighty weapons, nor upon your forces, for none can stand when I arise to shake the earth and heavens terribly.

Behold, I do not wish to scare you with these words, nor do I delight in the destruction of My peopled universe. But I will have dominion over all I have created, even thee, because I will create a Kingdom and a place for My righteous redeemed ones, and ye who love calumny and collusion will be destroyed as thorns cut up in My Fire.

Behold, ye trust in Christendom's power, wisdom and numbers. But I will bring forth judgement upon her and upon you if ye be in her, to the destruction of all who love her. Thus be warned and receive reproof and correction now, every one of you; that ye may with My mercy be spared in the day of My wrath upon all disobedience. Selah, saith thy Creator.

Kiss the Son lest His wrath be kindled and a fire break forth upon you that will burn unto the lowest hell and none of you be left.

THIS BE THE DAY OF SEPARATION

In this hour shall the wildfires of My Holy Spirit burn brightly in reformation unto those of a repentant heart so that they might obtain mercy, OR, in this hour shall the wildfires of damnation cleanse the land of the arrogance of unrighteousness. For I, thy God, am a consuming fire and so shall I be evermore, either unto deliverance or unto destruction. By your choice shall it be unto thee. For all shall see Me as "I AM" burns brightly the furnace of purification upon the earth. All that stands with Me must be tried in the fire that purity might come forth unto a completed redemption of all that I have created.

Ye have tried My love and trampled My Sons's grace and refused the instruction of My Holy Spirit by which ye might be reprov'd. Ye refuse to return unto My straight paths, preferring to travel as the serpent along crooked paths that avail no good thing. Choose ye this day whom you will serve. For the lines are drawn and all are being drawn into their respective camps. Let the firing begin, that the enemy of My redeemed might be destroyed evermore. For this is the fiery trial and baptism by fire, that truth and righteousness shall be established in the hearts of all mankind.

Cry unto Me that ye might find deliverance or ye will cry unto Me evermore and I shall not hear nor deliver thee of thy damnation. Those who will be given over to Justice will never again behold mercy, nor will they be able to answer her cry. This is the hour of thy decision and ye shall have the desire of thy heart. Follow the “pied piper” if you must, all ye that are hypnotized by his music, and ye will see Justice. Follow My Holy Spirit and ye shall see mercy. This is the day of separation, either unto Me or from Me evermore.

BEHOLD THE FIRE OF MY JUDGEMENT COMETH

With joy draw ye out of the wells of My Salvation. Receive ye Mine anointed vessels, and My word that poureth forth profusely upon your nation, as words of salvation unto all who shall open their eyes, ears and hearts unto My truths being revealed. For the fire of My judgement shall soon replace the words and pleading of Mercy, who yet extendeth her hand to you. But I swear unto you by Mine own Self that ye shall not like the other choice if ye heed Me not now.

As I have said before, consider not the vessels I am using, but consider thou carefully the words I am speaking unto all through them. For My prophets in the past were not of fine dress or demeanor; neither were they deemed outwardly perfect among all citizens, but in their hearts burned My Fire of Holy purity that consumed all.

Behold and beware, and bless the hands that pen My words so that all may be warned to repent of their iniquity and be cleansed by Me individually, or else My destruction shall fall upon them. Behold, these My words are a grace unto thee to slap thee awake from thy slumber of self-righteous complacency and are as an alarm of trumpets blowing, sounding the warning unto all for the soon coming return of thy Creator.

Behold and believe, for as I said to the Pharisees of old, “ye shall not see Me henceforth until ye learn to cry, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord of Hosts.” For My Father and I and My writers are ONE!

Thus heed ye all nations to the words of My mouth, and repent all ye lands and isles of the sea while there is yet time for thy repentance. For darkness I shall give thee light. For confusion I will give thee soundness of thinking. For thine instability I shall be unto thee solid foundings. Only if ye drop all and run to My arms and dwell ye under the shadow of My eternal protection.

For I was hungry and ye gave Me no food. I was sick and ye visited Me not. I was naked and ye clothed Me not. I was in prison and ye visited Me not. I was a stranger and ye took Me not in. And yet ye will ask Me, “when did we see thee and refuse to comfort or provide for thee?” And I will say unto thee, if ye did it not unto the least of these My brethren, ye did it not for Me. Thus take heed ye selfish creators of evil things and filled with greed and lasciviousness. Ye regard today and futures, stock markets, goals and ambitious plans. But you know not if there shall be a tomorrow or if I shall take it all away.

Ye fools and blind, heed Me when I speak. For though your churches have taught you that you are fine in Me because you have paid them to say such things, nevertheless their words and works for and unto you shall not sway My decision in the end thereof or at My Eternal Judgement Bar.

I say by thy own words and works shall ye stand or fall. And if ye have taught others to sin and do wickedly and said there was no harm in these things, behold, their blood for these things will I require at thine hand. And wherein ye have committed murders of the unborn, or have had a hand in the furtherance of it by any means, ye shall partake in the blood and judgement thereof. But if ye purge your hands of these things ye shall not suffer My judgement for it. And if ye have embraced iniquity and taught it to others, know for their sakes, who's minds ye have perverted, I shall judge and sentence thee in their behalf.

And wherein thou hast by bad example walked licentiously and caused others to do the same, especially children, know My stern eye shall behold you, and My fist shall smite thee for their sakes.

And wherein ye have dealt treacherously against Mine anointed servants, or spoken against them before others, to turn their minds away from My Light of Truth reaching them, ye will carry the blood of their bad decision and fate upon your own head. Saith the Judge, even thy Redeemer. For I set forth My righteous vessels as a mercy unto all men, that they may be warned to flee unto My side from the wrath to come. And if you set calumny and confusion and doubt and unbelief into their hearts against My words of truth issuing forth through these vessels of mercy ye do turn their hearts away unto hardness like unto your own, so they shall perish with you. But their blood I will require at thy hand. Saith the Most High.

And wherein ye are destroying My earth and it's properties and/or destroying wetlands or rainforests, which provide oxygen and rain and habitat for many of My creatures, ye shall bear My judgement for those lands and those waters and those creatures ye have destroyed in your selfish pursuits of pleasure and greed.

And wherein ye turn your head away and foul the air that all must breathe, ye shall have no idea of the judgement that shall fall upon thee, even of eternal smothering, yet attempting to live. For all My creatures and peoples rely on the cleanness of the air they breathe for their very survival. But I see many poisonous emissions being let out by the greedy, thinking no one will know. And wherein ye pollute the waters which all depend on to drink, ye shall know the bitterness of gall and poisonous bitter waters, for I will make you forever drink of it.

And for you who sell putrid food, and put it into the market or allow the selling of it to unsuspecting patrons to make them sick, I will force you to eat of the same evermore.

Behold, what ye do unto others, know that I will repay it unto thee, leaving out nothing. For the law of reciprocity will be regarded in My repayment of all men for the works ye all have done. And all this mentions not the storehouse of nature's own requiting in fury all the sons of men for that they have done to her. So be aware and flee to Me in repentance or else ye will find no place to hide from the wrath that shortly follows to slap the earth's inhabitants. There shall be no safety for any except under the shelter of My wings in repentant humility. And where I am there shall My own little ones be, who have purged themselves of these evil and wicked works. For them there shall be peace, but for no one else.

TOP

FEAR YE HIM!

I, thy Redeemer, say unto thee that by My Holy Spirit shall I do a thorough purging of all My lands and nothing shall be left that isn't purity anywhere therein. For behold, I shall thoroughly purge My threshing floor and the wheat shall I gather unto Me, but the chaff shall be burned with unquenchable fire. Behold and know, O sons of earth, that I come quickly upon thee. And know that I shall deal justly with you all. Know that My anger is kindled against that which keeps My little ones from Me. And that which destroys My earth shall feel and see and know My wrath upon them. It is such a time for all to be sober and vigilant. For thine enemy is about on every hand trying to make thee fall. If you will walk with your hand in Mine you will remain in safety. But if alone ye walk, or within Christendom's camp ye will know Mine irrevocable Justice, who comes to execute the vengeance of Mine Eternal Throne upon all that offends My Holiness.

Thus tremble ye and fear at the words of the Holy One and make sure thine own salvation. For the walls of security are falling around thee and the ground about to quake and roll beneath thee. And the sky about to ignite above thee. And what will ye do in the end thereof? Behold, the Lord of Glory cometh. Will ye be ready to meet Him?

Suffer no man to cause you to fall away from Me but grasp hold of My mercy and grace while there is yet time for repentance and turning. For the time cometh when these things shall be taken away from thee and nothing awaiteth but My furnace of fire purification of all the earth's inhabitants.

Behold and know the time ye live in and repent; and let sackcloth gird thee that humility might cover and preserve thee. Hide ye with Me, My little ones, till the indignation be overpast. For the Judge of all the earth ariseth to cleanse the earth of all unrighteousness. Thus all, FEAR YE HIM! Selah and Amen.

YE SHALL BEHOLD A PURE VISION

My Children, I, Jesus, would speak plainly unto thee that ye might not remain in ignorance. The decisions of thy forefathers hath sown many seeds of iniquity in the thoughts of this generation. All of that iniquity must be laid aside so that My greater light might shine into all the darkness and remove all the shadows of compromise that thy forefather's decisions have cast forth unto this present day.

The teachings of those of the Jewish faith receive Me not as their promised Messiah. For iniquity and stubbornness in the sixth generation before My birth on earth they were deprived of a clear vision because they would not hear Jeremiah, Lehi and other prophets of purity that My Father sent unto them. Their refusal to hear His message of repentance left Him with no choice except to allow them to be carried off into captivity unto Babylon. For righteousness did declare it in that day, but He kept unto Himself a remnant of deliverance and unto them were recorded the promises and a pure vision by which Israel would have known the truth of My mission had they been obedient. But they would not allow a pure prophet to speak that word and from a lack of vision My people perished, and their leaders did not see the signs of My Coming, nor did or do they regard Me for who I am now.

The teachings of those of the faith of Islam receive Me as a prophet, but unto this day have they been deprived of My greater Light. For their leaders, their forefathers, chose not to allow My truth to come forth that they might be endued with My power.

The teachings of the faith of Christianity proclaim Me to be the anointed Messiah sent unto the House of Israel. Yet their leaders contend, as their forefathers did, over ritual, doctrine, ceremony and dogma. “Do we immerse or sprinkle?” “Will He return pre-tribulation or post- tribulation?” Contending over questions has caused My Body to be torn asunder by the imaginings of men, and have deprived all generations of the fullness that I am. Many in the congregations do not even know what they worship, why they believe what they do, or even by whose decision these beliefs were distributed among the congregations. Yet the current day leaders hold unto their traditional teachings and pass them on to be truth. My children who are under the yoke of such iniquity are deprived of what I could give unto them. By all contention is all faith eroded, leaving all thy congregations powerless and confused. Ye assemble because it is convenient and the rules dictate that you must in order to retain membership and good standing before Me. But I say unto you that those who acknowledge My position as Messiah are those who worship Me in spirit and in truth and not those who contend with those who disagree with thy doctrines.

Love thy enemies; bless them that persecute you. Love thy neighbor as thyself. These were My teachings. To Me they were more than slogans; they were My way of life when I walked in the flesh. They are the principles of My lesser light and yet those who profess Me and are supposedly called by My Name cannot even speak unto the other members of My Body. Some follow after a principle, other congregations seek to find My Spirit, that they might receive the fruits of Pentecost. Those of a principle persecute those of the spirit and those of the spirit won't receive those of principle; yet all proclaim Me to be their source of authorization. Those who will not walk in My lesser light cannot be My disciples, nor do they receive Me as Messiah. They who do not My words walk not where I walked and receive Me not in their hearts because of contention, and are found in unforgiveness unto My other members of My body, and shall not behold My greater Light. That is why I said that all that was known must be sealed, and that which was sealed must be opened unto the revealing of all error and the ending of all contention and condemnation so that truth might be established in My new day. For those who are blinded by the iniquity of their forefathers must receive a pure vision of who I am so that they might advance in understanding before all might be revealed. For when eternal wisdom speaketh then will My greater Light begin to shine within thee, and we shall move forth unto those greater principles and greater truths of My Living Testimony that shall be brought forth unto all who have ears and do hear; and unto all those whose eyes have been opened to behold that pure vision of My lesser light. Then shall manifesting begin unto the blossoming forth of sons and daughters. For they are the fruit of the harvest of blessing and they shall be broken as bread to feed the hungry and will nourish all with My Living Testimony coming forth in that new day.

COME INTO A PURE UNDERSTANDING

All peoples of all lands come unto Me, saith Jesus, that I might deliver all from the iniquity of bad judgement by thy forefathers. Open unto Me and allow My Holy Spirit to witness truth unto thee and unto thy house, so that you might be freed to judge for yourself My truth. To all who will allow Me I shall free thee of the web of iniquity that hath brought forth unrighteousness upon thee before thy Creator. My Spirit shall unwrap the net that binds thee in confusion, doubt and unbelief and release thee from all deception, that I might heal thee and bring peace unto your lands.

For there is no gain in falling under Justice. I would that all should come to the knowledge of redemption, and that thy Creator again should bless thy lands with the bounty of His table being spread forth, and that all of the family of man should be righteous and obedient unto His leading. Before kingdoms can be changed, the hearts of men, one at a time, must be changed to behold His higher truth. For as many as should come to that higher enlightenment, He will in no wise cast out. Together you and I shall ascend and ye shall behold the glory of thy Creator being brought forth unto you. Then ye shall understand His mercy extended unto all His children, but you must come forth from your spiritual death that you might be accepted and enter into His presence.

In His presence does His Holy Spirit plainly manifest all truth that all might come into a pure understanding of His vision that He has reserved unto the redeemed of the earth. Those who will not come deprive themselves of His blessings being bestowed. I extend an invitation, but cannot force you to accept. You must willingly come and you must willingly allow iniquity and unrighteousness to be overthrown within your own heart to be freed of thy enemy's snare that has kept thee a captive of the darkness of deception.

For when the light cometh is the thief and the robber exposed and driven away. In the light all can see plainly their own condition and the avenues of repair unto healing and renewed life. As the Daystar dawneth that light is given unto all equally that they may awaken from all deception and see the road by which they might come into the truth of their Creator.

“DOERS OF THE WORD” OR “HEARERS ONLY”?

The word of God is seeds of truth to be planted within the hearts of the children of men that they might be enlightened to behold His righteousness. Into all who hear are those seeds planted so that they might nourish and sustain us, that we be not hungry and might be given strength to endure unto maturity before our Creator. The “hearers of the word” only are those who listen to truth but will not remain until faith has been established, that the seed should take root and grow within their hearts unto the convincing of their minds that it is correct.

Faith exercised is the nourishing and caring for that seed, that it might firmly be rooted and should sprout and grow unto the bearing of fruit. For we know something was planted and we must remain of a firm resolve that it will grow if we walk in the light. The “hearers of the word” are they who hear and receive the good seed of the Lord, but will not allow enough light to enter their hearts that it might grow. They are easily led unto the darkness and will not exercise faith till the seed matures. Where there is no light there can be no growth, no life; and those seeds which reside in the hearts of those drawn unto darkness will surely die.

The “doers of the word” are they who have prepared the ground of their hearts by repentance so that when the seed of truth is planted it is with joy received and carefully guarded and preserved that it might come forth. They seek unto the light that it might be fed and nourished during growth unto maturity, with the expectation that it will bear fruit. That seed, when it bears fruit, enlightens the mind of they who received it and bears witness of itself to the convincing of their soul of the righteousness of what was taught them, and their deliverance from error. For once truth has been established in your mind then will you always know it and your resolve cannot be caused to waver about it.

The Holy Spirit is the sower of the good seeds in the hearts of the children of men. He gives us the faith to believe that those seeds will grow unto harvest. And if we will allow His light to shine in our hearts, we will see growth within our spirit unto the deliverance of our souls. He will sustain and strengthen our resolve with that expectation until growth has become evident; then can we be encouraged by that growth to advance from the shadows of our past darkness to behold a purer light and obtain a greater understanding as more seeds of truth are planted within us.

As more seeds of truth are planted, grown and harvested, does our mind become regenerated to desire to leave the darkness and to be fully immersed in the light of truth’s witness being manifested within us. Then we, like the seeds, begin to see maturity and by faith being established we are changed from children of the darkness unto children of the light; and our walk begins to bear witness of all the truths that have grown within our heart. Our minds having been strengthened, now are unshakable, and we desire that more enlightenment should be allowed until, if possible, complete illumination cometh forth.

This is the avenue of regeneration whereby all of the old is cast away and we come to behold the new creature that we have become in Christ. The only thing that delays thy coming unto maturity is a patient desire to remain in the light and to allow those good seeds to be planted. For the words of the Lord will not return unto Him void if we will stay still and allow His Holy Spirit to work within the gardens of our hearts. To those who will remain humbly submitted unto His will shall He manifest all truth unto the revealing of all things, and that is His greater light present in those that are to be fully illuminated and filled with the glory of their Redeemer.

Unto as many who truly desire it, I, Jesus, shall give unto them eternal treasures found only in that greater light. Many shall come and say, “Yes, Lord”, but when the greater light comes they shall say “thy light is too bright!” and shall not receive it, but will draw back into the shadows and into the darkness; so shall it be for the “hearers of the word”; for they have not prepared their ground and will not be enabled to contain it. The “doers of the word” who have learned and witnessed My truths shall endure and shall shine bright as the firmament. For they shall be My glory and they shall be the redeemed of the earth.

LET MERCY SPARE YOU FROM JUSTICE

Mercy can satisfy the demands of Justice and she encircles all who will believe in Jesus and that He died for their transgressions, in the Lord's arms of safety, while those who exercise no faith unto repentance are exposed to the whole law of God without propitiation: and Justice has a rightful claim unto their souls that they might receive their punishment, even eternal damnation. Therefore only those who have faith in the Son of God unto repentance are brought unto the great and eternal plan of salvation.

Exercise ye thy faith unto repentance and call ye upon the name of Jesus that He will have mercy upon thee and hear thy cry that ye might be delivered. For the day doth declare that there shall be a separation of the sheep and the goats. The sheep are those who eat of the pastures of the Good Shepherd. Goats will eat anywhere and anything and they acknowledge no shepherd. They are ever wandering and will not return unto their Master.

The Lord shall call and His Sheep shall hear His voice and shall follow Him unto safety, but the goats shall be left to perish when the light has departed. Then shall Justice lay His claim upon all who heeded not the cry.

For there is only one Name recorded under heaven by which man might be saved, and that Name is Jesus. For the Holy Spirit doth witness unto all that He was, Is, and shall be evermore the begotten Son of the Living God, and the Messiah promised unto the Children of Abraham. This is our testimony and we do witness this truth that all may be drawn unto His light and that we might be spared of eternal darkness and damnation. For our Creator hath declared it to be so evermore. Amen.

WHAT GOOD THING HAVE I DONE FOR YOU?

And now with the elections over, I have looked and considered My people's hearts. It is a shame that they could not be so solid in their love and devotion to Me, whom am King over all the earth! For behold, I watch them working feverishly trying to get their particular candidate elected, and speaking good of him to all they meet, going out into the streets to talk to strangers about him if so be they can convince them. Why can't they be thus enthused about Me that they would want to share Me with many and speak of all the good things I do and have done for them unto the strangers on the street?

Behold, children of a lesser god, children who have eyes to see, but see not truth, and have ears to hear but refuse to listen to Me; go to now and see if you can find any candidate that compares to Me. For behold, I am your God of all gods and I am ignored by you in talk, in walk and in conversation.

Behold, I would that My people should have the joy that I offer them; then would they speak of My glory everywhere to the convincing of many. But alas, what conversation there is, is about the particular fenced-in yard they play in and the name of their church and pastor, and a few choice words about him and his sermons. Behold, who doth this glorify but man? What good thing have I done for you this week? And why do you not rejoice in it and walk in it and tell others in testimony about My goodness and aliveness to you? Or is it that ye have grown tired and complacent, and most of all expectant of these things as your right rather than My gift of blessing upon you?

O indeed ye have fallen and now take for granted all I do for you, and have laid aside repentance and humility for these religious works that you do to please the church you attend. And do these bring Me any honor or glory? No. Do they further your pastor or church? Yes. Do ye go door to door “ministering”? “Yes!” you say. I say, No, not for Me, but rather ye go canvassing and soliciting for your church. Does this bring glory or honor to Me? No, but only thy church receives the glory and honor from thy self-righteous works.

O people of a land once blessed to endure, and now cursed to fall, you think I am gone off into heaven and in My silence that I am also complacent as you are. Yet when I begin to roar in My vengeance surely you will notice and awaken. Too late for some; yet when the door of My Mercy is closed it is from henceforth sealed and shall not come open. Then Justice shall have His perfect work upon the earth and many will perish in the events that occur.

O Woe! Woe! Woe! Unto the earth’s inhabitants! For they will not acknowledge the True King over all and yet set up men as gods with great fanfare. Ye shall reap these deeds again unto yourselves.

WEEP FOR THE RELIGIOUS BLIND

Because of the wickedness and blindness of the masses of people weep not, but for them who have had opportunity to hear My Voice and be led of Me, yet turned away from My Voice of correction and direction, and have delivered themselves over to the steeple houses and regard not My voice and words I did speak to them personally, but had great regard unto the teachings and precepts of men that they might be led of them. For the teachings of men have led them into a greater darkness than the unsaved, denying Me My rightful place of Lordship among them; that they may blind them to My truth, and the simplicity of repentant humility amongst them, substituting religious duties and canned prayers and corporate righteousness, and supposed holy imaginations for all My truth, thus they cannot be delivered by Me but are forever bound in chains of doubt and unbelief by the religious beliefs, ideas, opinions and traditions of them that seek their own glory and to stand in My place of mediation among men. Yea, I say weep for them, for they shall be harder to convince than the sinners in the streets, who if given a chance to hear and know Me, would JUMP at that chance, and give their all quickly in order to find favor in My sight.

Yea, indeed, them in the highways and bi-ways will quicker enter My Kingdom and become readied by Me unto My service than all of Christendom combined, saith the Most High. So as with Mine own dissenters in My day, they are found in unbelief and cannot rise above the rumors they have been taught, nor to be un-yoked from the bondage of tradition they have come to love, thus they cannot follow Me nor hear Me, but exist in their confused darkness, debating My truths among themselves to no purpose, thus their candle having gone out, go into darkness everywhere, to their own destruction.

FLESH FIRE OR SPIRIT ANOINTING?

There is that which says “We have a Bible; we need no more Bible.” and there is that which hungers and thirsts and looks and awaits every word that yet proceeds out of the mouth of thy Creator, that they may do them, and be obedient to all His leadings. There is that which proclaims itself learned and wise and in need of no further revelation but teaches according to it’s own finite wisdom and learning; then there is that which dwells in silence till the Holy Spirit speaks forth through them in power and anointing to the deliverance of many from darkness.

Behold, both are candles with the potential of carrying light. Yet one is lit only by energy of man in the lifting up of flesh worship and seance, whereas the other knows it’s own unworthiness and inability to know the spiritual needs of an audience, therefore lays aside his own understanding, yielding his mouth unto My Holy Spirit, that He might speak and minister to the needs of that present audience, with signs and miracles following. This second candle works up nothing after the will or ways of flesh, but waits for My Holy Spirit fire to fall and ignite him to the anointing of all his words. That same Holy Spirit shall also open the ears and blinded eyes of the hearers that they may receive of Him understanding of all His plain words to them, and all who will receive of Him are blessed and lighted and encouraged.

But the first candle gives no brighter light than his hearers already have, so all dwell in the shadows without power or anointing and none are helped.

O ye that kindle your own fires and compass yourselves about with sparks. Walk in the light of your own fire, and the sparks that your works have kindled; this ye shall have from My hand; ye shall lay down in sorrow, and deliver no one, not even yourself. Saith the Most High. Isaiah 50:11

TO EACH IS GIVEN THEIR OWN CHOICE

The peace that passes all understanding dwells with them who walk with Me, and their joy shall be full. But them who walk afar off from Me, they shall know neither joy nor peace, nor any sort of stability, for these things are not in man, but must come from a higher source than man in order that he might find them. For behold, wisdom was not created in man, but it was given him only to reason and to decide what he would have, either wisdom or ignorance, obedience or disobedience, goodness or evilness, blessing or cursing. And by his innate knowledge none of these are available to him. Yet upon his decision to follow a certain path, either towards Me or away from Me, the result of his actions comes forth upon him, either to his good benefit or to his destruction.

Thus to all men is given a choice as to who or what he will have, serve or believe, and through many bad choices man is supposed to learn not to lean unto his own understanding, but to seek to receive wisdom from above, that he might be guided by ME in that he cannot see for himself clearly.

Those who seek My guidance shall find the good path and shall be sustained in their walk by Me so long as they look to Me for help. But them who trust in themselves and their own strength and powers of reason and discretion find only the great pits of destruction and stumble in the darkness of their own imaginings of what is truth, right and the good way.

Choose ye this day who ye will follow. For thy Shepherd goeth forth and darkness falleth upon you. Seek Him while He may be found of you, for He goeth on, with or without you. Selah.

COME TO KNOW THE INWARD REGENERATION

My Sons and Daughters shall in this hour speak and confer My promise of blessing upon those that My Spirit shall reveal unto them, and the curse of darkness shall be lifted from those to whom they speak My words of blessing. They shall be renewed in hope and shall have the desire for truth within them encouraged so that they might pursue with renewed life unto deliverance. For the seeds of hope shall be fruitful and shall guide many into the possession of My greater Light.

Those who are drawn to seek only unto the outward manifestation of righteousness cannot come, that the truth of My Light might fill them with humility; and I cannot confer upon them My gift of righteousness. For My Holy Spirit witnesses only unto the humble the error of their own conceit and arrogance, that they might be delivered from the iniquity of self-righteousness and be given the fullness of My witness contained in My Testimony. For that witness is My greater Light and it is found only by the inward regeneration unto the complete overthrow of all unrighteousness. For only those who have been cleansed within will be given over unto My Holy Spirit, that they might be endowed with an attentive ear to hear the revelation which My Spirit is revealing within the new heart of that regeneration becoming manifested. They alone will be those who will walk in My new way; yea, even My straight road, unto the complete cleansing of their soul of all that was offensive unto their Creator.

Blessed indeed are they who enter in by the straight road and the narrow gate unto salvation being completed unto them; those who have purified their hearts and have allowed My Holy Spirit to plow under all knowledge that availeth unto them not purity. In them shall joy raise itself upon itself like a fountain, for they shall be filled with My water of Life and shall sparkle as gems because of My greater Light shining forth from within them; and that light shall fill My New Kingdom until all darkness is dissolved and the shade of compromise removes its shadow evermore by My Love upon all chosen to behold Me, and to be partners of that manifestation. For surely it shall come in righteousness, for the word and the day hath declared it to be so. And My Holy Spirit shall bring it forth.

The dawning of My greater light shall light My candles of righteousness, even My two candlesticks, and together shall they bring forth the revelation of all truth, and shall bear fruit unto the witness of My Testimony, that all might come to behold purity. Yea, does My Holy Spirit now light the wildfires of reformation so that redemption might be brought forth upon the earth.

KNOW YOUR NEED FOR DELIVERANCE

The Lord speaks deliverance unto them who don't even know what deliverance is about, and yet they will hear what He shall say unto them that they might have hope; whereas if unto the self righteous religious He should speak of deliverance, they boldly proclaim that they have already been delivered and need no more delivering, but stand firm where they are, thinking they are in need of nothing and see wherein everyone else but them is blind. Thus they close their hearts against My words concerning deliverance and apply D.N.A. (Does Not Apply) to all that I tell them thus I can't help any of them.

Them that are on the street KNOW they need My help. They in the churches think they have all of Me that they need and shall ever need until the next life. So do they reject further revelation and rejoice in their religious views and stands, and have enough of My precepts to last them a lifetime. But the persons on the streets are not so self righteous and see the sufferings of themselves and others around them.

Behold, I will choose the unlearned over all the learned and will bless their understanding of Me, but the learned shall perish in their knowledge because they trust in it instead of seeking Me for further revelation of My Truth to their own deliverance from the blindness of their minds and the stiffness of their hearts and pride in their works of self righteousness in which they stand, determined to be rewarded even as they claim all My Kingdom for their own and look down "holier-than-thou" noses at My poor and desolate unlearned ones, rejected by their fine churches because of their poverty or their habits.

My Kingdom shall be no social club, nor have any who thus think so highly of themselves, nor any who seek their own glory. But I will call unto Me the base and weak and simple-hearted ones will acknowledge Me and walk with Me.

Yes, indeed weep for these victims of the churches of your land (the self-righteous blind ones), and know My call falleth upon their deaf ears and so few respondeth to My call unto holiness, righteousness and purity. Whilst they congratulate themselves in their good works and find not the blessings they thought they should have because of those works, for they seek to receive honor from men, thus can't receive any from Me nor even My recognition, even though their works might be many and "good".

They who seek unto Me to be known of Me can truly find recognition from Me in the works they do secretly, so that only I see and know. Yea, even they receive of My blessings also upon all they put their hands unto, for they seek not the praise, honor or admiration of the world, but to please Me only. Thus the humble receive what the self righteous covet but can never have, no matter how hard they work "for Me", laboring for the auspices of their particular religion. For religion blinds the eye and mind to My truth, but humility obtains the hand and attention and blessing of thy Beloved Creator. Even so, it should be thus. Amen.

SEEK TO BECOME UNBOUNDED

Out of the bounded heart comes only limited sight and understanding. But out of the open heart can come forth that new revelation that reveals the new and current words of thy Creator. So all ye of bounded and closed hearts, know why no new life comes forth from thee. Ye bounded are as a capped off stream, like a fountain sealed and a garden enclosed. No new life can flow through you. But unto them who were willing to open fully unto Me, My New Life flows forth as torrents of Living Water, unto the receiving of all of you Mine own blessed streams of water into your deserts, a refreshing unto the souls of all of you that will receive. And to all of you that have received I say, continue in My fresh and current words. So shall ye also become uncapped and unsealed, that My life-giving flow may also come forth through you to the blessing of all through your willing obedience to Me to become channels unblocked by any of the old self, for My healing streams to flow through you unto your hurting brethren, yea even all of Creation.

Seek to become unbounded, unblocked. Seek to expand your vision of eternal things in Me and be not absorbed in carnal, earthy and temporal things, but seek to rise above them in Me; so shall ye become cleansed and purified of all those defiling weights and arise in Me and in My Light as new creatures. Yea, thus shall Christ be also arisen in thee and thy Light come. And as ye have sought to these lights I have made available to you, so shall others also be drawn to thy light, to the expelling of even more of the darkness of this world. Add to the light and remain not on the dark side of the Son, lest destruction seize upon you. Selah and Amen.

O ye bounded ones, ye limit Me, saith thy Creator, as to how much light I can give you. You try to give Me some of your time but I need your heart, your mind and your soul offered up unto Me also. Seek to find Me in the aloneness closet where you will come to cease your fears of giving up your controls unto Me. For were I to be able to enter and possess your lands of your kingdoms, I could regenerate all and make new all, and uncap your fountains and reinstill in you holy truth, hope and purpose. But you must allow Me to do this and be willing to follow it as far as it goes, yea, even unto it's fullness in Me, the Christ. I say trust Me. And if ye cannot trust Me, ye believe not that I AM the anointed and risen Messiah, and that I have thy best interests at heart. Behold, to none of them in unbelief could I do any good thing in My day on earth, though I was yet Lord of all. And your unbelief shall tie My hands from giving you any good thing now as well. Therefore, open to receive Me that the darkness swallow you not up in this late hour. I say open to receive, and hope that you will receive Me, so I can receive you into My Father's presence with great joy and praise. Selah.

THE AVENUE UNTO REDEMPTION

Thus saith the Spirit of the Lord unto the children of men: "if ye will keep My commandments ye shall prosper in the land; but if ye keep not My commandments, ye shall be cut off from My Presence."

By the fall of Adam were all cast out from the presence of God. For by partaking of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil did they become as God. For that knowledge did yield unto them that they should behold all that was good and all that was evil in themselves and around them. When they were sent forth from the Garden the Spirit of the Lord departed from them and they were given over to their own will to choose either to do good or to do evil. But even when they did good they were allowed to see within themselves the propensity to be drawn to do evil, for it was in their nature and it is in ours as well. The Lord has declared that it should be so in all men until the hour of His Visitation.

For by Moses was the law given that men might rightly divide truth and should seek to walk righteously before their Creator. By the law came forth no redemption, but only a knowledge of what God declared to be sin and a fearful expectation of judgement upon the unrighteous when Justice would descend to exact the punishments upon all who sought not the righteousness of God. All fell under the “ministration of condemnation” and were without hope, for Justice had a just claim upon them at the hour of His coming to purge all unrighteousness.

God saw the need for a sacrifice, one that was infinite and eternal, of atonement, that all might be freed of their falling short, and that mercy might be allowed to redeem all by grace that would repent of their iniquity. God, Himself, through His Son Jesus Christ, made that atonement. For man could not atone man; only God could deliver him from His wrath and allow God to be just in His determination. And to allow fallen man to be redeemed from the wrath of God for his disobedience unto the words of God, by which he had been cast out of His presence and righteously placed under the sentence of damnation.

By the death of Jesus could mercy claim those who repented, and by the atonement was the resurrection of man brought forth. Whereby those who repented would be born again of the Spirit of God and given the privilege of entering again into the presence of God. For those who would believe and accept Jesus’ atonement would be restored unto all the promises of Adam before he fell away, and was placed under the bondage of sin and it’s knowledge by which guilt came forth, and in shame he separated himself further from God. Yet his conscience was seared by the remembrance of all that he had lost by his disobedience.

Through Jesus was the avenue opened by which all might be renewed by the rebirth of His Spirit to again enter into the promise of eternal life and redemption with our Creator. This is the mystery that has caused division among the family of man since it’s inception. For only those born again, renewed unto the Spirit and presence of God were promised to come forth if they endured in that faith unto the end of all their flesh unto their salvation.

For thy flesh must be crucified that thy spirit might mature in grace by the guidance of the Holy Spirit, that all truth might enlighten you and restore unto you the gifts of God, yea, even eternal life. Until thy flesh and it’s desires are fully cast aside, the Spirit’s being reborn is thwarted in it’s being completed with thee that the promise might be fulfilled. Only those who seek in humility can behold that fulfillment and come into the enlightenment and understanding that the Spirit will impart, and that you can be fully restored before thy Creator, to enter in and live evermore in His presence and in His Kingdom.

Now can we see, having been enlightened by truth, that repentance opens and unlocks the door unto the resurrection of the Spirit of God [that is] being reborn within us who have crucified our flesh and died to the will of our fallen nature of man, so that we might in humility submit to the will of our Creator and be regenerated by His Holy Spirit unto the likeness of our Redeemer, Jesus Christ, that we might be transformed by that enlightenment [or renewing of our mind] to walk in spirit and in truth unto full illumination unto His glory, as that light is manifested in maturity and we receive the reward of eternal life by His being regenerated within us. For this is the light that was given unto the Gentiles and is the promise given unto Israel and the truth of the Living God evermore.

BLESSED ARE THEY...

Blessed are they who seek to hear the words of their Creator. And blessed are they if they do them. Blessed are they who seek to walk upon the King's Highway and to prepare themselves in spirit unto an holy calling. Blessed art thou, though the world hates you for your testimony of Me, and blessed shall your works be if ye do them as unto Me.

Blessed are ye when others criticize your hunger for Me and your joy when My words are found and ye do partake of them; for ye shall be filled to your joy, and they shall remain confounded. Blessed are ye if all men revile you for your stand in Me, and even when they persecute you for My sake, thinking they do Me good service.

Blessed is the heart open and seeking to receive revelation for it shall be filled with My Holy Light of Truth. And blessed are all they who open their ears to hear My words and to write them for the sake of their brethren, that they might be a light upon a hill which cannot be hid, but shineth in the darkness of your world, offering it's light unto all who would receive it to benefit from it. And blessed are all they who seek to bring forth My Zion in this day and to know the preciousness of all the truth it contains.

O blessed are they who know My will to do it, and they shall be followers of Me unto their complete transformation!

THE FULLNESS OF MY GOSPEL

And this commandeth the Father that I should say unto you: At the day when the Gentiles shall sin against My Gospel and reject the fullness of My Gospel and shall be lifted up in the pride of their hearts above all nations, and above all the people of the whole earth, and shall be filled with all manner of lying, and of deceits, and of mischiefs, and all manner of hypocrisy, and murders, and priestcrafts, and whoredoms, and of secret abominations; and if they shall do all those things and shall reject the fullness of My Gospel, behold saith the Father, I WILL BRING THE FULLNESS OF MY GOSPEL FROM AMONG THEM. And I will remember My covenant which I have made unto My people, O House of Israel, and I will bring My Gospel unto them. But if the Gentiles will repent and return unto Me, saith the Father, behold they shall be numbered among My people.

This is that day, My Children, yea, even the late hours thereof. For the Gentiles and all their churches that they have built up unto My Name, and all of their congregations who profess to be called by My Name are called, yea, even commanded by the Most High to decide if they will follow their Redeemer unto the fullness of His Gospel or whether they will cleave unto their shepherds that Bethel hath set over them and be deprived of the promise of My fullness being bestowed unto them. For ye cannot serve two masters. Either I, Jesus, am thy Redeemer and thy Shepherd or you are of the unrighteous, unholy House of Bethel.

My words have been testified and are being manifested anew unto those of the earth, to see who will answer My call to come forth and repent of the iniquity that Bethel hath clothed them in. Yea, that they might be washed and given new robes; yea, robes of righteousness, clean and white before their Creator evermore. This is the day of separation, that the “hearers” who will not listen to My words might be torn from the “doers” who obey in submission to their Father’s will. Yea, the wheat shall be harvested and the tares shall be burned in this hour of cleansing unto righteousness.

Those who will repent shall be gathered in a remnant, for they were given unto Me, Jesus, by My Father in this the end of this day. Together with Me shall My Holy Spirit wash and cleanse them in My regeneration. For the day doth declare, by My servant Amos, that in the day of My visitation upon the Gentiles Bethel shall be eternally destroyed along with all the evil spirits she has raised. For they are lukewarm and shall be spit out of My mouth, and shall not be partakers of My promise. For they want only in part; they walk only in part; they surrender only in part and will never enter into the fullness of My Gospel.

Those who are Mine are ALL Mine, and I am all theirs. They have followed Me through My regeneration process that they might be completed and gathered together with My other sheep that ye know not of, but My Father knows, and He shall gather together the remnants of the scattered sheep of Israel. Together those remnants are parts of My Body, My True Church, that I shall raise in this coming third day of My everlasting Gospel. The Bride readieth herself and the Bridegroom also. Those who are wise will understand and those who are lost in their iniquity will continue to be so until My Father shakes the earth and the heavens; then shall they know My words are true evermore.

Watchmen of Israel, watchmen of Joseph, sound the alarm among the congregations. Awaken as many as will be roused from their pews in Bethel, that the hour might be made known and that they might repent of their iniquity and be delivered unto the fullness of My promises and be bestowed with the fullness of My everlasting Gospel. Those who will not awaken leave alone, for they are lost in the spirit of slumber, yea, even the bewitched of Bethel. For the whore hath her own and they shall follow her whithersoever she goeth, even unto the depths of an everlasting hell promised unto her and her children of iniquity. Many shall be called but few shall be chosen in that hour, for the day shall declare it to be so. For My Father hath ordained that it be so, that purity might be birthed in the earth. My Father regardeth not the words that issue forth from the mouths of men. He is a faithful and righteous Judge and knows all things about all that He hath created. He, by the Holy Spirit, searcheth the whole earth and reads the hearts of all to see how they regard the words He hath spoken through His anointed prophets, both those known in print and those He hath hidden; all, past and present. For thy Creator does still speak unto those who are listening and of all that ye hath heard, that ye shall to be judged on as to whether ye received in fullness or if ye rejected, holding only to part of what He hath spoken.

Ye shall be judged if ye contented with His words coming forth. Those who contend with the working of the Holy Spirit are not Mine, saith Jesus, nor are they My Father’s and they shall not reap an everlasting reward in the harvest. Ponder and pray that the Holy Spirit should reveal unto thee where thou art at fault and REPENT. Harden not thy hearts, nor mock or discount this warning or when ye least expect it, swift and sudden destruction will befall thee! Selah!

RETURN UNTO ME, O MY PEOPLE

O My people, return unto Me, thy Redeemer, that I might return unto thee! Repent that I might again heal and bless your lands and peace might be established in the hearts and souls of men. Come forth in humility before thy Creator and again do the first works of My former dispensation. Walk ye in the principles of My lesser light, that My Holy Spirit might prepare thee for the hour of My latter day dispensation. For only those who have been proven by My lesser light will be worthy and enabled to receive My new dispensation, and to walk in the power of that greater light that shall come upon the earth; and shall gather together all the remnants of the hidden tribes of Israel with those of the Gentiles into one body and one purified testimony.

Repent ye of thy iniquity and be ye baptized in My Name that ye might receive a remission of your sins and be filled with the Holy Spirit, that ye might be numbered with My people who are of the House of Israel. Mercy shall be extended to those who return and My Holy Spirit shall impart understanding of thy great deliverance needful to the complete overthrow of fear, doubt, unbelief and the ending of contention and condemnation among those so purified. For they are those who have come to behold and to testify of My lesser light unto the fullness of that dispensation. They are those who have prepared themselves that they might be proven worthy of their calling, and that they might be rewarded as the Children of God. Yea, Sons and Daughters, unto whom My righteousness hath been recorded unto fruitfulness before their Creator. For by their willingness to overthrow the nature of that prior conflict and their submission unto the word of their Creator, and obedience unto His Holy Spirit are they delivered from the tormentor and the fulfillment of My first dispensation.

Unto them are the prior promises given as a reward so that they might be graduated unto the dispensation of My greater light that they might be taught the principles of that second dispensation. By grace and mercy being multiplied unto and within them shall they advance unto My new day. In the hour of that deliverance shall he who sought to sift them be sifted from their midst evermore, never again to torment or disrupt the peace that My Holy Spirit hath established and bestowed unto them. For the latter shall not regard the former, nor shall it be bounded by unfruitful though that priorly kept them bounded and unable to receive the fullness of My Gospel. For all in that day be of one accord, be of one covenant, and heirs unto one promise; for the word of their Creator hath brought it to pass within all of their remnants by the fulfilling of all prior covenants and promises, by their deliverance having been manifested unto them and having brought them into this purified assembly. Through them shall the New Jerusalem Covenant be secured, even the everlasting covenant which is the fruit of the principles of My greater light, and those truths being planted within them unto a joyous harvest. Then shall My greater light achieve it's fullness in the completion of My Gospel unto them and unto their seed at the dawning of an eternal day and the fullness of the glory of their Creator.

11-8-96      WW

THE SEALING OF MY REMNANTS

First shall My Holy Spirit gather together those of the remnant of the promises that I, thy God, made unto Melchizedek. They shall be My Sons and Daughters of deliverance. For by their lineage of promise they are not recorded among those remnants of restoration that shall come forth of Adam's seed. In them can My glory be planted and rooted within the completed body, and they shall be My instruments of preparation that the Bride might be readied, purified in completeness until the transfiguration of illumination hath been bestowed upon those of that body. For the Bridegroom, thy Redeemer, hath been prepared unto that glory, and they will be equal in glory and in manifestation of light at that heavenly celebration, to the sealing of My everlasting covenant and blessing of both evermore.

My Holy Spirit seeks to and fro, sealing unto Me those of the remnants and the hour is nigh, even at the door, that all should be completed according to My Eternal Plan. For I am the Author and the Finisher of all things, and of all peoples, and of all nations that My glory might be magnified in the light of My presence. I have sealed unto Myself words of promise and books of deliverance and reserved them unto the hour that My faithful servants shall be given the authorization that they might be imparted and revealed. In them are the answers of all the mysteries that I AM. For those who know My Son, their Redeemer, in His fullness shall also come to know Me, their God, in the completed fullness of all that I contain, that we may become one, even as I, My Son and My Holy Spirit are one evermore.

The Ark of My Testimony shall be given unto that unified body, and the "Living Testimony" of all truth shall be unto them My Everlasting Covenant; that we may become as one. For in this latter day dispensation shall all be given to behold Me in the fullness of My Glory, and men shall be enlightened by the indwelling light that I AM and changed from mortal to immortal and given to eat of My Tree of Life; and to receive their reward, the promise of My Son, even everlasting life. Amen. Then shall those of the membership of that body be truly unto Me as a people; and I, their Creator, unto them their only God evermore.

RIGHTEOUS TO BE SAVED IN THE KINGDOM OF GOD

By the message I shall give unto My messenger shall the truth of My promises be restored unto those that I have hidden of the lineage of Joseph, and that message unto His remnant shall light a fire. For I shall light My "two candlesticks" and their oil shall travel and carry forth their trailing fire unto the lighting of the seven churches and the bestowing of the seven spirits of their God in the hearts of those who will hearken to His call.

For unto Joseph shall be given the keys to close the doors of all that be unfruitful unto heaven and earth; and to open the doors of all that hath been sealed and unknown, that the fruits of the harvest might be expanded unto the completeness of the glory of their Creator; and the fullness of their Redeemer, even Jesus, becoming manifest unto the Gentiles and unto Israel.

Those who will hear their words shall be given understanding and will receive the fullness of the Gospel of their Redeemer, but those who receive not the light of My candlesticks are those who have rejected their Redeemer's promise and have denied their Creator His rightful authority, and they shall evermore be cast from His presence and shall not receive the fullness of the promise, nor shall they hear the fullness of their Redeemer's Gospel. For the two candlesticks shall speak by the authority of He who created them, that thy Creator may be established in truth, and thy Redeemer be heard within the earth, that His Gospel might be completed unto forgiveness evermore in the fullness of promise.

For the light of His faithfulness shall fill the earth; as the waters of the sea shall that light spread forth in truth unto all who will receive it. But if the children of men come against that light and receive it not, preferring to hearken unto darkness, then sudden and swift shall damnation sweep the land of all that would rise up in rebellion before their Creator, even until none, save the remnants He hath reserved should be saved from that destruction. For He shall roll the heavens and earth as a scroll and shall close unto them His Mercy until Justice hath purified all.

For all who deny the power of God shall behold it as His anger is unleashed and unrestrained; and it shall overtake the disobedient. Those who choose not to walk with Him and receive His friendship shall be taken in their unbelief and their iniquity and cast as untimely figs, that they shall not ever be remembered or work their unrighteousness of that rebellion, for they shall not stand in the hour that His anger issues forth in the midst of their lands.

For the righteousness of the Lord shall be established in the whole of the earth in the new day that dawneth. Only those who He delivers shall behold that day. For He shall separate all unto their rewards, either to damnation or unto restoration. No government, no organization and no peoples shall stay His hand, for the day doth declare it to be so.

THE WORDS OF GOD

The words of God have been given unto all men that they might be judged according to their inclination within their hearts, either to receive or reject; to accept or to dispute; to hearken to or to deafen unto those words. For those words shall stand evermore as a hammer, even a rod of iron, that shall break the hardened vessels and shall roll their pieces to powder to be blown by the wind of the Eternal, the Holy Spirit, that they be remembered not. For unto the disobedient and the hardened are the words of God folly, myth and superstition not worthy to be regarded or even mentioned in their conversations. Out of their mouths do men speak that which they treasure in their hearts. The darkness of the mist hath come upon many so that they regard not things eternal, but are captured by the moment and by the pleasures of the time; and they seek not to redeem their hours unto the righteousness that shall prevail and endure eternally. Yea, even those truths contained in the words of God that were given thee.

For the humble and those who seek after truth are the words of God a fountain of Living water that brings life unto their desert lands and causes the seeds of truth to blossom and to flower unto a harvest of good fruit to sustain them in the light of the recorded promise. For their strength is in the strength of their Creator and by the Holy Spirit are they delivered from the mists of darkness in joy and thanksgiving. Their faith and their trust is in their Redeemer. For they know Him and submit to the workings of His Holy Spirit and receive understanding unto growth in the promises contained in His testimony. They carry those promises and His deliverance close in their hearts and are filled with joy and peace as they come to behold a greater impartation of truth having been expanded. For as a sponge they absorb the light of their Redeemer, and His Living Waters expand them by His presence inside their hearts. Their minds are ever drawn to behold His Love that issues forth in His joy being imparted through their testimony unto all they meet. They cannot contain their praise and thanksgiving for all He hath shown them, and daily are given fresh and new hope to carry them through the trials of their day.

They are brightened by the light of the witness of the Holy Spirit radiating within them so much so that their walk shows forth peace, joy and love into the darkness and they are quick to tell all what their God has done for them, and to exhort them in the fact that they, too, could be partakers of that promise of all that is contained within the word of God, which they might have been quick to dismiss in the past.

For the word of God is alive unto the children of light and death unto the children of darkness until the Holy Spirit leads them to a clearer understanding and revelation of the truths contained therein. Then shall they experience for themselves the rebirth of the Spirit of the goodness of God and the soundness of the grace of the Gospel.

For the witness of Christ shall minister by the children of the light unto the children of darkness and shall awaken them when My truth is spoken in love and not in condemnation or contention. For all want to be at peace, happy and will respond to love. Then shall light overtake the confusion, resentment and bitterness that had kept them bound in the darkness of deception of unbelief. For when life comes forth, all the folly, myth and superstitions are put aside and they can be delivered from their desire for that death.

MY WORD SHALL STAND

Unto the righteous remnant of Joseph; those delivered that they might not enter the Babylonian captivity with Israel; were the promises of truth delivered and faithfully recorded as to the conditions in these last days. For through the prophets did My Holy Spirit impart truth. For men have built unto themselves churches which are dedicated to “gainsaying” and denial, being built upon the compromise of iniquity and all unrighteousness, laced with the denial of a completed truth being delivered unto the congregations that convene in their darkness of uncompletedness. Those churches and those beliefs which accept not My complete witness shall not stand; for wherein they reject part of My Gospel and deny the Holy Spirit, they are overthrown.

My word shall stand. And I and My Father and the Holy Spirit witness that we are the same yesterday, today and forever. My Father hath declared that by the unbelief of those churches, they reject His leading and will not allow His Spirit to enter in and to impart His power so that they might be delivered by the truth and miracles that could be manifested. Thus does He declare that through the assembled remnants shall His power be brought forth. For His witness is eternal and complete; so shall it be evermore, even in this last day. For the initiation of My New Pentecost shall come forth and the gifts of the Holy Spirit shall again edify those remnants into one Body, one faith, one Christ; and return unto them that completed power which is of and by their Creator; and unto Him alone belongs all the glory.

OVERTURN, OVERTURN, OVERTURN!

Thus saith the Creator unto the Holy Spirit: Overturn, overturn, overturn; until all that be not purity be overturned. For I shall have a people who are cleansed of all iniquity and unrighteousness, that shall hearken only unto Me. Continue until all that man hath built is toppled and crushed to powder. Prepare ye the way that My remnants might be brought forth in humility to behold Me and to enter into My Presence, that I might impart unto them the fullness of My Son's Gospel, and bestow upon them His greater Light.

Gather together all that will not submit in willingness and cast them into the furnace of affliction, that they might be tried and their allegiance known, whether unto Me or unto My adversary. For I will not continue to entertain their contentions and their refusal to accept what I would bring forth. Go ye unto the churches that they have built, and gather Mine elect and restore them unto their proper remnants, that the completed Body might be assembled unto restoration; then burn the tares of deception with the fruits of their iniquity unto the complete elimination of darkness, that they might bear fruit of the lesser light. Those who will not hear or awaken cast away, they and their houses, so that My Holiness might be found in the hearts of the children of men.

For only those whom ye, My Spirit, hath tried and found worthy shall enter into My Presence. Separate the others unto the darkness. For those who will not come into the Light and be cleansed by that truth of the lesser light shall never behold the greater Light that is now to be bestowed.

RIPENING IN INIQUITY UNTO JUDGMENT

The word of the Lord was given unto the first inhabitants of the promised land, and that word was preserved by faithful servants. Unto all the inhabitants since man first walked upon this blessed land of promise, choice above all others, that we now refer to as the "Americas" were those prophecies given. He said that whatsoever nation or peoples should possess this promised land shall serve God, even the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob of Israel, or they shall be swept off of the land when the fullness of God's wrath shall come upon them; and that fullness of His wrath cometh upon them when they would be ripened in iniquity. So were His words unto the brother of Jared, and is, was an everlasting decree.

Those words were preserved for the Gentiles, who would later occupy these lands, so that they might hearken unto them and repent. Many nations has God brought upon this continent, and many nations has God swept from this land in judgement of their iniquity as it had ripened unto fullness. Yet does the Lord's promise stand; and ye, the present-day inhabitants, do tempt thy God by thy rapidly ripening iniquity unto fullness, to also be swept away in His judgement unless you acknowledge Him and truly repent. For He will not contend with you and your nation continually, nor will He disregard thy disobedience unto His commandments, but will cut thy time short and bring forth another nation of people, who in righteousness will occupy these lands. His word will stand and His promise is true evermore.

Those peoples occupying these lands, and all nations, shall come to the knowledge whereby they shall be endowed with the fullness of the power of God and become His people entirely, or they shall, in their indifference and unbelief, be overthrown by those same powers. For those who contend with God shall find God contending with them; and He shall tear thy ground from under you. It shall be rent until no place remains for you to stand and none remain who stand against Him.

Those of you who think to disregard the word of God given unto Jared's people because you don't know where they have been recorded, must come to see that because of the iniquity of thy forefathers, much has been deprived you of the truth that has been given unto thee, and leaves all to linger in doubt and unbelief of what is true. In either case, they are recorded in the Books of Heaven and will stand evermore, and all shall be evident when those books are opened; for surely they shall be, for the word of the Lord hath declared it to be so at the last days.

Those of you who worship after the traditional ways of men and cleave only unto the traditional words of God accepted by your nation will not be able to receive the record that God hath kept hidden from you concerning His covenants and promises unto the sons of men He put here throughout the passage of time.

Let it suffice to say that those who will not repent of their blindness shall never come to see until the Spirit of God restores unto them His completed vision, which shall shortly come forth unto all who will be obedient unto repentance.

BE NOT MOODY OR UNSETTLED

Moodiness and unsettledness is not of Me, but is from the temptations of the enemy upon the mind and heart that listens to angry and hostile thought suggestions. Behold, the reasonings that bring these things forth stem from evil imaginings, which impede My work and processes going forth. He or she that subjects themselves to moodiness will not know My peace till these things be offered up. For otherwise those thoughts build continually and are not addressed till an explosive outburst occurs.

Behold, be not moody nor unsettled in thy thoughts, for following the suggestions of thine enemy will only destroy you and all them which are around you. Saith the Most High, and comes not because of other's deeds that may not make you happy, but from thy bad reaction to other's deeds. Remember, thy peace is not contingent on other's deeds, but rather in thy own remaining offered up in all thy own heart and thoughts in a pure and clean conscience. Saith thy Lord.

Moodiness shows thou art yet swayed by the enemy, who desires that ye should be angry and sullen to the loss of peace of all. And it cannot be a part of that overcoming attitude that is at rest in Me no matter what happens. Steady thyself and thine emotions in Me. Control thy thoughts and keep them offered up to Me, else ye, too, will find that your molehill of "private" thoughts hath turned into a mountain of anger and contention.

Behold, no such attitude can even near coming into My Kingdom, for those thoughts defile all of the heart and the mind to the destroying of all thy peace. Therefore regard not evil or angry thoughts of others, even for My sake. And put from you every suggestion that is self-preservatory, or concerning your “rights”, which may be denied you. Know that for thy sakes I was denied every right that should have been Mine as a human, yet I complained not but submitted Myself to My Father, who judged righteously in all these matters, and gave up My rights, and did not fight for them that ye might have salvation. Ye must do the same.

Every attitude must be offered up to Me. And in giving it up, ye cease to dwell upon it, thus it ceases to cloud everything that you think with it’s own poisoness. Behold, offer up fully all thy unsettled and moody attitudes that they consume thee not, for unto Me doth judgement pertain, even for thyself and for others, and wherein you feel another has wronged thee, shall ye handle it yourself or shall ye commit it to He who judges all things rightly? So long as YE judge, ye judge wrongly in favor of your own side or view of things. Wherein I judge, I look at everything involved.

Carry not with thee hurt or angry thoughts to the defiling of thy temple. I say if ye could not refuse those thoughts till they have overwhelmed thee, then offer up ALL of that situation to Me, then totally walk away from it and refuse to think of it longer. Then I will handle it according to My righteous judgement and you won’t have to, according to your angry or hurt feelings. Selah.

Again, therefore, the choice must be made as to whether ye will be MY servant, and remain offered up in Me to the loss of all your supposed “rights”, or whether ye will be your own “enforcer” of your own rights, to the pushing and shoving of all around you for the sake of your own comfort or feelings.

For in many things ye all offend one another. But on the one hand, forgiveness is being continually applied so that peace might abound. (70 X 7) On the other hand, if forgiveness is not being applied then anger builds and it continues to build, destroying peace. Thus know wherein this attitude is harbored, My Spirit cannot reside, and self-will knocks aside My Holy Purpose to get it’s own revenge. Wherefore, Spirit is overthrown and “Self-Will” rules as king, to the judging and condemning of others in self-righteousness; and if allowed to continue, then also cometh the execution of thy own form of punishments, which I must then return upon your own head. Saith the Judge over all of you. Selah.

Once again, ye must decide whom ye will serve; Me or “Self”. And once again you must decide who you will let rule you; Me or “Self”. And if you give all your kingdom unto My dominion, all of self’s angry thoughts must be offered up, to the denying of them any further playing time in thy mind. For in word only does the subjection of thy kingdom within not come, but only by the literal throwing out of self’s reasons, by which peace can again be obtained.

Under the dominion of self, men ever go to war with one another. And think not that thy private thoughts are “private” or harmless. For they indeed wound others in spirit and defile thee. He that is angry with his brother can, is, and can be a murderer of him. Consider carefully My words, all ye My Children. For Satan stirs up the minds of men who will submit their thoughts to him, to anger and to condemning, and through this alliance his hellish evil magnetism swallows thee up and ye become a part of his forces. And to all who allow these influences to draw them, his hellish magnetism engulfs them till finally he orchestrates the anger and actions of everyone around you.

As I told thee, ye are golden links in My Chain of Salvation; if one of you by slothfulness and complacency allow yourself to be overcome and made weak, the chain is broken and cannot reach unto them who are in need of My salvation. Thus be not a part of the problem adding to the darkness of the world by joining forces with Satan's thought suggestors, but remain thou strong and steadfast in Me, allowing Me to handle thy grievances in all equity and fairness. Selah.

ARE YE "CAIN" OR "ABEL" WITHIN?

That which aligns itself with the beast of darkness of understanding is ready to fight with fists and feet and teeth and any carnal weapon it can find to defend what it calls it's "rights". But behold, that is Cain's nature, who is a murderer and a rebellious person from the beginning, against Me.

Wherein that which follows righteousness is constantly harassed and assailed but fights not back, neither renders railing accusation or threat, but forgives and forgets that peace may remain, committing himself and his future unto He who sees and judges righteously. Are you "Cain" or "Abel" within? Selah.

WILL YE BE MINE OR THE SERVANT OF SELF?

The enemy is about thee on every side. O ye little ones, run unto Me. Be not caught up in his game of insensitive thoughts of others. For maddening are his torments as he whispers lies in your ears to enflame you. Behold, dwell ye in peace, yet know that upon all who are weak in Me that he plays havoc with their undisciplined thoughts and unsubmitted emotions; and sets his plow deep to plow and to rend the righteous. There is but one place of safety for thee, that is dwelling at My Feet. And only one way to dispel his tormenting thought-suggestions, by immersing thyself in praise. For praise shall lift thee above that dunghill and maketh thee open to MY Eternal Strength. For what strength have ye but Mine? And what will will-power avail you but weakness?

Therefore stand steadfast in Me and know that there be incoming enemy fire. Thus be armored in My armor, else ye shall be hit, and once wounded, ye shall then succumb to his design and begin to wound others under the dictates of self-will's orders and suggestions to you. Even so, heed Me. Amen.

To constantly draw you unto his distraction is to destroy thy peace, so as to destroy all My work that is to come forth; yea, even My testimony against him. Behold, My Children, let not his distracting captivate your attention, nor cause you to captivate others by your emotional instability that he wants to use to distract others. If by distraction he can hinder My work coming forth, then has he fulfilled his desire and useth you to do it. Be not a useful tool in his hand but be MY servant, and MY SERVANT ONLY. Saith thy Commander.

BE NOT UNDER ENEMY INFLUENCE

The world of battle begins in the minds of each of thee, in either the submission of thy thought-powers to the subverting influence of hellish evil magnetism, or of the calming submission of these things unto My Feet, which crushes that rebellion at its inception in thee. I say not that ye will never be overcome by the thoughts and sensations piled upon you by others, but that you, in all these cases, submit yourselves unto Me for My righteous judgement of you. For what others say and think of you sways not My judgement of you, but what you say or think of those others in your retaliation against them I do also judge you for. Know that I hid not My face from shame and disgrace, nor the spitting of others, but submitted Myself always unto He who judgest righteously in all these matters and remained at peace.

For the enemy shall hurl many accusations at thee to rile thee to the loss of your peace, and to get you to rise up in defense with your own weapon drawn. But this is to the further loss of peace of and by all. Therefore consider not thy thoughts to be thy own, nor “private”, thus “undamaging”. For the weapon ye wield in spirit is as sharp as any carnal weapon, and your aim as true with your own thought-daggers as any expert knifeman. Thus heed yourselves, every one of you, that ye become not a casualty of your own unsubmitted thought-life, to the wounding of your brethren for whom also I died, and to the destroying of all My work.

For the enemy’s threats I regard not, knowing him to be a liar from the beginning, and yea, the father of lies. Be not his unwitting pawn to the destruction of the peace I have given, but submit thyself to Me, that his work stops at thee and goes no further in its destructive purpose. It is according to the willingness of every man as to whether he will be useful to Me in dispelling and quelling enemy assaults by putting an end to evil’s progression in his own thought-yard, or whether he will allow those things suggested to him to grow unto a climax of evil intent inside him, thus making him a part of the enemy’s forces and throwing his weight and weapon unto the enemy’s side or benefit.

I say such characters who allow themselves to be so used by the enemy to be inflamed to the wounding of others or to the disruption of the peace and thus the disruption of all My work by these distractions shall be left as a prisoner of war in the enemy’s camp and deserted by Me. For I will have no two-faced individuals in My army, nor any that routinely allow themselves to be distracted by enemy taunts due to their undisciplined thought life. For Satan will pile upon you all he can to make you a thorn in My side and in the side, the back and the heart of them who fight for My side. Thus cast away shall ye undisciplined ones be, and shall never receive any good from Me.

Remember that in Judas, Satan found suitable growing grounds that he might sow his seeds of dissension; and if ye think he cannot do this to thee as well, then are ye deceiving your own self. For he who allows his thoughts to be led by Satan will soon be overwhelmed by him in all his mind and heart, to the destroying of all My work. Thus heed thyself always, and submit thy thoughts unto Me.

Wilt thou have solid stableness in Me or will thou let thyself be as a boat unanchored in Me, tossed and blown about by every gust of controversy whispered in your ear by the enemy? Which will ye have? For ye will either be My servant or the servant of self, who says your thoughts are your own business and “right”, and that you will be angry if you want to be, to the joining of Satan’s hosts, becoming a persecutor of My righteous, even as Saul was. Choose ye this day, and take not My Name if ye will serve self or in other words, Satan.

The discipline of the holy ones of My group of warriors includes their disciplining of all their thoughts, and the offering up of all that troubles them unto My holy dictation. Thus those undisciplined ones cannot consider themselves as faithful warriors, but rather "A.W.O.L." (Absent without leave) individuals, caught and stung by the poisoned darts, arrows and spears of the enemy camp. And in the not submitting of their woundedness to Me seek to stab at those My servants around them.

Know thou, My servants, that thy roarings in insolence do not make Me pity thee, but rather to look disdainfully upon thee as a potential enemy to Me. Thus thy anger at My words should show unto thee that ye are become under the influence of enemy powers and needest to recover thyself from the enemy's warrings within thee; else thou shalt be wholly overthrown in thy will, and can from henceforth not be used of Me nor included in My forces, but shall have to be cast out as a subversive influence. Heed My warning and be wise or suffer My consequences upon thee, even expulsion from My forces altogether, to thine own destruction. And wherein thou dost cause disquieting unto My group meeting I shall disquiet thee and remove My group far from your influence, that My work can proceed unhindered by you. Thus in quietness and in My peace contain ye yourselves, and give not thy thoughts, and thus your days, to the enemy's requiting upon you, thus in you and thus from you upon My others to their disquieting, because of your acceptance of the enemy's ways. For your words and works thus becoming his, ye will destroy and disquiet all around you in the heat of your own frustration. I say do it not, lest My own requiting fall upon you. Saith the Most High. My warning comes first; then expulsion is next if ye will not heed Me, saith the Eternal. Shall ye receive a blessing or a cursing from Me in this hour? Saith the Lord.

OBTAINING FAITH

Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things unseen. By faith the worlds were formed. Women had their dead raised unto them through faith. Through faith Abraham received strength to produce seed at an hundred years old, and Sarah to bear a child in her womb at ninety-nine.

By faith lions and bears were slain single-handedly, and subdued, as with Daniel, in lion's dens. Through fires and great waters men were protected by their faith.

By faith Elijah prayed for no rain to come on the disobedient, and it rained not for the space of 3 years and 6 months. By faith he wrapped his mantle together and smote the waters of the Jordan, so that he went over dryshod. By faith he raised the widow's son; and by faith he spoke of her supplies not running out, so they didn't.

By faith Jesus walked on water. So did Peter, till he reasoned that water couldn't hold a man up; then as doubt piled upon doubt, he began to sink.

Command the elements, and believe they will obey you. But only if your desires are righteous will they obey you. For faith does not throw it's weight around, nor does it show off for others in order to appear to be somewhat.

Faith is a spiritual currency, and is between you and your God; and to the extent you can believe in Him being and acting and speaking in you, then you can embrace the fact that faith-power dwells in you, so that what ye ask in My Name I shall do it for you, if ye ask not amiss, to consume it upon your lusts. For power spoils a man, and makes him change. This must not be so with thee, but in all humility remain My servant (not the servant of men) and I will be with you in all things.

FAITH, HOPE, CHARITY

My Children, O that I might be completed within you in maturity and that you would grow in FAITH, HOPE and CHARITY towards one another!

FAITH is the power to believe that God hears and does for His people according to the richness or leanness of their belief that He can accomplish all things.

HOPE is the power to believe that God will answer the cry of your heart if your request is righteous and not self-serving before Him.

CHARITY is the manifested selfless love that puts aside your own needs and desires and sees a greater need within your brother or sister and according to your abundance seeks to satisfy that need so that both you and they are blessed by what I have bestowed upon you.

In My people there are not many who truly have faith, for only those who know Me in an intimate way dare to venture forth so that their faith might be exposed. For many are afraid and are shackled in unbelief that I could act in their behalf even to the working of miracles, that I might be glorified, and their faith having been exercised could be encouraged, unto an even greater faith, whereby I could bestow upon them My greater blessings. Simply put, if you believe I can, then does faith bear fruit; and if you don't believe I would, then is faith uncompleted. I would that all would exercise their faith and become mature in their proficiency of that working within their walk so that their belief would be strong.

For too many of My Children, once they have acted in faith, have not learned patience to wait upon Me to act and quickly they lose hope and begin to despair in doubt and unbelief that I hear them or would act in their behalf. To all who pray the prayer of faith in humility I will answer according to My will and in My good time. For I said that you would be given what you need in the hour that it is required. Too many want it given weeks or months before it is really required; and when their answer comes not according to their desire they throw up their hands and walk away and deprive themselves of peace in Me and the gift I would graciously bestow had they shown patience to endure unto the end.

Too many of My Children think that charity is giving of their monies unto organizations to be distributed unto the needy; but I, thy Redeemer, say that it is much more. It is the gift of everlasting love, the ability to care enough to put your plans aside and to minister My love one to another. It is coming before Me that I might be allowed to use you to witness truth, that I might advise or encourage one who has need of My friendship and the love of the message My Holy Spirit could impart unto them through those truly willing vessels who will listen and not preach to My Children. It is not enough to say "I will pray for you". For My disciples are those who will unite with one another to shoulder their burden and allow the Body to unite as one; by this are all edified and that Body strengthened in Me.

Come before Me, My Children, in all humility of heart and pray unto Me unceasingly that My Holy Spirit could be given the opportunity to impart unto you My greater FAITH, HOPE and CHARITY, and that you might come to learn the witness of the depths and to gain the maturity of that growth, and to employ it in your walk so that My glory might be magnified through you evermore. For I declare unto you that except you have FAITH you cannot be saved in the Kingdom; neither can ye be saved in the Kingdom except you have HOPE; nor can you enter the Kingdom unless you exercise CHARITY towards one another.

I WAIL FOR THEE, AMERICA

Thus saith the Lord: O that Mine head were a fountain of waters, that Mine eyes could run down continually for the loss of the daughter of My people! Who say they have eyes, yet cannot see My Truth; and say they have ears to hear but will not obey My voice! And what shall I now do with these people? For they are good for nothing, as salt having lost it's savor, but to be cast away, and the burden of it removed from being before Me.

Night and day do I wail for thee, America, land of the supposed "free". Land of rights and prejudices to a ridiculous degree. Impudent children who never grow up nor put away their childish selfishness. I have looked long and beheld your conduct, O ye who call yourselves Mine. O that you had listened to Me, then would thy peace have been like a river flowing, but ye would not! O that thy time and efforts to learn ways to "evangelize the lost" could have been in counsel with Me concerning what I would have had you do, then would ye have been successful in thy endeavors and so many of My people would not have become lost! For their minds being exercised in your rituals, "knowledge" and "works" now become their gods, and the printed page of old words their authority to worship, but their eyes and minds are blinded to Me, the Creator of all.

O that I might sift from among you all that are Dathan and Korah to Me! And that the daughter of My people might regain themselves in Me! That they might hear and follow My Voice! For from sunrise even unto sunset would I lead them as a flock, and set My Name upon them forever.

But what have the robbers of My people done to them? They have said; "Follow us; we will show you the way!" and led them into broad roads that led them to their palaces, where they treated them with their own presence and wisdom of words for a season and called that "getting to know God". Yet My people cannot see, do not know, cannot understand that these robbers are sons of perdition among My people and that they have set themselves up for gain and fame, not as the humble disciples of Christ, who would not dare steal My glory. But whereas My plants that I planted at the first were good plants, why now do I receive wild and bitter fruit of them in My harvest? For upon thee, O Christendom, who callest thyself Mine, is nothing but evil and bitter fruit. And O yes, ye deck yourself as a fruitful garden. I say for who? The birds? For My people are being poisoned by the eating of your fruits.

Behold, what shall I do with My people, and why yield they such insensitivity unto Me, their God? And where is the bill of My divorcement against them, that I may put them far from Me? For I desire to see fidelity or else I do not want to see them at all. I hate, I despise this lukewarmness that is before Me!

Thus overturn ye all of this people, for in them is rottenness and no good. Plow it under and begin again, that perhaps some good might come from the ground being replanted. I will plant Me quick harvesting plants and I will attempt to yet harvest something. Sow My seeds in the highways and hedges and bring hither the interested unto Me. For I will not choose them that boast in Me yet choose their idolatries before My face. I cannot use those immature thorns and briars for My work. Nay, take the homeless, take the poor and the ignorant unlearned, the lowly drunk or drug addict who is willing to hear what I have to say, and I will open their eyes and cause them to see Me as their Creator, and cause them to hear My words and come forth. But there is nothing I can do about thee, Christendom, except tear you down, and deliver only them that will cry unto Me about your lifelessness and abominations. Children of hell; Children of lesser gods than Me, distracted from serving their God they have become the rotten and evil fruits of men's labor. And are good for nothing but to plow under.

Behold, America shall be plowed as a field, and all these unrighteous, unholy, bitter and wild plants shall be turned under, that the land may be suitable for replanting. And ye, O Christian nation, goeth into the heat of My furnace that ye no longer cumber the ground. For I will have Me a pure remnant or I will have no remnant of thee, O America. Heed Me well.

I HAVE A TITHE OF ALL NATIONS

My Children, the prophets of old foretold that in the last days the love of many would wax cold and that iniquity would abound in the denial of truth. For each would tire of hearing and would be left as if they were blind. Look around you and in the midst of the congregations; even in dispute is the truth concerning whether thy God be alive or if He be dead. If thy God be dead it is because of your denial that the people are lost in the iniquity of doubt and captured by the deception of unbelief. For centuries now have the churches taught that the power of God "was for another time" and in this generation that He performs not miracles. Another deception of their finite gospels is that the power of Pentecost that was given by the Holy Spirit was "only for the disciples" days and is not "for this present day". By such prevailing thought did the adversary overthrow many and deprive all of the fullness of My Everlasting Gospel, yea, even to the preventing of it's coming forth; for by unbelief there be none in the theology of men or in the great assemblies to receive what was meant to be imparted unto all for the edification of the Body. Men, by their own reasoning, have prevented truth and promise from having come forth unto the blessed harvest that thy Creator had intended.

Thus saith the Lord unto His people: I will have and have preserved unto Myself a tithe of all nations and of all peoples. Together shall they be gathered and My Holy Spirit will bring them forth by the Spirit of Prophecy (which is the Spirit of Jesus) and by the Spirit of Revelation (which are the complete words of thy God) that the gathered tithe, the remnants, shall walk in Me and in the fullness of My power. For indeed thy Creator is alive and thy Redeemer is also evermore; and that truth shall be manifested by and within that Body.

For I, thy Creator, have preserved this tithe unto Me alone, and I have chosen them who shall be revealed. They were predestined and pre-ordained unto Me and My purposes alone. Likened unto the seven thousand who had not bowed their knee to Baal, they have not entangled themselves in the present day deceptions, nor are they stained by the iniquity of the present day unrighteousness. My Holy Spirit alone is raising them up and they are hidden in the safety of My wings, beholding only Me and My leading. For My people shall be free, nor shall they be bounded by the unbelief of the teachings being brought forth in the midst of the congregations of thy men lord's solemn assemblies.

My power is upon them that they might see the truth of righteousness and always choose it over iniquity; for My Holy Spirit within them reveals what is not apparent and is not evident to those who walk not in the purity of My light shining forth. Their testimony is one of beholding Me in humility and of deliverance by the power of My Love. Their faith is the fruit of an intimate indwelling of My Son, Jesus, within their hearts and minds, and none shall pluck them from My hand or stand against My purposes and will being accomplished within them in the hour that I shall bring them forth. For My "Living Testimony" is among them to guide them, and that testimony shall be as a wrecking ball unto the leaders of the faithless church. Many shall behold My power coming forth and shall be rescued by their witnessing of My miracles, and shall leave the darkness of unfulfillment and deception. For in My people shall the light of truth shine brightly, and many will be restored unto their hope in that hour, for the witness of My hand working within My tithe shall manifest it unto them; and the lost sheep of the House of Israel shall be drawn to the call of their True Shepherd and shall return to Me, Jesus, their Messiah.

A magnificent work shall I, thy Creator, bring forth in the day of the gathering of My tithe of righteousness from among the nations and the people. None shall now know or perceive the heights and the depths of My power until that hour. As with Moses, I shall through them manifest things which no man could bring forth. As with Elijah, I shall manifest through them no fear of man or of their gods, that all unrighteousness and iniquity shall be overthrown and completely shattered by My hand. For I have declared it to be so and it shall come to pass that all nations, all governments, all peoples, all kindreds and all tongues shall see that the "I AM of old" is alive and well and still does miracles to confound and to redeem all of their doubt and unbelief. Then will all confess and bow before their Creator's power and know the love of their Redeemer that hath saved them. For My Son shall be the Lord of all and unto all shall the hour of their salvation be evident; by My Holy Spirit shall they come to repentance and flee the darkness for the Light.

JUDGE NOT; CONDEMN NOT

O behold thou, My Children, and know that it is not what ye do, as in habits, that defiles thee before My face, but how ye treat your fellow-man that makes My decision about you. For every generation hath had it's ways and it's habits that it's religious ones despised and railed against. And ye have yours. But can't you see that the bitterness of condemnation in a spirit of haughtiness and pride and in hatred of thy fellow-man is worse defiling in any of you than the silly vices ye all condemn? Where is thy love for thy brother man? And are ye not quick to look for and find fault, that you may disregard My words unto you through My Chosen? And what of this sin of judging and condemning others in thy self-righteous attitude? Behold and know that unto Me and Me alone all such judgements are committed, and take heed to thyself, lest I make thee to walk in thy brother's shoes, whom thou hast condemned for to learn a lesson not to condemn anyone any longer.

Learn that ye are all brethren and that ye have no right to judge another for their deeds before Me, their God. And before you criticize, take a good long look at your own works and thoughts of darkness. For I am beholding many who are looking in disgust and in the darkness of judging and condemnation upon others, which darkens thine own hearts before Me. And know that would ye but LOVE your brethren as I told you, that ye would have no time for judging them. But behold, ye regard not thine own condition, but the condition of weakness of others that ye might appear stronger in thine own mind. And this is pure deceitfulness in thine heart before Me. Saith the Lord.

Therefore condemn not; judge not thy brother in contempt, but commit all unto He who sees and judgest righteously all men in fairness, that ye be not defiled by your own inner condemnation to the ruining of all thy walk before Me. And remember to LOVE ONE ANOTHER; so shall ye be My disciples and remain in humility, able to lift up thy brother instead of tearing him down within.

The grosser sin of judging and condemnation defileth My people more than any outward vice or habit. Thus did I seek to see and be friends with the poor, the publican and the harlot, who know no self righteous judging of others in self-determined acts of piety within themselves. For the others I could not help then; and still cannot help today.

JUDGE NOT, that ye be not judged by Me, saith thy Redeemer. Lest flesh get a hold on you that I cannot break you free from, and like Christendom's children, ye become a stench of self-righteousness before Me, which I cannot work with. Selah.

My Children, just and righteous is He that judgest thee, even all of thee. And ye would not that I judge thee in the criticalness that ye judge others, for if I did there would be none of you survive it. Consider it carefully, My people. There is nothing you can do worse than condemning thy brothers and sisters in your arrogance to the defiling of all your heart before Me. And can ye not see that this self-righteous arrogance and judging others was My main charge against the Pharisees? Behold, with them I could do nothing, and with ye who are their present-day counterpart, I can do nothing with you as well. Consider it carefully, looking within yourself this day.

As I begin every day anew with you, and you appreciate it, be also likewise unto your fellow man, giving them the chance to do better even as I do unto you. Let forgiveness pour forth and love and patience unto all if ye would that I would pour it forth upon you. Selah. For what ye do unto others must be done unto you again. Have ye not read in My Scriptures concerning this? To him that judges, judgement on him is returned. To him that self-righteously condemns does MY condemnation return upon. Think on these things, and do nothing unto thy brother man that ye would not have done upon yourself by ME. Selah, saith He that sees and rewards faithfully the harvest ye have sown, either good or evil.

The basest and weakest of men have I raised up in the past to do My work who are not defiled by this type condemnation of others to the complete overthrow of the supposedly “righteous” of that time. And I shall do this again, saith the Lord of TRUE RIGHTEOUSNESS. Selah and Amen.

And what seeds you sow shall grow unto an abundance of harvest unto thee, either of love upon you, or of condemnation from Me.

I AM THE TREE OF LIFE

In each of thee I began as only a tiny seed planted, and from it began a mighty plant, depending upon how you cherished and nourished it, your love and attention being the necessary nutrients to make this plant grow in you. In some I have grown large and tall. And in some I am not big at all, just a tiny little sprout. Nevertheless, I am the Tree of Life growing in you from the tiniest of seeds, yet know that by your love and desire for Me do I grow fast or slow. I get big and wide or I stay just small.

The fruit that I would grow upon My branches is Tree of Life fruit, yea, food for all; food for the soul; fruit of gladness and joy; yea, even good news.

Behold, to the extent that you nourish your love and desire for Me shall I grow taller in thee till thou art consumed in My mightiness. Any plant flourishes when you talk to it; so talk to Me a lot; then listen and I’ll talk back. For behold, I shall not be a silent type, nor a parasite upon you, but will fill you with joy as I flower and grow fruit that will one day be a glory to harvest.

Behold, Children, be not dismayed at the smallness of growth in you. I say, put some of your “Miracle-gro” time and attention plant food to Me and sing Me a song! Talk to Me and watch Me grow in thee! Says the Lord. I would fill all of your being with My branches and roots and fruits. Let us spend time together for ye know not what great things I would like to share with you. I am the Tree of Life; eat of Me and live forever.

Let go of thy hurts and lay hold of My iron rod of righteousness as a guide to find your way back to Me. I am always here next to you, but your sight is blinded by those things that upset and bother you. So take heart; be not troubled. Be at peace. Saith thy Redeemer.

FORGIVENESS? YES, EVEN FOR YOU

Praised be thy Holy Name! For in it is peace and solitude. For in your Name is blessings and mercy! I say unto you, My lost sheep who are alcoholics, who are heroin addicts, who are crack cocaine addicts; yes, even though you be prostitutes of the street, I offer unto you My forgiveness for all your sins. For this was why I died on the cross for you and all mankind. Whosoever accepts Me as Lord and Savior, yes, even such as you are.

I, Jesus the Lamb, am not as a marketplace with such hours as 9 to 5, to not be found before or after; or as a church, to be found only on Sundays; or as a T.V. program, to be with you only at 9 AM Central, 8 AM Eastern. I am everywhere, to be found anytime, to come to you anyplace; only ask and open your heart to Me, O lost ones. Give unto Me your hurts, your hatreds, your reasons for what you do, even if you don't know them; and I will give you peace and wholeness, the kind that you may have never known before.

Why do you hate yourself for what someone else has done to you when I love all of you regardless? Invite Me into your heart so I can give to you a second chance to live. Only I can give you freedom from needles, crack pipes, and miseries upon miseries with no end in sight. Only I, Jesus the Lamb, can give you a place out of the cold streets to sleep in peace at night; even as I do right now this moment. I feed those who hunger with no idea where their next meal will come from. Even now I heal broken limbs, restore lost sight, yes, even return life back to those who should be dead. Even as I did when I walked among you. I still do these things. Because I love you and before it is too late for you I wish to save you from yourself. Do not hate yourself so. For those of you who seek Me and accept Me I have prepared a place for you from all of man's condemnation; even your self guilt. Look not to when you next will be hurt or abused, but to when I come again, not with sadness or anger in your hearts, but with great joy and salutation.

Some may call you "street trash". Some may call you all manner of names. But remember, My Kingdom is not just for kings and queens and all royalty, for many of them will not see Paradise. But for even those of you who are downtrodden, oppressed by paths of self-destruction who think they have no hope. You have been lied to and fooled by the enemy; and I will speak to you the truth of life if you will listen.

Hear Me, O Lost Sheep, for the time grows short. I love all of you and remember O so well that when I died on the cross for your sins, I died also with a thief on either side of Me. Did I refuse them forgiveness? No, I did not. And when you ask of Me as they did, so will I not refuse you of forgiveness for your sins.

THY REDEMPTION DRAWETH NIGH

Blessed is the Name of the Lord! Blessed are they who come in the Name of the Lord; and blessed are they who now write of the Lord and His words. They shall go around the world like wildfire and ignite those candles that be waiting for their redemption.

Behold, thy redemption draweth nigh. Be not asleep, but awaken from your slumber and see your soon redemption. The heavens and the earth groan for this day as do those who ready themselves to partake of it.

I, the Lord, command those of My House to prepare for the soon coming battle. A battle that shall be won by My word and none other. Listen for yourself to My words coming forth. Seek no other counsel, but give yourself totally over to Me. Consider these things, My Beloved, for the day of judgement and My wrath soon approaches. Amen. Saith the Righteous Judge of all.

TRANSFIGURATION TIME COMETH!

The transfiguration process cometh; are ye ready for that bright a light? For all along, our meeting messages have led you unto Me, and into Me deeper and deeper until you and I are beginning to near the point of merging and becoming ONE. My Children, ye who are diligent and have remained attentive at My feet in humble adoration, will find yourselves prepared unto your lighting; yea, My Transfiguration process. For it is over a process of time now that as those “Coleman lanterns” I have been fitting you with wicks or “mantles” and getting you prepared and filled with My Holy Oil for the time of lighting. And that time is almost upon you. Ever remain diligent to keep your lanterns filled, for you know not the hour of My Fire’s coming to alight upon you.

Behold, ye precious virgins awaiting thy Bridegroom, behold and await My coming with joy, for soon ye must arise for My call, and with joy shall ye witness the lighting of an inner candle ye knew nothing about; yea, even thy own transfiguration, even as it was with Me on the holy mount.

Behold, Children, work I have to do; O so important work! Keep your lanterns full and be listening for My call to arise, for thy time truly is at hand for thy transforming!

YE HAVE MANY GODS

Out of the treasure of our heart do we speak and those things which hold our attention are the evidence of those treasures. Many are always available to watch their favorite team or to speak the praises of their favorite player, for that is their “god”. Many are always caught away by the business of their business, and unto them their labors become unto them a “god”. Some are drawn to ever be consumed by their riches and the enhancement and preservation of that abundant blessing; by their service unto these endeavors comes the bondage of that “god”. People worship many things that are temporal -- those things that pass away -- and forget to acknowledge the Lord that is eternal -- those things that will endure.

Even My Children who are called by My Name are drawn away. By the witness of their testimony are those things revealed. Many acknowledge the workings of their church, as if the church could save them. Others are always singing the praises of their pastor, but he is only a man and cannot redeem himself. Now can you see that I, your Redeemer, am ever subjected to having to take a back seat to the idols and gods that are prevalent in today’s society?

Those who are Mine are those who testify of Me. They lead all to My feet that they might be delivered. They call attention to the things I have done for them and could do for others within their lives. For My people know that I am alive within them, and to them I AM REAL, AN INTIMATE FRIEND that they can turn to when no one else cares to listen or to help in their time of need. My Voice, as spoken to them by My Holy Spirit, is a source of strength and direction to guide them through the darkness. My Light is ever around them and brings them joy. They know Me and I know them.

They see that the importance of the sport, or the athlete, or their business, or their riches, or their church, or their pastor, or any other god they could create pales and tarnishes into idolatry, and could never replace the relationship we -- they and I -- have developed. Our love for one another binds us together as One, and enables them to seek Me that they might find guidance to overcome.

No person or thing can, nor would they do for you what I, thy Redeemer, can and willingly do for those who seek Me in the fullness that I AM. Yet few be who take the time or expend the effort to cultivate that relationship for themselves. The things of the world hold them captive and they desire not to be freed from it's chains. Their idols have left them in unbelief that I am more than just a name, a "password" to gain entrance into Heaven somewhere down the road. Their church, which is their pride, is too busy expanding to truly acknowledge Me, that I might bless them with eternal truth. The pastor of which they are so proud is too busy with the business of the church or the co-ordination of activities to find time to seek Me for truth, and the members think everything is fine and that they are Mine. I, Jesus, am the one who is cast aside in the great swelling congregations.

I knock at their heart's doors, but they are not at home, but are lost in thought, paying homage to their particular god or planning some spectacular event that is wrapped in My Name. My Holy Spirit is ever seeking that He might reveal unto them My truth and My word, but they are on the phone engaged in gossip or speculation about another or are enticing another with the values or exploits of their god, ever issuing invitations for them to bow before it. Yet the congregations are blinded to the fact that they have cast Me from their hearts, and ever behold the teachings of their pastor as being of greater value. But without Me and My Holy Spirit there can be no eternal value to their convening or to their teachings, and to the acceptance of temporal conversations that can redeem no one. Selah.

See for yourself the conditions of your heart and the thoughts of your mind when viewed by thy Creator. My Holy Spirit can show unto you the truth of your iniquity and idolatry that you might be restored and bestowed with things eternal. And then you will come to know Me and to walk with Me and to become infilled with the "Living Christ" to be thy Friend evermore.

Those who are My friends are those who will come to My banquet and want to be guests in My Presence. Those who are bound by their trivial thoughts and works are those who will decline or ignore My invitation. They will make excuses at that hour so that they might spend time in worship of other gods, or in praise of their idols. By their fruits you shall know them; in silence you can hear them as they speak of the treasures of their hearts; evermore shall it be.

My friends are My sheep and they hear My Voice; no other will they acknowledge or bear witness unto. They shall answer the call at the hour of My visitation and open unto Me, and I shall open unto them. The others shall be left out at that hour; no matter how impressive their church or their pastor: for I, Jesus, am the only Shepherd over My flock.

HE GAVE YOU YOUR OWN CHOICE

Men's judgements of you matters little. It is God who judges all men, and Him ye must obey or disobey; and before Him must all men make their own decision. To Him alone do all men stand or fall, according to their own choice. Will you have His will in your life or will you pursue your own course according to your own reason and/or the dictates of others?

Spiritual guidance must come from Him for yourself, for all men are subject to reason and logic. Find His will for your own life your own self; then solidly decide what you will do. From henceforth know that He gave you your choice.

WHERE WILL YOU FLEE FROM JUSTICE?

The hour of thy transgression, O nations of the earth, is upon thee. For when thy fields of iniquity are overturned shall thy briars and thorns be plowed under and there shall be hunger in thy congregations. Because of thy iniquity is the earth defiled, for the people have transgressed the laws and changed the ordinances of thy God, and broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore shall the blessing be afar and the curse come knocking at thy door. Unto those who will not repent is their city of confusion broken; every house of thy congregations is shut up that no man may come in, for no truth can be found there and equity has departed, leaving you desolate. Thy great messages are now silent, for there are none to be found to hear them. There be none to praise the shepherds or to bring glory to their temples. For the fire of the Lord hath come upon thee to devour thy works of unrighteousness and has left you ashamed at His coming.

Then shall the people destroy their idols which were the glory of thy iniquities. They shall be broken up as chalkstones in thy temples; in thy groves and in thy holy places. For you have cast out the Spirit of the Lord and have preferred knowledge over wisdom and have deceived thy followers with your smooth words and slick promises, which were the fruits of thy vanity and imaginations; and have not sought unto the Lord nor the counsel of thy Redeemer until thy houses have become "Ichabod".

The earth is broken by thy iniquity; by unrighteousness is she moved; with heaviness does she move to and fro, drunken with the wine of thy deceitfulness and weary of thy deception. For the congregations have abhorred the light and have gathered themselves, yea, hid themselves in the shadows and the darkness. By compromise and complacency you have denied the everlasting covenant, and have not sought that it be renewed and extended. For you will not return unto the truths contained therein, but ye have sought unto other suitors and have left thy first Love, thy Bridegroom, alone at the wedding.

The flocks of the shepherds are scattered and there is none to gather them; for all thy shepherds are gathered in counsel with one another and haven't noticed where they have gone. They are under the slumber of their deception and dreaming of their own kingdoms. The true King shall not greet them with kindness, nor shall He behold them with mercy at His visitation. He shall hold the stewards accountable for their arrogance and their folly shall consume them at that hour. They have received the wages of their hire, but it shall not avail them anything, for they shall not be able to spend it, and it's curse shall be as a fire in their conscience that cannot be put out. For their hearts will not awaken, nor will it seek unto purity. They point at one another around the fires they have built, and blame one another for their failing. "For we only did what our leaders taught us and dared not find the will of the Lord for ourselves. Neither did we seek unto His Holy Spirit that we might behold the Light of His pure wisdom. Knowledge upon knowledge heaped upon us damnation. Our wickedness led us to seek riches, glory and fame and brought us into captivity.”

O Perverse generation, who shall rescue you? To whom will you flee that you might hide when Justice cometh to rightfully put His claim upon you? O that you had returned when mercy cried; O that you had repented and been spared so that you might have been cleansed and healed! For the Lord is faithful unto them that seek unto Him alone and is not slack concerning forgiveness. But you would not; you will not return. In your hearts you say,” maybe tomorrow we will seek Him and He shall hear us.” Know ye not that He shall come “as a thief in the night”, and the light of a new day is not promised to all, but only those who will seek Him and find Him before that hour shall be spared. Selah!

MY DESIRE IS TO SHEPHERD THEE

My Children, I do not wish to smite you in the snare of blindness your society hath put you in, but to recover as many of you, My lost sheep, as will return unto My Light. For My desire is to shepherd thee, My Creatures, not to punish you. But in revealing your condition of blind allegiance to a system that glorifies not thy Creator, but only the men that propagate their own theory and ideas of who I am and what I desire from thee, I desire to destroy thy captivity under their dominion and to free you by My words of truth and light, that ye may cease to serve the idols revered by your nation and come to serve the Living God, by which your deliverance shall come, and yea, the deliverance of My Creation. Ye stumble at My hard words and look upon your systems, loving that which ye have grown up in and thinking that certainly all of Christendom couldn't be wrong. I say unto thee, so thought all Israel in the day I came unto them, desiring to follow the leaders of that day. But did I not draw them away from all that tradition and ritual unto Me? And did I not counsel all to cease to worship the law and to focus on righteousness and humility before their Creator? Even as I acknowledged not the traditions of My earthly father but only the dictates of My Heavenly Father, unto My walking all alone, and under no dictation but His. And His Life and Truth was alive in Me, thus His love and peace were evident in Me, which all desired, yet stood apart from, gawking.

Beloveds, I came to save all men from themselves, and the darkness of Adam's sin that overshadowed them. Yet My way cannot be made evident under the reasonings, logic, teachings and dogmas of man's religion, which delivers no man. I say acknowledge the Lamb of God who came and died for the sins and blindness of all of you. And acknowledge His Lordship over all the traditions, doctrines and dogmas of your land.

If I say ye are blind and deaf and cannot see nor hear My words of Truth, then believe Me and accept My judgement upon you, so that you might humble yourself before Me to the removing of those scales of blindness from your eyes. For behold, I know better than you your spiritual condition, both individually and as a nation; and My Testimony against you is not to justify the destroying of all of you that I loved enough to die for, but to redeem you, whosoever will believe Me to the humbling of yourself before Me, to the revealing of even greater light and truth unto all them who indeed seek My truth and light.

Light equals “understanding”. And by understanding, greater light shall be bestowed so that My words of judgement need not to come forth. For upon those who rebel not but respond to Me in faith, grace and mercy are applied. But upon that which shakes it’s fist in My face and says, “Hell no, we won’t go!” I can reserve no more mercy and grace, but judgement only. For man doth surely seek to build a kingdom for Me after his own mind and reason. Behold, a defiled kingdom would he build unto Me, even one of His own darkened and defiled reason and wisdom, full of inequity and injustice. And have ye not already seen quite enough of this? Have ye not already suffered enough of this trash? And do not all of ye secretly hope that I am going to return to build a Kingdom of true everlasting peace, wherein all are judged and treated equally and none are trampled on any more? Behold, do not all of you seek one day to have a Kingdom where I rule and that ye no longer see the unequalness of man’s judgements? Behold, ye must then let Me make you to become worthy of inhabiting such a kingdom as I Myself would build among you. But first ye must each submit yourselves unto Me. For My Kingdom must come first within thee before I can consider you worthy of inhabiting My Kingdom of Peace to come. Before My Kingdom and rule on earth can come, thy kingdoms within must be submitted to My Kingship and cleansed by My Own specifications. For I say that there shall be none of the iniquity of the old leaven therein. Nor shall any defiled or defiling thoughts be allowed to destroy the place of peace.

Behold, the putrid and selfish loves of men cannot enter, but only “agape” Love, or in other words, a selfless, non-shaming, non condemning love, even a copy of that kind of love exhibited by thy Father who loves ALL His creatures, and desires that not one of them perish, but would that all would come to repentant humility before Him to receive His Love, instead of His judgement.

Be not deceived. That which shakes it’s fist in His face and will not submit to His Holy Ordinances He will not covenant with nor redeem, but will rather destroy, that peace might be found for those of His people who will reverence His words. And truly if ye humble yourselves unto the learning of His Truth, what it is, to the recognizing of His Divine Authority and Kingship over you, then ye will cease to set up leaders of men over you, and will have no king, nor shepherd, nor leader but Jesus Christ, who’s right it alone is to stand there. But that which will not submit to His leadership in this day must be crushed and deposed.

So hearken ye unto My words of truth and receive ye understanding; yea, even at My mouth. I raise up more prophets than just these, and they too shall speak both My words of justice and of mercy and love. JUSTICE unto that which will not repent, and MERCY AND LOVE unto that which will. And it must be that both sides are expressed, for in Me there is both love and mercy; yet also in Me there is Justice, and equity shall be established for the rest of My people who will follow Me and submit themselves unto My words of truth.

Seek to hear My Voice of words for yourselves, and have My words confirmed to you by My Holy Spirit. For only in this way can ye be sure of yourself that My words be true. I ENCOURAGE YOU to ask, seek and knock on your own, that thy blinders can be taken off, and the veils of darkness be removed, that ye too might see the Light of My Truth, and come to know My Love to the obedient, and My wrath unto all the proud rebellious.

Behold, what equity can be found in Christendom's numbers? What equity in Judaism? What equity can be found in Islam or any other of your fine religions or traditions? Your finest of "holy days" are defiled with inequities and your greatest of courts judges unrighteously, and ye all know it to be so. Thus why fight ye My way and words of truth, except ye love your own ways and reasoning and desire to hold on thereto and work towards perpetuating the trash that man has concocted and called "God"?

Behold, on your money it is written, "In God We Trust". I ask you, What God? Is your god that paper bill? Or all the paper bills in Fort Knox? Behold, all your paper gods are good for nothing and shall fail to deliver you in the day of My coming. Do you trust in your government? And in your elected officials? And what strength and unity can be found in them? Are they not all a bunch of cutthroats, extortioners and sordid persons, and are they not ever being caught by the media in their shady dealings to pad their pockets and to consume thy tax dollars upon their own lusts? And how can ye trust any of them? For ye see by their dirty campaigns how they lie to you and to each other. And so how can ye think to find any sort of stability in such as they are?

And do you place your trust in your churches? Yea, your clergy of your lands? And are they not being found corrupt and all in the pursuit of building their own kingdom creations, and do they not also fight against one another, each declaring that they have all the truth? And how can ye find stability and assurance in that? Behold, all their kingdoms are divided, and all thy allegiances to them. And that division and controversy makes them all weak and not united in their strength, thus their fall is imminent. For they are not based in Me, so shall all their kingdoms fall when I come forth now, in this day, to establish TRUE RIGHTEOUSNESS AND EQUITY among you who will submit to My Leadership.

Behold, I will blow upon all the kingdoms of men. And Mine eye shall separate that which be true from that which be false among all of you. My sifting process be severe, but can't you see that it must be so that I can find the "good wheat" among all the "tares" of your land? For the "tares" are good for nothing and lend no good to My Kingdom, but only evil. And down through time I have ever exposed that which was false and declared against it My judgement; and so I ever shall do. For the truth declarest always against the false; and the Light ever dispels the darkness upon it's entrance into the world. And whenever in the past I brought My Light into your world, through whomever it came, be it Noah, be it Elijah, be it David the King, or any of My prophets, that which was exposed as darkness ever rose up in great rebellion to put out that Light that exposed it, and it is the same today. So fight the Light that exposes the darkness of your world if you will remain part of that system of darkness. But realize that the darkness and all elements that are of it shall be destroyed, for My Light will indeed fill your world, and darkness will be dispelled out of it. And if it die screaming to be heard and followed, so let it. But I, thy Creator will be heard in this day. And My Truth will be seen regardless of thy fighting against it. Therefore align yourselves with the side that ye will. Cling to thy gods if ye think they can save you, but make clear thy decision to thyself and to Me that I may know how to deal with you. For I destroy the fence you've been sitting on, and know that lukewarmness and indecision will send you to the side of darkness, which you cling to. Therefore decide, for I am separating My Sheep from the goats all over your nation. And one day soon My Sheep will all stand up unto Me and that left sitting will My Testimony of Judgement rest upon. Thus My Justice shall then seize upon you, and destruction. I bid you to come unto Me, wherein is safety from that destruction I bring. But thy will being sovereign before Me, I seek for every one of you to decide once and for all what you will have. For My day is to try all ye works and words of man, to see what sort they are of. And if ye have deceived yourselves, will not the ashes of thy life testify that ye judged wrongly My words of Truth? Will ye be ashamed and obliterated in that hour because ye judged My words of truth unworthy of thy allegiance? I ask not thee to follow any man or group or denomination, but ME ONLY. Thus it is not like the Republican party vs. the Democrats, nor Protestants vs. the Catholics or this religion vs. that religion, but darkness vs. My Light of Truth that is dawning upon your nation. And in Me there is Justice and Mercy as two sides of the same coin. Know that what ye sow ye shall also reap, and that I am not deceived by thy mock worship. Thus come to Me and at My Feet reside, for it is the only sure place of safety as My Light and Sword of Truth is revealed across your nation.

And if you are fond of “Rev. So and So” then pray for him that his faith is strong enough in Me to deliver him from his darkness and blindness of religiosity, but do not follow him or any man, just in case they are ALL wrong. Selah. Saith He who IS “The Way”, “The Truth”, and “The Light”. My Holy Spirit shall reprove all your whole world of sin as I told you He would. Be not found fighting and speaking against Him in this last day.

THE JUDGEMENT BAR OF GOD

All must stand before the bar of God and be judged in the Court of the Most High, for all are under the indictment of Transgression (except Melchizedek) and are stained by the fall of Adam. To those who found mercy shall Christ, Himself be appointed by that Court to be their Defender, and He alone shall answer for them to the charges of the accuser of the brethren. Only the ordained and commissioned officers of that Court are permitted to entertain motions before the Righteous Judge of that Court.

No person, no book, no pastor, no priest, no pope, nor any king can answer for you, for you, alone shall be responsible before the Court for your actions and your words during your time of probation here on the earth. Only those who have repented and cried unto mercy shall have their charges dropped. For by the atonement of Jesus Christ are they forgiven, and freed from the righteous judgment of that Court. Unless He speaks in thy behalf you shall not be heard; for all that stands in contempt of God shall be eternally condemned and cast from His presence evermore. There shall be no appeals, for thy Creator’s decisions are final and just.

Beware of those who told thee that judgement has been passed and listen not to gospels of unrighteousness, for none shall petition the Court of the Most High except the officers of that Court, and they respect the sanctity of the bar of God by their silence. For every word that proceedeth out of the mouths of men shall be judged; every action against the servants of the Lord or denial of His Holy Spirit shall bring damnation upon thy soul. Only the mercy of thy Redeemer can deliver thee in that day. No amount of tithes paid or works done shall avail thee of anything, nor shall it redeem thee before that Court.

Salvation is not guaranteed by works or words of men. It is the gift of thy Creator, but all must follow the steps He hath ordained. Those who will not repent, be baptized and regenerated by the Holy Spirit shall be dismayed at the resurrection and the Judgement Seat Of God.

Those who think to contend with God will fall under contempt of Court. For the truth is that whoever will not accept His Gift of Salvation according to His word, and will not hearken unto the truth of the everlasting gospel to walk therein shall heap damnation upon their souls evermore. He shall look narrowly upon them and shall give unto them the fruits of their labors, for they have rejected the mercy of their Redeemer and shall be turned over to Justice. For only those who have followed Jesus through the regeneration are reborn of the Spirit of God and able to behold Him evermore. John 3:5

SEE AND KNOW AND JUDGE YOURSELF

Out of the heart the mouth speaks, and thus know ye your own heart by that ye speak most about, whether of money or possessions or jobs or things of this world. Examine thy gods of the heart and what ye are most concerned with; yea, listen to what your own mouths are saying and your minds are consumed most with and you will know. And know, Children, that for the most part, most of it is garbage; even a testimony against thee of the shallowness ye are within.

For listen, ye adults, to the conversation of teenagers, and how all their talk is light and frivolous, and how ye judge them to be childish and silly. Then listen carefully to thy friend's conversation and see ye where their heart is. Then also see the truth concerning your own hearts and thoughts, and see how all of them to Me might be frivolous, childish and silly, and thus repent. For the issues of life are not concerned with what happened or is about to happen on your favorite soap opera, neither on your best loved football or basketball games, nor what the stock-markets do, nor even upon the latest technology, whether of cars, planes, trains or computer upgrades. It deals not with the latest gag the politicians are pulling, but it deals in where you are walking with Me. For I hold your breath in My hand. And if you are caught up in the trivial garbage of today ye shall not see nor know what I am saying for you to do concerning it.

Now, you say that sort of stuff is reserved for Sundays at your church. But I say, Nay, it is for every day to know and witness, even all your walk and talk and manner of life before all men. Ye think I am hard on you and that I want to pry into your private affairs, to dictate all your life. I say, if ye let Me not into every area of your life I cannot help you cope, I cannot give you hope, nor can I protect you in My judgements to come. So what will you have of Me? Ye say Sundays from 9-12 pm is enough of Me for you? Then I say you won't make it. Then, you ask, will adding Sunday night and Wednesday night help? I say No again. For ye cannot put on and take off holy piety as a robe or a coat, but must wear it within. Can ye not see My Blood within your hearts that would cleanse you from all your dead works to serve the Living Christ? Behold, if thy religion is but an outer show, and thy talk of Me only incidental, know that thou hast taken My Name upon you in vain and that thou art an hypocrite and My judgement shall rest upon thee. Know thou that such as take My Name for vain show shall have the whole law (the Ten Commandments) resting upon and against them. For if ye observe that law to keep it, yet offend in one point of it, ye are judged by My Father guilty of all, by which Justice hath a righteous claim against you. However, if ye fall at My feet in humble repentance and seek to walk with Me, ye can be assured My mercy and grace will come forth upon you IF you are sincere before Me.

Cast all your cares upon Me. Not just some of them. And know the weights of the world that you love shall drag you down in the day you should be wishing to arise in Me. To the disobedient children I speak, who say their Bible is the only authority they will heed. I say then, good for you. I shall cease speaking and/or revealing to you anything. And My silence to you will one day become so deafening that you will one day scream for Me to speak to you, but I will not. For ye have despised My Voice that would both reveal and correct you unto yourself before you have to stand before My Father, the Judge of all. And therefore, ye will remain as you are in your ignorant blindness, yet from henceforth responsible for it, for ye despised My words of truth, yea, My words of mercy and grace unto thy unchanged heart.

And so, go ahead and rule yourself and decide what you will eat of all the dainties of Egypt, ye goats, and surely ye will be driven out of My Kingdom. Yes, your determination is your own concerning what you will have, but ye shall surely regret your decision to reject Me when Justice lays His claim on you. And surely then ye will beg for My mercy to be applied even unto you, but then I cannot, for the age of grace will have closed her doors against your cries for help.

Remember, as in the days of Noah, when all were busy with their own lives and parties and families and jobs and plans about retirement and the making of fortunes. They all mocked at the preaching of Noah, and his calling out for repentance, lest judgement should seize upon them. They mocked his building of that ark while he pleaded for them to come into it with him that they might be spared. And though he could have said nothing, and just said, "to hell with all of them!" My Spirit constrained him to speak and to warn all who would listen to the words of a seemingly foolish old man to prepare their hearts unto righteousness lest their God come forth in righteous judgements upon them and with a flood of waters overthrow them all. Once again My torrents of truth, as an overflowing flood, shall sweep your lands to the overthrow of all that is false, and to the subsequent sweeping of all darkness off these lands. For ye who will not follow Me in righteousness and truth I will not deliver at the last minute, even as I did not in Noah's day. And though I love you, I will not quarrel with you but will give unto thee thy desires, whether it means life to thee or death, both spiritually and physically. Thus to the just judgement of Justice go all ye revelers in your trivial things and ways and politics and religions. And to them who love My truth I will continue to pour it upon you. And them who love the darkness, ye shall see it to a degree that ye never have before, even to being taken over by it. Thus today I ask you to be honest with yourself to the exposing of your own heart to yourselves while change might be made. And ye who are diligent at applying your hearts unto My words will see grace and light coming forth upon you to your joy. But upon them who love darkness, greater darkness shall seize them.

Is it not best to prepare now? For there are many making their excuses to not attend My Wedding Feast. To you I say, fine, have your own way till ye vomit it. And to you I say, I will weep because of the choice ye have made. But for those who will come follow Me I call, that they may both hear and be aware that the time approaches, that they might be readied to enter in. And such as them who are obedient, I will not lay Justice upon. But such as are rebellious and hate My Light of Exposure, no mercy can be shown to them. Saith thy Redeemer.

My blood would cover all. Yet it is only by thy acceptance of My blood sacrifice, and thine own, walking with Me that ye can be saved by My atonement. Hence many claim to have accepted, but in word only. Know these are not accepted, but the “doers” of My word are accepted, to the loss of all the world to them, but the gaining of all My Kingdom. Selah.

REQUIREMENTS FOR TRANSFIGURATION

Only those who have followed Me, thy Redeemer, and have crucified thy flesh in humble submission and fullness of desire to be completed in My likeness by My Holy Spirit will come through the fiery trial that is the regeneration, and ascend their Mount of Transfiguration unto full illumination. Only by a full and complete dependance upon My Holy Spirit to the complete overthrow of all thy desires, all thy plans, all thy hopes of perfection, can any cross the threshold of purification and enter into the purity necessary to behold thy God.

Thy heart must be fully surrendered and thy mind freed of all that is worldly for you to behold My completed Heavenly vision. As the “prophecy of 1619” said: it is a fiery trial and few be that will be able to bear up under it. But I have declared that some shall overcome and enter into the fruition of that promise, even that they should not die, but would be changed from mortal into everlasting. Only purity exists in that realm; perfection falls short of beholding that manifestation before thy Creator. Only those who walk with Me and Me alone will travel the road, that narrow road, and enter the gate. Only by remaining stayed on Me and obedient unto My Holy Spirit shall you bear up and overcome the enemy’s assaults; for if your vision is not centered on being completed you will be overcome and lose hope along the way. But those who take each step of the journey one at a time, not worrying about the next or “how much further”, can overcome and complete the ascension unto illumination. The regeneration process is a gradual exposure to My greater light and the impartation of My greater gifts that you will be endowed with to do My greater works. Only as we -- (I, thy Redeemer, the Holy Spirit and you) are fully unified can this be accomplished. Many will tell you that you are crazy, but you must behold only Me. For if you follow them you will become as they are; but if you remain submitted in your resolve to follow Me then you can become as I AM. Daily My Holy Spirit must renew you with a greater measure of My strength that you might be endowed to endure and to remain vigilant in your obedience. For you must become as a leaf blown by the wind, caring not where you might land, but must allow My Holy Spirit to drive you and to fashion you according to My Father’s will. In your weakness of remaining submitted can that be accomplished. There can be no hint of compromise or of thy desire, or the fires will become hotter to melt away the hardness. All shreds of self or of doubt must be fully burned away. Only those who care not for reward or stature, thinking that they will be “something” will be completed. All others will fall away as the light becomes more intense. For if the last are to be the first, then you must ever remain in the lowest place and your attitudes, your walk and your witness must come to reflect that testimony.

Severe will be the testing; even as I was tested by those who spit upon Me to see if I would become angry, or those who tried Me in different ways to see if I would assert My rights and My powers. But I had to learn to forgive and to learn patience by allowing My Father to deal with them and so must you. For all power and all light is His and His alone; and in His proper time will all be revealed.

The regeneration is taxing, but necessary, that My Father's glory might be magnified and yours might be eliminated evermore. Great is He and faithful unto the completion of all who in purity and sincerity seek to be chosen unto His Higher calling; for you, too, can ascend your own Mount of Transfiguration, by faith unto completion.

FILL THY STOREHOUSE WITH MY STRENGTH

They who not avail themselves of My strength shall find they have none in the hour of their need. Store up My strength daily in the storehouse of thy heart; then with joy and satisfaction thou shalt draw out of it bountifully all the day long and glorify Me. But they who trust in their own strength shall find the storehouse empty, the well of joy dry and desolate; and no peace shall come in the hour of temptation or tribulation, but rather thine own roarings. What doth it profit you who trust in self, to say you have Me in your life if ye take no time to avail yourself of My help? And I cannot give you what ye ask not for, thus trust ye in your own salvation by the works and ways of flesh-self? They will fail you in the hour of thy trial, that is certain. Take not My Name upon you for vain show, but if ye will be Mine give thy life and thy future to Me. Hold My hand. For not by thy words shall ye be deemed Mine, but for thy actions and intent.

BE NOT DRUNKEN IN COMPLACENCY

To all I, thy Redeemer, speak these words to sober you from the drunkenness of complacency. If you are not walking in the fullness and stature of Me and are not purely manifesting the principles of My lesser light in your testimony, then you have fallen short of the prize of thy redemption and must press on to more fully understand the promise of thy salvation. Be not persuaded to accept anything less than all of Me, for My Holy Spirit makes that fullness available and possible to all who earnestly desire it's manifestation within them.

Complacency (believing you have enough of Me already) and indifference (not caring to seek that fullness) are like viruses unto your spiritual growth. Never accept or be led to only desire that which others find acceptable, for in this is the deception that leads to doubt and unbelief being planted in your thought garden. Continue in the race until I show you that fullness and illumination of all things. Only those who endure unto the end shall be saved; all others will accept less due to the iniquity of men's reasonings and their calling and election will be uncertain at the hour of My visitation.

Those who stand still are actually being eroded in their faith and will lose their desire to be completed in the fullness and stature that I AM. Be vigilant that ye be not deceived or detoured into not completing the race, that ye be not denied thy salvation.

NOT MANY WANT TO KNOW ME

The faith that pursues after Me, that it may KNOW Me is not found in many, even in the ranks of them that call themselves Mine or that say they love Me. They just haven't got the time to seek after Me, and think small doses of My words on Sundays will do them just fine. I say that a man must seek Me with ALL of his heart, that he might find Me – "Life", "Truth", "the Way". And except he do this he will not find Me to be his "All in all" nor "Lord" of his life. Though many proclaim proudly that "Jesus is Lord!" that is just a claim and a slogan. That is not a testimony of My Realness to or within them.

Behold, I shall have truth amongst My people, and they shall not deceive themselves or others, saying I am the Lord of their life when they but serve themselves. For surely I come to show them the difference. And that which obtains My Infinite Hand shall surely show unto that which hath not that they have believed amiss about themselves and others. And truly the Light upon them that HAVE obtained shall be so bright that others shall be greatly ashamed of their lack. Yet until the greatness of My Light hath been revealed upon and within them who have obtained My Hand of Blessing, no one shall see nor know the greatness of their lacking in My Holiness. For that which obtains shall show forth My great strength; and from their words shall many see Me in a brand new way. And until this happens, many shall not recover from their blindness. For they cannot see that they are blind and naked, spiritually speaking.

Behold, thus shall My obtainers become "deliverers" of My people, and are in ranks above them, even under My Command. Does this mean My obtainers will become lifted up in the pride and flattery tossed upon them by those under them? No. For My obtainers shall know of a surety where that light and power comes from, and that the wisdom is not theirs, but Mine acting through them. Thus they shall command all not to worship them or at their feet, but shall turn all their hearts unto Me and send them to MY Feet to also obtain even as they did. So it will be a changing of leaders and the subsequent opening of the eyes of the blind, but it shall cease to be for people to worship their brother man as they do at this day. For what is now, brings glory only unto man; and exalts only the wisdom, understanding, and superiority of man. But what cometh at the advent of My Greater Light shall show clearly unto all that they must worship and acknowledge only Me, and that none must make the mistake of worshiping man any more. And they who apply themselves to seeking Me shall obtain and find grace in My sight. But them who turn away and seek not, preferring to remain under their god-like leaders shall only find darkness and shall be ground to powder by My Greater Light. Selah.

The wisdom of thy Creator is given only to them who seek with all of their being, having fully died to self that My greater Life might be formed within them. All others shall grovel in understanding and in the light (which equals darkness) of their leaders of men. There shall be no disputing the difference between the sheep who follow only Me, and the goats who won't in the day of My Greater Light's appearing.

Behold, the day for this dawneth upon the nations, to the putting an end to this controversy; and forever shall it be from henceforth, for it shall be seen and known who are truly Mine and who are not. Selah. Upon all My Light shall be evident, either unto the blinding of all around them because of the brightness thereof, or of the darkness of their own character to their own shame.

LET NOT CONFUSION AND BLINDNESS REMAIN

O come, ye lost sheep, unto your True Shepherd; the One who loved you enough to die for you, who understands your many questions and your confusion over what is truth, and the way I see things. Behold, according to your interest I would pour out of My wisdom upon you and bring you forth unto pureness of knowledge and My wisdom of things pertaining to your world.

Behold, ye all have your questions, and because of them you are encircled by your confusion over what is truth. Were My true prophets to have been teaching you, ye would KNOW how to approach unto Me to learn the answer to these things ye see that bother you. But obviously, other than My True Ones have been teaching you, thus they leave you in confusion and apathy to all things pertaining to holiness.

Would you know truth? Pure and unadulterated by the ways and works of man? For behold, ye must come to the Pure Source if you would find the Pure Truth. Behold, I would pour out My Spirit upon you. I would make My words known unto you, would you but listen. Therefore, I say unto you, Come to Me; seek My wisdom, and ye will truly come to know Me and My way of wisdom. Otherwise your confusion and blindness will remain.

COVENANTS AND PROMISES

Many were the promises and the covenants of thy Creator unto those who were humbly submitted in their desire to behold Him and to do His will evermore. Those promises, both recorded and unwritten, and those covenants were everlasting unto them and those of their seed who sought to walk righteously before their Creator. By Adam did the genealogy of condemnation under the fall require atonement before they could receive the fullness of their promise. By Melchizedek was the genealogy of the restoration that received unknown promises which were sealed and reserved unto the Day of Redemption. By Abraham was the genealogy of blessing re-established unto the friend of God and his seed; Isaac was the promise of God and Jacob, the servant of the Most High. By Joseph was a genealogy of preservation established to sustain Jacob and his household from perishing in the day of famine. Also unto Joseph and his seed was given the promise and the understanding of the eternal vision until the Everlasting Covenant should be brought forth in it's fullness. Unto Judah, by David, was the genealogy of the royal lineage given unto the nation of Israel and under those promises did Jesus, the Messiah, come forth. For He is the everlasting embodiment of that sacred royal line. In Him was the wisdom of heavenly understanding given to bear witness and to instruct the eternal government of God that would be established unto the redeemed remnants of the sons of men. In Him are the integration of all the promises and covenants united into one faith, one body and one Everlasting Covenant that shall endure evermore and reunite all unto their Creator.

By the instruction of the Holy Spirit shall the Spirit of Prophecy and the Spirit of Revelation announce all the hidden and unknown promises and covenants unto the remnants and the unified Body until all have been satisfied according to the faithfulness of He who spoke and created them, unto His chosen children; their fathers, by who's obedience are those remnants now received and given the fruits of thy Creator's blessing for that obedience and faith.

By Christ shall redemption be established in completedness in those individuals, those pure seekers who shall desire it. They shall ascend to the fullness of His stature and shall be bestowed with the fruits of all prior promises and covenants and restored to behold the eternal vision clearly and that restoration shall put an end to all controversy that to this time has kept the Body divided over principle and promise contained in the covenants that are presently known. By prophecy and revelation shall the unknown covenants be brought to be heard in undisputable truth until wisdom has filled in all the blank spaces of an eternal document; yea, that "Everlasting Covenant". The "Living Testimony" in Heaven shall be the foundation of the Tabernacle of Wisdom, and by it shall all the mysteries of God, and of His chosen people, and of His children of deliverance throughout the passage of time, become revealed and known to have been done by the hand of the Creator, and Him alone.

The unction of the Holy Spirit shall speak through certain fully submitted vessels words that have never been to this time known. By that Spirit and the sealing of them with the Authority of the hand of the Living God shall eternal truth and secrets be imparted that all might be edified in grace. Only those most humble vessels who have been purged in the fires of Holy Purification shall be given to behold these truths of an eternal vision clearly, and with certainty to speak it forth unto the gathering of the remnants of the redeemed in the fulfillment of and completion of all eternal promises by a faithful and righteous Creator.

By the Light of His Son, Jesus, their Redeemer, shall all the darkness of division be dissolved and dispersed; for in that day shall the Holy Spirit remove all the veils of heart, mind, and soul, so that all might behold only light evermore. So shall it be for the redeemed remnants and all those who should open their hearts to hear and their minds to see that deliverance of that Holy Redemption being completed within their souls.

The faith and the hope of the saints having been realized, and the truth of the promises and the covenants having been established in the fullness and the stature of a Risen and Living Redeemer, even Jesus; then shall all come to behold clearly that the words of their Creator were not spoken in vain nor did they return unto Him void. In faithfulness did He record and honor all that was spoken of Him from the beginning unto the end and He neglected not one in that fulfillment of what was accomplished. All praise and glory be unto Him and unto His Son and unto His Holy Spirit evermore! By the unity of the Trinity were all things manifested unto the sons of men evermore. Amen.

LET US REASON TOGETHER

Behold, I come unto thee, not in the wisdom of man's words, but in power and in demonstration of My Spirit of Life; to change and rearrange and offer hope unto all who seek unto Me for it. For without Me being alive and real, there is no hope or life for any of you. Behold there is only the hashing and re-hashing over My old words, which men have done for centuries. Behold, without the Life of My Spirit being employed ye can come to no proper understanding of any of those things I said or did.

So, what shall ye have? A life of play and of accumulated thought and theory but no real existence of Life? Or a real and intimate relationship with Me, thy Creator of all, to thy walking in power and in demonstration of My Spirit of aliveness within you? And wherein have your own ways brought unto you true joy? Where is thy faith placed? In men? In their institutions created for the establishment of rules and statutes upon all men? And do ye desire that bondage, and also that it be placed upon all who would want to come unto Me?

Behold, the need for repentance is great among many of your young. Ye see that they are a generation of hopeless and lost ones. Yet ye have more churches built up than at any time in history. What is the disparity here, and do ye not see it, that thy churches are dry and powerless, and seek to bind instead of release, and to offer their restrictions rather than freedom to the souls of them they try to reach?

Behold, this is senseless, yet is the way of man's religious thinking. I would have ye come to know the freedom of walking in My Spirit, having Me to be your Head and your Teacher; not "Pastor So and So", who knows not his left hand from his right.

What would ye have? How deep is thy commitment to learning how to walk in My way? For indeed it is upon this determination that all choose either to stay and play the games Christendom offers, or to climb unto a place of maturity in Me, holding only My hand, which will redeem thee from all self's defilements, and resurrect thy dead hope unto life again.

Do what ye will do, for I have made thy will sovereign. But I desire that ye know that ye have that choice to make, and in each heart I seek to reveal enough light that ye may see that there is more than just what Christendom offers you to distract you away from seeking Me with ALL of your heart, and worshiping Me with all of your strength.

Do not play games longer and remain spiritually retarded children, but seek to climb unto a place of peace and fulfillment in Me. For all of Christendom's wisdom shall avail you nothing in the day My words of Truth stand to judge thy walk and thy commitment to Me. Be not deceived. Thy God is not mocked by thy callous worship in the temples of men for to be seen of them, and to be honored in your community as a "good citizen". But seek to walk My way in closeness and give up that which seeks only to expand thy knowledge, which is without Life, and which ye sin against quite often, since it lends thee no power.

Behold, all thy knowledge profiteth thee nothing if ye do not apply it to thy walk every day of your life. So My words pass as a fable; "an un-do-able thing" in your world today, at least by anyone "sane". Behold and know that by the least of these My words shall ye be judged by Me and sentenced to failure and destruction. Thus pride not thyself in thy works nor in thy religious knowledge, for it is the obtaining of nothing good, but only the attaining of My hand of blessing will avail you something in this the day of My Second Coming unto you.

And I know a good many are standing afar off gawking at My words, for they are so different from what ye have been taught. But they who have a true desire for Me shall grasp these My present-day sayings and shall come to My feet that they may also and learn My way for themselves and walk in them. To them I speak that I might encourage them to seek Me on their own and to lay hold of Mine holy garments, never to let go. And others I warn, who have not the sense to know evil from good, and these I seek to show the error of their way and to draw them unto Myself to learn. Others I testify against and expose the evil of their doings and the wretchedness of their judgement before the faces of all who will see it; that I might redeem My own from under their grip and domination, that those who want Me might free themselves from these entanglements and come to worship the true and Living God, who yet seeks those who would worship Him in spirit and in truth.

So decide, all ye children. It be between Me and each of you and is the affair and business of one other, even your pastor, who hath taught you lies, even as he learned them from Christendom's seminaries. Even them must I convince, unto the correcting of their way and thought or to the deposing of them who will not obey Me. So let not thyself be their victim but come learn the truth for yourself. Hence are ye responsible for your decision. Selah.

As a cage is full of birds, so their houses are full of lying spirits and deceit. Be not caged with them, as in a hospital ward, where you will catch everything everyone else has wrong with them. But prefer thou a "private room" with Me as your Great Physician, and I will minister health and Life to you and ye will regain strength in the power of thy belief in Me, the "I AM" of old.

FLEE FROM BETHEL AND BABYLON

Hearken, all ye peoples, all ye nations, all ye kingdoms, unto My kindness in these words of mercy, and repent ye before your Creator. Cease from your whoredoms and your abominations and all the fruits of thy iniquity that ye may be restored by grace unto the eternal promises of thy Creator.

Receive ye His Son and desire only His fullness be imparted unto thee, ye congregations of Bethel. Throw off thy bands of captivity and flee from Babylon and be ye not servants any longer in her household; and be ye not slaves unto her systems that she hath used to ensnare thee in all unrighteousness. For thy Redeemer, the Messiah, hath set thee free that you might take flight from her destruction. Be not fearful or uncertain in thy allegiance so that ye might seek to be hired by her merchants who sell unto you lies for truth, but return unto Him who is ALL TRUTH, THE ONLY PURE TRUTH AND GUARANTEE OF YOUR SALVATION, for the hour hath come that it should be given unto those who seek it from Him.

Those who will not repent and cleave unto Bethel shall behold Shiloh, for the Ark of the Covenants of thy God shall be removed from thee and those of that congregation who sought not unto the Lord. Those who will not flee Babylon and their captivity shall behold Tophet, for unto you it shall be thy Valley of Slaughter.

Just and righteous are His determinations unto all unrighteousness in that hour, for thy abominations and your love of thy idols hath removed thee from the source of thy forgiveness, even thy Creator. Bethel and Babylon shall sing together, but it shall avail them nothing for it is as “Ichabod”, the glory of the Lord and His Promises having departed from thee, and the light of thy candle shall be removed. For those who desire to dwell in darkness and only to accept in part what was promised, shall be deprived of all. For the word of thy God through His holy prophets and His Son Jesus, thy Messiah, shall bear witness against thee in that day when truth and righteousness is established throughout the earth.

Fear not another nation or another people, but fear God, for it is HE who contends with thee. The earth shall tremble at His coming and the heavens shall bow in humility and shall testify evermore against all who feared Him not and bowed not down low unto repentance. For thy prophets and thy priests have deceived thee and have prophesied unto thee falsely, that they might enhance their own stature and gain by the merchandising of compromise within thy congregations. The merchants of Babylon have bewitched thee with the idols of the harlot, and ye cleave unto them, but they shall not save you.

For the hand of thy God shall use His rod of iron to smite all peoples, all nations, and all kingdoms who hearkened not unto His call; and there shall be none remaining to bury “Ichabod” in either Shiloh or Tophet. For the hour of separation is upon you, either unto restoration or unto damnation; for thy Creator wearies of thy contention and He will contend with thee no more.

Now shall all the peoples, the nations and the kingdoms become the peoples, the nations and the Kingdoms of thy Creator or they shall be swept from the lands and from His presence evermore. Selah. MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN!

MY WAY OF HOPE

My way of hope is indeed a glorious way unto them who will accept it, to the loss of all their fears. But who of you will apply yourself unto My way of teaching you, leading you, guiding you, that I may obtain that pre-eminence required to be thy “All in all”? Behold, truly I speak to cause you to come unto Me, forever laying your burdens at My feet. I plead and I exhort, and reason with you always to get you to lay aside the weights of self’s desires that ye may take up My Life of Holiness, happiness and peace. Ye think you are happy, following your own ways according to your reason. But yet your fighting keeps you unsettled and struggling to succeed in a world where there can be no lasting peace nor happiness...

As the cold winds of tribulation blow upon you, you wrap your flesh around you more tightly to keep out the cold that would assault you. I ask thee to see that My wrappings of Holy Spirit peace and calm are to come forth from within and will be rather as a blanket of continual warmth around your heart, mind, and soul, which no cold winds can penetrate. Ye huddle around your firelight of burning wood, yet cannot get warm within. Let My heat warm you through and through.

THE LIVING TREE

At the sealing of the Living Tree shall the dying one be cut down forever, and no roots shall remain of that which was to it's growing up ever again. For the True Church of the Most High is the Living Tree; yea, even My Tabernacle of Holy Wisdom, undefiled by the thoughts and ways and works of men. And ye who are My branches on this Living Tree are to bring forth the holy fruit of Life unto the hungry of all nations; and the leaves are for the peace and healing of those nations who will walk in My Light.

There shall be no bitter nor bad fruit growing upon My Living Tree, but all branches that wither or produce bad fruit shall be cut off, that My Living Tree be not cumbered by them. Seek ye to be of My Living Tree and be not of the dead and dry one which My axe is to be laid to the root of, lest ye be cast into the fire to be burned completely with it.

THE INDWELLING CHRIST

My Children, bring all thy thoughts before Me that they might be tried in the fires of purification and leave them there, that their exposure will trouble thee no more. For to dwell upon any thought in attempt to discern whether they be of Me or not will cause a distraction and will delay or deny the completion of the "Indwelling Christ" that I am being built within thee. At this hour the enemy will seek any entrance to distract or to divert thy attention away from My Holy Spirit, that your attention might be divided. To look inward and to judge thy thoughts to try them is good, but I, thy Redeemer, would not have you to dwell upon them. For they can and will erode thy faith by the seeds of doubt that the enemy has cast upon the wind to sow discord and to prevent the unity of oneness that has been achieved between thee and Me.

Only I can pluck out those seeds and weed thy garden; you cannot do it. So stay centered upon Me and be filled with faith and hope, ever seeking purity to be revealed that My Holy Spirit might continue to lead you to ascend higher in Me, and that the fullness of My stature being completed will yield the maturity of that "Indwelling Christ" unto you. That manifesting of revelation will, in itself, set you free of all that till now has hindered you and kept you incomplete.

By the fullness of My Gospel and the creative faith of that "Indwelling Christ" shall deliverance come forth and lead you to the completed redemption that My Holy Spirit is bringing forth unto thee at this hour. Accept that it is HIS work, and His alone. Receive ye the greater measure of My light and let not the shadows of deception distract you, that you might overcome, even as I overcame, all things in the acknowledgment of and obedience to My Father's will. That alone will sustain you unto illumination of His purpose and plan for you so that you can be useful in His service to the deliverance of all creation.

To have thoughts that disturb you as thy condition is revealed is good, but to dwell upon them will cause you to be drawn away and to look outward. Then will your heart be polluted with justifications (I'm better than I used to be") or in condemnation (I'm guilty of not doing this or having done that"). Remember any action that is non-edifying or brought to thy attention will cause you to lose focus of that "Indwelling Christ” being developed. So cast aside all that ye might ever reside at My feet in humility and in prostration of spirit. For all will be flawed until that “Indwelling Christ” brings forth purity. The trial is to see how you handle exposure and the thoughts that it creates, that your obedience might be perfected in Him who is perfect. Yea, the “Indwelling Christ.”

Remember it is not by your power, nor of thy might, or even thy desire that this is accomplished; for all that must die in the crucifixion of your flesh. By His power, through His might and His desire within you having been strengthened by thy submission is regeneration and the “Indwelling Christ” resurrected within thee, so remain in His rest and all His Holy Spirit to complete that good work with praise and thanksgiving unto thy Redeemer. Then great shall be your joy and unshakeable thy peace before thy God in the Presence of thy Creator.

TRANSFIGURATION OF INDWELLING CHRIST WITHIN YOU

Those who seek with all diligence and fullness of desire shall find the unwavering strength that the “Indwelling Christ” will be, completed within them according to His promise; and they shall see the transfiguration of Him within them in it’s fullness. By the truths of all truth shall wisdom overthrow all knowledge then His Light will dispel the darkness until they have been fully restored unto their Creator and their Redeemer within them. The revelations of all things and of all promises shall be birthed by the bringing forth of all the words of God, and their being accepted by those true seekers who will come to behold the manifestation of that Transfiguration of the “Indwelling Christ” into and unto them.

Then shall the fullness of all the promises unto the chosen of Israel come to behold their God and their Messiah; for they shall with gladness receive the promises of the remnants of those tribes which God had separated from time to time; yea, even those pure remnants of God’s deliverance. With joy divine shall the truth of God be renewed by the unveiling of the unknown and the unsealing of those promises, and the reunification of all Jacob’s promises and covenants unto Israel. Much have they to learn and greatly shall they rejoice in the day of that Everlasting Covenant being brought forth by those transfigured Sons and Daughters blessed by the “Indwelling Christ”.

The completed, illumined Indwelling Christ is the fruit of a complete working of the Holy Spirit within those seekers of a pure heart. Those who will not accept the Holy Spirit or fully surrender to allow Him to do that work will not be partners of that manifestation. Those who will not accept the complete words of God as they are revealed by His Holy Spirit deprive themselves of His pure light that would dispel all darkness. To the ending of all controversy concerning their Creator and their Redeemer; and they shall not be able to endure in the Presence of His full Light coming forth.

For in the Day of the Lord, the Light of thy Messiah and Redeemer, even that Jesus Christ who was crucified, shall fill the earth as the waters cover the sea, and all that was hidden shall be revealed, and all that was unknown shall be brought forth, that His truth and His promises might be eternally acknowledged. The adversary, the accuser of the brethren, shall be cast out; for in Christ is no deception, no contention; and Satan is brought to silence. Then shall the earth and the inhabitants rejoice in the Greater Light and be restored unto their Creator evermore, and purity shall be established from everlasting to everlasting. Amen.

SEEK MY KINGDOM FIRST

There is no life in anything the world has to offer you. There is no hope in the promises of men, nor in anything they relate. Even love, which they proclaim, is shallow and indifferent, and will fail to remain in due season. For to remain in the world and of the world is death to thy soul and spirit. And O ye who look to find love, true love, in the world or from people, ye will hunt forever in vain to find it. For none are able to love unselfishly; none are able to love unconditionally. None are able, having not the strength from divine resources. Behold, all the world becomes a prison to them that are in search of love and acceptance, for they shall not find, except that love which mimics true love, yet is in essence, selfishness.

True Love comes from thy God only and is limited to the divine strength they who have it gather from Me. Thus seek to lay hold on My Divine Love and then ye will see all loves where they are clearly. Seek to know the love of thy Creator, that continues to love you even when ye fail miserably. This Love is true Love, and there is none else.

All the world can bring you no happiness, nor any peace nor fulfillment, for it has none. And the happiness and satisfaction it does create is short-lived and ends in disappointment when it leaves you. Thus know it be but an illusion of true fulfillment and know that thou art left only with thyself and thy own misery after it all.

So ye hungry of heart and spirit, come unto Me. And ye lonely, seek My friendship and love and acceptance. For ye shall not find it elsewhere. Selah.

Blessed is the Lord who gives you peace. Seek Him while He may be found of you. For ye shall seek for love in vain and find not that love humans offer satisfying. For it is not in man to love fully, but to remain separate, doing his or her own thing. And you will see their inability to fill all your needs. Thus happiness must be first found within, and peace, then outward things shall show themselves to be shallow and empty to thee.

Heed Me and know these sayings be true. Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness upon you. Then in your world of sorrows ye will have fulfillment in Me. Fill your heart with My Love, which will keep you in every storm. My Friendship will be there whenever ye are lonely. You've got a friend who never leaves you nor forsakes you. Won't you take hold of My hand? For ye cannot be one with My people except ye be as they are; one with Me. Saith Jesus. And then ye can rejoice in our Love together with them. Peace be unto you. Even My Peace.

CHILDREN OF THE INDWELLING CHRIST

“Behold, I am He who was prepared from the foundation of the world to redeem My people. Behold, I am Jesus Christ. I am the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. In Me shall all mankind have life, and that, eternally; even they who shall believe on My Name, and they shall become My Sons and Daughters.”

These words were spoken by Christ, Himself unto the brother of Jared. For he was the first man to see Christ in the body of His Spirit. Jared's people were delivered by God from the dispersement of the nations at the Tower of Babel and brought unto this land. The brother of Jared had obtained faith and an intimate relationship with his Creator so much so that God said that he was redeemed from the fall of Adam. That faith unto redemption allowed him to behold the Lamb of God and to be ministered to by Him and to see the fullness of the "Indwelling Christ". By faith Christ revealed unto the brother of Jared that He, Jesus, was God. Because of the great works which the Lord showed unto him and the promises that were conferred upon him; and because of the knowledge he had, this man could not be kept from beholding within the veil and he saw the finger, then the body of Jesus. He had faith no longer, for then he KNEW that "Indwelling Christ", nothing doubting, for he had beheld all truth.

The Lord said unto him: "Behold, thou shalt not suffer these things which ye have seen and heard to go forth unto the world until the time that I shall glorify My Name in the flesh; wherefore ye shall treasure up the things which ye have seen and heard, and show it to no man. And behold, when ye shall come unto Me, ye shall write them and shall seal them up, that no man can interpret them; for you shall write them in a language so that they cannot be read.

By faith did the brother of Jared obtain the "Indwelling Christ" millenniums before Jesus walked the earth, and by faith unto eternal knowledge being imparted unto him by the Messiah, the brother of Jared received and recorded the eternal vision of all that was and that should be until the end of the age of man, and into the eternal age of Christ. Then did he seal up the vision until God should allow it to be opened again unto men in the age of restoration and complete fulfillment.

The vision and the deliverance of the people of Jared are but one of the sealed books of Heaven. They are those which men have not yet beheld. By unbelief many will be deprived of these truths and those accounts which are reserved unto the Sons and Daughters of the "Indwelling Christ", those who shall be illuminated by the Light and the Authority of their Creator, to open the "Living Testimony" of Christ contained in the Ark of God in His Tabernacle of Wisdom, which shall shortly be given unto His New Jerusalem Church. Then shall all things from the beginning unto the end be fully revealed unto the membership of that Body, even those children of the "Indwelling Christ". Amen.

Many others, other than the brother of Jared, shall be revealed by the Holy Spirit and their accounts shall be resurrected from the dust and shall speak of the great and glorious promises of God and of Christ. These unknown accounts shall bear witness in the unity of the Holy Spirit and the everlasting and Eternal God who created all, then and now.

Many have there been of these pure remnants of deliverance, redeemed and restored by the Spirit of that Creator throughout time; both recorded and unknown; and their promises and their covenants are contained together in the documentation of the Everlasting Covenant which shall be brought forth in the last days. Together these remnants tell the complete story of our Creator and testify of His faithfulness unto all His children; and testify of the Love of their Redeemer, even Christ Jesus, evermore.

Many knew Jesus before His birth and were given by faith to behold Him from the broken off branches of Israel, and even before that covenant with Abraham. Together all those Sons and Daughters of the "Indwelling Christ" are included in the fold of those sheep who Christ declared unto the disciples were unknown to them, but that the Father had given them unto Christ, their Shepherd; and that they, too, should be gathered into the fold evermore.

Those who say, “We have a Bible, we need no more Bible”, or say “We know enough and will receive no more truth”, I, thy Redeemer, say unto you that only those who will receive all, the children of the “Indwelling Christ”, and receive their testimonies as My Holy Spirit reveals them will behold Me in the fullness of My words and My works evermore. Those who choose to only receive Me and them in part will never behold My stature and will never know Me or those of My Body; the sheep of My completed fold.

Be not bounded by tradition; for thy tradition will fail you in the end and will leave you empty at the hour of My fullness being brought forth in the sons of men and in the earth. The truth of all truth is the completed truth of Christ; the witness of all witnesses is the witness of Christ in His completeness. The testimony of Christ is the Spirit of Prophecy by which the completed truth and witness of the “Indwelling Christ” is. And has been made manifest unto all the sons and the daughters by the Spirit of Revelation unto them individually. To deny the Spirit of Prophecy or the Spirit of Revelation the ability to complete their work within thee will leave you without the knowledge to behold eternal wisdom nor to appreciate thy Creator’s eternal vision.

SEEKING MUST BE INWARD

The opening of divine wisdom would be unto thee resurrection from the dead works of men and hope, which springs forth from a new source. Strength cannot come from that of a human origin, no matter how good it sounds to thee. Thus in all the christian books ye could read there cometh forth not that life nor divine strength ye seek to reveal all matters that trouble thee. Thou shalt work works to no profit and shall thereafter feel dry and barren. For it is not within man to direct or to correct his own way. But this direction must come from a divine source or life be not imparted.

Ye can read My words written in books all your life yet not find Me to be the “Living Christ” within thee. And as I am the Author of those scriptures, except I drive them home to thee by My Spirit, ye would never understand them except after a carnal sense, which bringeth no life to thee. As I told the Pharisee leaders, “Ye search the scriptures, for in them ye think ye have life, but ye won’t come to Me, the Author of Life, that ye may indeed have life.” Those words only testify of Me, but have not the life ye seek. If ye would seek unto Me I would BE LIFE WITHIN YOU. But it takes little commitment from thee to read My words. It is in the taking of those words within your being that life comes. It is the accepting of My hand and walking by My Holy Spirit impetus and guidance, where ye would cease to walk in and to regard flesh.

Ye seek an outward Kingdom to come wherein ye hope to take part, while My Kingdom must be formed within you first, else ye will not see it. For behold, except ye become of My Kingdom within, ye shall not see that which shall become outwardly evident, and will fight against it, even as the Pharisees did. You will crucify My power and Spirit and will not give in to it, in a Judas spirit, unto Me. Be not an enemy but an ally to Me, saith thy Redeemer. To be a part of My Kingdom ye must not be a part of that which the earth embraces. Ye cannot be a part of both at the same time. Thus if ye would follow Me, then separate thyself from the kingdoms of men unto My Holy Spirit guidance and He will lead you into all truth and show you things to come. As your leader, He will take of My things and show them unto you. And there is no other way. Thus take up thine own cross to fleshly ways, desires and thinking, and follow thou Me, saith Jesus. And I will lead you unto My Kingdom of Love and Peace and complete fulfillment; and ye shall know a joy the world cannot take away, saith thy Redeemer; and My peace which passes all understandings of men. Selah.

TRUE RIGHTEOUSNESS & DIVINE WISDOM

The blessings of the Most High are poured out upon them who seek diligently to walk with Me. Upon them who seek after the ways and wisdoms and understandings of men, My blessings cannot come. I seek to lead you in a brand new way that ye may overcome all your flesh, and self that is enmity to Me. But so long as ye feed yourself with that ye deem good from the hands and understandings of men, ye will not find My sure, current words available to you. Thus fast from the words and ways of men, and make thyself available to My Holy Spirit, who would lead you in a way everlasting.

For by belief in a doctrine shall no man attain unto the hand of the Beloved nor know Him who IS “The Way”, “the Truth”, and “The Light and Life” of all men. Grasp hold of Me through prayer and know that ye shall find Me and be found of Me. And according to your desire and persistence in following hard after Me, so shall ye obtain My Light and Life, and power shall be made evident in your life. Even that Light, Life and Power never seen or known in the churches. For thy walk must be spontaneous, even as My Spirit is spontaneous. It cannot be choreographed by men. And though many proclaim My Name and claim to have My Life in themselves, they are yet bound in chains of self.

Ye must seek to see the true fruits of Life and be not satisfied to eat the fruits of men that are earthy, sensual, carnal and devilish in their origin. For man decides not to walk in any sort of true righteousness, but concocts a righteousness after his own way of thinking and walks in that. And ye who follow men walk in their concocted righteousness which obtains not My blessing. So long as ye keep men before your face ye cannot know Me nor hear Me. Selah. And divine Life shall never come unto you. For I AM HE. Thus I say ye must forsake the world, even ALL of it, if ye would find and walk with Me unto realms of true righteousness and divine wisdom.

Blessed be the Lord and God of all Creation! Only He can lead you perfectly, and unto Him doth the issues of life pertain. And men can never save men, nor even themselves; no matter how much they know about Me. I see so many treasuring My words of Life, yet also treasuring words of men unto their obtaining of nothing but confusion. Know that the two will not mix evenly, but will ever separate from one another. Selah. So if ye will seek to be members of both camps, know ye shall not succeed in your endeavors, though they be many. For I will not dwell in temples filled with the ideology of man, but will flee from it to leave you to your own way. Thus if ye will seek after Me purely, do so. And if ye will remain in the castles of man’s dominions, do so. But do not try to incorporate both.

Can upon the same tree grow both sweet fruit and bitter? Can from the same fount flow sweet water and salty? Neither can within you dwell both My Spirit and the rich spirit of flesh. For behold, the one shall overcome the other until all of it be ruined and the evil overtakes the good in thee. Choose My Light over the darkness of man's ways. Choose My teachings and leadings above man's else ye shall have none of My Light or Life in thee. Selah.

THERE IS NO VALUE IN MEN'S WISDOM

The glory of the righteous is ME. There is no glory in man's righteousness and there is no honor from Me, but from men only. And what good is that before thy Creator? Seek the honor that comes from thy God, and that ONLY. Then ye have something worth having.

There is a glory that is temporal. And there is a glory that is eternal. And that eternal substance ye have neither seen nor known, but have glorified and honored man's wisdom, which hath brought thee nothing good. But seek ye My honor which is of more value than rubies, gold or sapphires. And then ye may have something worthy before Me at My Coming.

I counsel thee to buy of Me gold tried in the fires of My purification, and anoint thine eyes with My Holy Spirit eye salve that thou mayest behold My Truth. For revelation from men will not come, neither will it be formed in thee. It is only by My Holy Spirit that ye shall attain to anything eternal.

I AM THE LIVING CHRIST IN YOUR MIDST

Who is the leader of this meeting? I AM. Thus each and every one of you, submit your hearts unto Me in the glory of My fullness coming forth in you; yea, all ye are able to receive. Are ye willing this day to embrace those things which are holy and eternal? And are ye able to receive from Me by faith things men have never seen nor known? To walk in them and to believe in them by faith unto their completing of you? For things I have to give, and hard to be uttered or understood. Thus I would that ye embrace Me, the Living Christ in your midst, and open unto Me fully to receive and to eat (or in other words to take into your innermost being) that I would impart unto you this day. For I have much to give you. Therefore do not limit Me to things which are familiar, but let Me lead and you follow Me obediently into the unknown realms of truth; yea, the deep waters thereof. But if, through doubting these things ye begin to sink, ye must reach forth and take hold of My hand, for there is no other way. Saith the Eternal.

Hence I begin My speech unto you, and listen thou intently to the words that I bring forth, looking unto greater fullness and wisdom coming forth in thee. For behold, except I clothe thee in My Holy Garments, ye walk naked and barefoot. Thus let Me do this, for only I can. Selah.

ALL YOUR BOOKS COULDN'T CONTAIN ME

I, Jesus, do testify by the Spirit of Prophecy and by the witness of the Spirit of Revelation unto all men that the words recorded by My faithful servant, John, are true. For if all that I, the "Indwelling Christ", did speak unto the children of faith were to be recorded, the world could not contain it; so surely one volume or series of volumes would not contain the completeness of My "Living Testimony". For much that was not recorded, all that has been written, and all that continues to be written by the Spirit of Prophecy and the Spirit of Revelation are together the entirety of the eternal vision of thy Creator.

In Heaven are all thoughts, words, deeds and promises given faithfully recorded and maintained in the document of their complete inclusion; yea, even the Everlasting Covenant of My Father. Much have I said and done and more do I continue to say and do that are unknown to you and are not in your preserved records of who I AM. Much have I to share, but because of doubt and unbelief among the Body that is called by My Name, those words cannot be received. Included are the great and magnificent impartations unto the Sons and Daughters by the "Indwelling Christ" that I AM, and the workings of My Holy Spirit through My New Pentecost. Together shall be the record of My greater works unto the manifesting of My Greater Light and My Greater witness unto all men in these last days.

Those who contend and dispute or seek to destroy the witness of My lesser light and refuse to acknowledge and walk in the witness of those principles prevent the coming forth of greater truth and greater light. For this reason the knowledge of what is known shall be sealed until the message of the Everlasting and Eternal Gospel, the fullness of My Gospel, has been brought forth in its witness against those who seek not to be completed.

For My truth is from the beginning complete unto the end of My Father's eternal vision. The preservation of that vision and the promise of its completion was given unto Joseph, and reserved unto his seed evermore. My Holy Spirit shall come upon those of that remnant unto the revealing of that vision and those who will not accept "the dream" shall behold "the nightmare" of thy Creator. Mercy shall speak; then Justice will declare the truths of that Holy eternal vision to be everlasting and unchanging, either to be accepted or rejected in the hearts of all men evermore.

At that hour shall the Eternal Almighty Creator of all creation stretch forth His hands unto deliverance and unto destruction. Deliverance unto the righteous unto the preservation of all truth in mercy; but destruction unto all unrighteousness to the overthrow of all iniquity, injustice and all that seeks not to attain unto purity before Him. Great and magnificent shall that day be unto the righteous. Terrible beyond description shall it be unto the unrighteous.

For His words are true and righteous in their fulfillment upon the earth and its inhabitants, and the day doth declare and has declared itself to be "The Great and Terrible Day of the Lord". Such is contained in the eternal vision of My Father, and so shall it be evermore. All that was sealed shall be opened; and all that was open shall be closed, that the fullness of that vision might continue to unfold unto His Glory eternally.

Fall upon your faces in repentance, for His presence shall be felt in the hearts of all men, either in joy or in sorrow on that day.

DON'T BE AFRAID TO OFFER ALL TO ME

Little Ones, do not be afraid to offer all to Me. I am waiting for your all to be submitted, even to your own fears and unknown things. I am the Light which makes everything bright, and no man can replace Me. I am your understanding to your own overcoming. In Me alone can you find the solving of thy confusion and doubt which I, Myself, shall cast away. Ye just offer them up on My Altar and do not be afraid. Because I must make My abode in you to behold the stature of Me. I am the God Creator who is completed to all His creatures and only in this fullness can ye exist and prosper; yea in the "Indwelling Christ", which shall be manifested to His people in His fullness.

And if then only can ye behold Him, so rejoice and have hope, and trust Me to guide your own walk with the truths that are being revealed. Embrace them in their fullness and walk them. Selah.

TAKE THY KINGDOM BY FORCE

There is life, there is hope, there is joy and there is peace where I AM. Do ye not covet these things to ever be within thee? I AM that I AM, and I AM ever a consuming fire to all flesh. Thus to have Me within is to die to Self and all Self's desires. For if ye live large in Self's ideas and thoughts, My Spirit is cast out upon the garbage heap, so far as ye are concerned. Self cannot battle Me when he is small, but can toss Me out when he lives large in thee. And what doth this mean, this "living large" in thee? It means when Self is ruling in thy thoughts, then thus [is he ruling] thy talk and walk. For behold, whoever controls thy thought life controls the talk and the walk also. And I would that ye have none but Me ruling you. For ye are the servant of either Me or them. And other kings ruling ye have known who were not kind to thee, nor loving, but were tyrants, making you to live all your life in subservience to them. But thou, Child of Mine, if indeed ye are Mine, I say that I would deliver thee from all of Self's tirades upon thee, and if I, the Son of God, set you free then are ye free indeed; and your thoughts will reflect that this is so in that there will be peace and holy stillness reigning in you and NO THOUGHTS but Mine only.

Wherein ye are tormented and constantly barraged by thoughts, seemingly not your own, know that Self inwardly condemns and threatens because his own seat of dominance is being threatened, and he pursues you to "correct your thinking" and to judge and condemn thee falsely, that ye may fear the loss of his dominance over you. But I say, Crucify him and his judgments of you so that I may reign supremely in thee, as the Melchizedek King of Peace that I AM.

Thus this day surrender thou the throne of thy heart unto Me and cast out the king of bondage that heretofore accused you night and day. Have no pictures (idols) on the walls of your hearts round about but Mine only. Declare these things unto Self, and grasp hold of thy kingdom with force. For ye cannot be nice to Self. Nor can ye be whimpery-whiney to his dominance but must exert control and demand it so as if ye were striving against demonic possession inside.

Then when your kingdom is dwelling in your power, submit it unto Me every whit; upon your knees give it all up to Me, lock, stock and bathroom, and I will pervade every cell of your being and your thoughts shall be established in peace. Then sow to that stillness in peace; for what ye watch on T.V. will come back to you, being recorded in your heart. And what you hear on the radio will also come back to haunt you. And what you read in books will also come back. What ye take in will come back forth; even as a virus clogs a computer so will these things foul all My peace in thee.

Let My Kingdom and dominion rule thee and ye will cease to hear all the other confused voices. Thou must take thy inward kingdom by force. Selah. Even so, Amen.

SHALL YE CHOOSE SPIRIT OR SELF?

The Kingdom and the dominion shall be given to the saints of the Most High. This dominion shall be unto each first over his own “kingdom” or body. And except it first come within there can be no outward deliverance come to or through any man.

Behold, submit thy kingdom first unto your own ruling, putting Self to death, that thy Spirit man may rule and follow his desire to follow and know Me. Then when Spirit is ruling, ever sow to spirit and not to flesh. For to sow to your flesh as in TV watching, radio listening or book reading will make you to, of your flesh, reap corruption, or in other words, fleshly things, troubles and ways, and puts Spirit to death in thee. For ye daily, hourly; yea, MINUTELY put either Spirit or flesh to death within thyself. And it is ever thy own choice and decision that I have given thee, as a sovereign will, to decide who wins moment by moment.

They who ever let flesh win put Spirit to death within themselves so much that it ceases to exist as far as they are concerned, and My Spirit ceases to strive with or try to even correct these individuals. This is known as “Spiritual death” in thee. And behold, ye were all dead in sins when I found you. And I revived your spirit man and gave him an impetus to follow Me. Yet he remained in his grave clothes.

Behold, Spirit has been re-wounded and attacked many times because of thy pursuit of flesh ways and Self’s dominance being exerted; and surely spirit in thee has oftentimes despaired of life as the light in thee has been struck at by the power of flesh and Self. But behold, the spark of life has remained in thee, though at times it was but smoldering flax. I have not let it be extinguished till thou could lay hold on My Truth, so that ye could each intelligently decide what ye would have, having an understanding of this warring going on within thee.

Behold, I am “The Way”, “The Truth”, and “The Light of the world” and “The Life” of all men. And the only Life ye have. Behold, let not thy light go out from continual assaults from Self and thy willing pursuit after flesh and it’s ways and pleasures. For whilst many have had years to play with and to toy with Self and flesh with seemingly “no harm done” to their spirit man, ye have no more time to know this by experience.

Now the Righteous Judge is at the door, about to call all to stand at His entrance. And I bid you to heed and understand My words for thus I speak with utmost urgency that ye once and for all mortify, or in other words, kill or crucify that unwilling flesh that gets bored and turns on the TV for a few hours, or sits down with a book to feed flesh’s knowledge with, “just to relax”. Yea, I say, with all perseverance grasp ye hold of life and let no flesh get hold of thee, for truly ye must choose who will die in you, and if it be spirit who dies in thee, then you will be turned over to the great god “Self”, and under his power and dominion ye will from henceforth be, to the putting out of My Light and Life in thee.

THE TRANSFIGURATION OF ILLUMINATION

By faith and obedience of submission unto the perfect will of thy Creator, the Holy Spirit shall impart unknown truths unto the children of men until their spirits evolve into the completeness of the Indwelling Christ within them. By that enlightenment shall all creation come forth into the greater knowledge of eternal wisdom to where faith is put away in the “Transfiguration of Illumination”. Once you come to behold the Indwelling Christ in His fullness being manifested within you, then you will be endowed with all that He is and will have a complete knowledge of all eternal wisdom, which is the completed Indwelling Christ within them. By that knowledge is faith then cast aside, for you know all to be fact and your belief in Him and your faith that He is has been established and completed in the stature of the Light that He has become unto you.

Then shall ye be as “Christs” unto Zion, the promise fulfilled unto the prophets, and shall be bestowed with all His powers and all His promises; for He, the Indwelling Christ, within you shall manifest Himself in purity unto all and with power. His Light shall endow you to bring forth the greater works, to present the greater testimony and to bear the greater witness of the authority of God upon His Son through them who are the Children of the Indwelling Christ.

TAKE NOT MY MESSAGES FOR GRANTED

Ascend! Ascend in Me, O all ye who strive for equalness in Me! Behold, all ye who open I can and do and will fill to the measure of your ability to receive of Me. Wherein ye are closed I can give you nothing good of Myself, but must pass you by. And even if ye be in My Presence, feeling, seeing or hearing great things and truths being revealed, yet are ye as a closed and sealed casket, empty and barren of life. And I would that ye take a-plenty of Me this day, knowing that ye need this life if you would live; but being bound by your will to choose I must pass you by if ye invite Me not in willingly when I pass by you. Receive Me and drop the heavy weights of your hearts and the heavy thoughts of being a “heavy-weight contender” for Me. For all of you are nothing and whosoever of you thinks that ye are something, behold, ye but deceive yourself. For to all but you it will be evident. Selah.

And now, wherein I say, Open unto Me to receive when I pass by, know that I have passed by already and tried to light you, and that there was not enough oil in your lamps to kindle most of you. I would that ye would have enough oil to get lit anyway, even for a few minutes.

Know My Candlesticks are remaining lit all through the week for your benefit. Know they are pouring forth most profusely unto you, of all persons, who receive these My messages. I ask you to at least give Me the courtesy of reading them, though I would like to ask you to study them most carefully and to meditate upon them. Even as many throughout the USA, who have no more time than thou, yet they take time to study and to meditate on these revealed things ye are taking for granted as just so many more anonymous papers to read.

Behold, do it not; take not My messages for granted. For behold, they are life unto thee, and death to flesh who finds them boring. But behold, My Candlesticks are writing faithfully, sometimes into the night, and spending long hours preparing carefully that ye are casting aside and taking for granted.

I have, therefore, for and unto all of thee an admonition: that ye see and know that I have lit these My Candlesticks and if ye were full enough of My Holy Spirit on your own study time, ye would have already been lit, even if just by them. Yet ye must needs go home unlit, because ye were unprepared this day.

Next week, again I desire to attempt lighting you by the Fire that I am. Shall your lamps again refuse My Fire because they aren't filled sufficiently to wet your wicks? Behold, we shall see. Remember, Transfiguration time cometh, but will you be ready? That is the question. I come quickly.

LET NOT DISTRACTIONS GET IN YOUR WAY

My Children, what are the gods of your heart? What do you sacrifice our time together for? Is it for family things? Is it for to engage in all thy temporal matters? Are thy thoughts not drawn away unto thy trivial pursuits? Have ye indeed forsaken the world that ye might follow Me? Or do you try to keep all that and yet squeeze Me in for a few minutes only and call that "worship"? Behold, it takes time to absorb these My truths, and to fully consider them in thy own life and works. I am not something you add to your busy life, but to replace the other things. And O so many of you are trying hard to include Me in all thy busy pursuits. I say, in this ye shall not succeed, in entering into My fullness, but ye must lay aside the distractions of thy busyness and come aside to behold the eternalness that I AM.

Now I know that many of you have jobs and work that must consume a part of your days. But if ye examine your "off-times" ye will see how much distraction ye yet allow to separate your eyes, ears, and hearts from Me. And I would that during this time ye would draw closer to Me, yet I see you drawn away by this and that; so many things that are temporal, trivial and foolish. I bid you with all seriousness to consider all those things that draw you away unto busyness and rather than making thy excuses to cut away our time together for studying the homework I gave you, that ye would be merciless in cutting away rather the trivia and the distractions that ever seek to steal away thy time.

A good many have nothing to do but while away the hours on the phone, speaking their gossip, and to be involved with this is death to thy spirit man. Many are caught up in family troubles. I say deserve ye no alone time, apart from them? Do ye fight for this your right to get stronger in Me? Know that thine enemy uses them you love to distract you most powerfully. And ye are not to let him win. But the family must learn to adjust to you, not that you must give in unto their persistent demands. For are their trivial things more important than thy soul's growth before Me? Give ye not up all of that to pursue hotly after Me? Behold, ye must consider what ye will have: family or Me. And also, friends or Me. For except ye relinquish all ye yet hold onto them more than unto Me. And no one will fight for your right to have some quiet and study time if you don't.

Thus if ye would indeed come to the measure of the stature of My fullness, ye must sacrifice all that separates us to be wholly Mine, for it will cause you to lose what you seek for from Me, and make you have to accept a lower seat to keep giving in to them. You are not to be their maid and you don't have to control or have a hand in everything. LET IT GO, that ye may pursue after your dream, EVEN ME.

Except a man forsake all that he hath, he cannot be My disciple. Know that all the world and your family will not bring you the happiness, the peace, nor the solidness that I can cause to rule in thee. Nay, they must stand aside while I prepare you for My work. They cannot be allowed to keep getting in the way.

As the pilgrim ran fleeing from the City of Destruction, he fled from the distractions of family also, who refused to come with him, and mocked him while he cried and pleaded for them to come with him. Thus in sadness he had to leave them behind in order to go and lay hold of Me. So must ye. Now I do not say thou must literally leave thy family and thy familiar surroundings. But if ye will be one prepared by Me unto Son or Daughter-ship, ye must be as one having no wife or husband, nor a family that ye may not be distracted by them. And ye must arrange your life in such a way that ye have sufficient time to spend before Me to your own conforming to holiness; the preparation necessary for Me to be able to light you, or in other words, the gathering of sufficient Holy Spirit oil. For just now and then being full is not enough; for I would that ye be filled always and ever retaining My Fire upon you, that ye may be a light unto all. A candle not hid, but a light upon the table to give light to all in the house. Your idea of selfless service is deceptive, for ye think to show extra love when what ye need to show them is the extra light ye could be, which they need to see and thus would know then how to correct their walk.

Behold, all life's knowledge will do you no good, nor them, if they know not how to find Me. Yet if ye do not attain to it first, then they will see no victory in you, neither shall they be stirred to go after it for themselves. Ye seek to give them something ye have not yet. They do not understand and distract you from your purpose. So you must be brutal upon your own heart to the separating of it away from all their playfulness.

Ye KNOW what ye need to do. Let none get in the way of your doing it if ye would have one of My high seats. Consider it well, My Sons and Daughters. The result will be well worth the price ye paid for it. Selah.

WHO ARE YOU GLORIFYING?

The point is not inactivity, but who or what ye are glorifying and extending by all your endeavors, whether of work at work or of work at home. For all have work at home that they must do. Yet all do not retain Me nor glorify Me but rather so often feed their flesh when they should be retaining their focus on Me in all they do. For to study is good to a point. But one must also be absorbing My Holy Spirit in the silence as well. And if ye cannot find any quiet time for yourself at any time during your day then are ye too consumed with the happenings around you to walk with Me. And if ye have no time in the day because of so much, then ye must seek Me while others are sleeping, else ye shall not endure unto holiness. Even as I arose a long time before day, that I might absorb strength from My Father before I was absorbed with people all the day long. I sought solitude with My Father for I could not have done what I did without it. Thus was I merciless to My flesh that wanted to sleep, that I might please My Father, and be filled with His Love, strength and power; that for your sakes. So must you do and be, in order that ye might also be filled and lit for the sake of your brother man.

Will ye indeed lay down your life so that your brother may be blessed? Will you indeed be poured out as oil upon the Altar for Me that I might be of service unto My people through thee? Will ye indeed be broken as bread to feed My hungry?

I rose up a long time before day and went out alone to seek My Father's blessing upon Me for that day. Be thou likewise, to the destroying of flesh, not the saving of it. Selah.

Beloveds, be followers of My footsteps, not self's desires. Self says, I will take My rest in sleep. Know that in a little folding of the hands to sleep that want shall come upon thee as an armed man, to thy complete overthrow. Therefore be awake; be vigilant; for thine enemy walks about, seeking whom he might devour. Selah and Amen.

BE NOT THE SLUGGARD

The thoughts of the sluggard say that there is no hurry and no need to be extra diligent in this hour. That things shall continue as they have for centuries unabated, and that so long are you are talking the right talk and walking the right walk, that ye will be ok, and that I will wink at a little complacency and apathy in thee. Behold, to the unlearned and the unwarned I will show mercy on this wise, but not unto them whom My many words have come. For as I told you, there is responsibility in them unto you who have heard them. And if My words that I have spoken repeatedly are true, that the Righteous Judge is standing at the door about to make His entrance, and His command for all His own to stand to be made, if ye believe not and quicken not thy pace, awakening from the stupor of thine own complacency, ye will be sleeping when He makes that call or shall be unprepared in a spotted and wrinkled garment, stained by the words, works and ways of thy uncrucified flesh; and then ye must needs be ashamed at His entrance. I warn thee to be prepared, knowing the quickness of that appearing, and seek to have all of you ready against that day. And wherein ye be put out with Me for all My warnings to you, know insomuch how much flesh still rules you, growling and complaining about My intrusion into your pipe dream of luxurious lounging in thy complacency and indifference to My words.

Behold, I warn you not in vain but as a Faithful and Loving Teacher, not afraid of offending thy flesh for thy spirit's sake, that ye be not caught off guard at that hour of My appearing. For if I warned you not over and over ye might have some reason to complain against Me. But I free Myself of thy blood by My faithful warning of you to be ready and not sleeping in complacent apathy that all is well and that there is still time for all that yet. Behold, I lie not. The time is at hand. Be thou ready, prepared and watching, with your lights burning.

Matthew 13:12 For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

Hebrews 3:7 Wherefore as the Holy Ghost saith, To day if ye will hear his voice,

3:8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

3:9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

Hebrews 12:25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

12:26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

12:27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

12:28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear.

12:29 For our God is a consuming fire.

1 Corinthians 3:13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

Isaiah 66:1 Thus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

John 2:15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

2:16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

Matthew 21:12 And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves,

Isaiah 50:11 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

John 3:5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
